WE DON'T WRING YOUR CLOTHES

There is no rubber roll wringer in our plant. Our wringer is a round perforated copper basket hung inside a metal case. The wet clothes are placed in the basket, power applied and the basket turned around several thousand times a minute, which throws the water out of the clothes through the small holes in the side of the basket. This wringer cannot break off buttons, tear your garments or pull off strings. It is why housewives find Nichols Way washing so satisfactory, clean garments less mending. Phone 95.

HELD FOR MURDER OF ISAAC WALKER

Magistrate Gudgeon Finds Probable Cause in Case of Wood Hyatt.

This morning before Magistrate Gudgeon, Wood Hyatt, colored, was held to court for the murder of Isaac Walker, also colored, whose body was found on the railroad track several weeks ago, and bond was fixed at $5000. Will Gasperon, white, and Tom Prator, colored, were released, as the magistrate considered that there was not evidence enough against them to hold them. It is likely that habeas corpus proceedings may be begun by counsel for Hyatt to secure his release or to reduce the bond. The evidence by which Hyatt was held was the result of statements which he is alleged to have made to other people concerning the manner in which Walker came to his death.

When the body of Walker was found on the track it was generally supposed that he was killed by a train. It seems that the officers had their suspicions, however, and they continued to make investigations. It was learned that Hyatt had said that he knew how Walker was killed; that he was not run over or struck by a train, but that he did not propose to tell how it was until he was forced to do so. There were also statements by Prator's small son, which seemed to implicate the other two men, but later he said that he had only been told that they were seen putting the body on the track. Gasperon proved an alibi some days ago and was released on his own recognizance. There were about 15 witnesses summoned to testify against Hyatt; some of the evidence was heard at a former session, and this morning only five or six witnesses were examined.

BROWN GETS 30 DAYS FOR CARRYING PISTOL

Number of Cases, Old and New, Adjudicated in Police Court.

In police court this morning the cases that were continued from yesterday were taken up and disposed of. The first of these included three defendants who had engaged in a little assault in the depot section Thursday. After the hearing of evidence in the matter, Marion Hall and H. F. McKee were found not guilty. Frank Deverbliss was found guilty on one count, but was found guilty and fined $5 and the costs on another.

Charles Brown, whose case was also continued from yesterday, was charged with carrying a concealed weapon and with being guilty of disorderly conduct. He was found not guilty of the latter offense but was convicted and given 30 days on the county roads for the former. He appealed to Superior court from this judgment. There were three witnesses in this case and all the evidence was secured from the first two. One of these had seen him with the pistol in the house of Lella Brown but did not know whether or not he carried it. Lella is one of the defendant's particular friends, it seems, and when she was put on the stand she said that she was so drunk at the time that she did not know anything about what had happened and if there was any disorderly conduct or a row she did not remember it. One of the other witnesses had said that he called the police to keep down a big row between her and the defendant.

Judge Adams then began investigating to find just how drunk the woman was. One of the witnesses who had been previously examined said that she had been drinking but was not drunk. The policeman who made the arrest said that she had a drink or two, but that it could not be noticed from her actions. Judge Adams thereupon held that she was guilty of contempt of court in not answering the questions and sentenced her to serve 10 days in the county jail.

The case of Paul Altman, who was charged with carrying a concealed weapon was continued until Monday on the plea of the counsel for the defense, who stated that his client was not in a condition this morning to render any assistance to him in the producing of evidence. One "drunk" case was adjudicated.

Rheumatism

is a Constitutional Disease. It manifests itself in local aches and pains—inflamed joints and stiff muscles—but it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires constitutional treatment, and the best is a course of the great blood purifying and tonic medicine Hood's Sarsaparilla which corrects the acid condition of the blood and builds up the system. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsantabs.

CITY NEWS

Magistrate Crossman today married three couples; John Willis and Addie Medford; Bascombe Clark and Dora Bridges; W. H. Rogers and Stella Clark.

Monday night will be "Ladies' Night" at the Theatro and Palace theaters, and all ladies of Asheville will be admitted free to the performances at these popular houses.

At the North Asheville Methodist church tomorrow, in addition to the regular sermon by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Poovey, communion services will be held. The pastors subject will be "Life's Contrasts."

Sheriff C. F. Williams has been informed by Z. H. Baird that he had two mules stolen from his farm near Weaverville yesterday, and circulars have been printed describing them. Both animals are black, one a male weighing about 1000 pounds, ten years old; and the other a female weighing 800, five years old.

J. C. Orr, head salesman for the Asheville Grocery company, suffered a rather painful accident yesterday afternoon when he fell from the top of an outhouse in his back yard and sprained one knee and both his wrists. He is confined to his home today, as a result of the accident, and will probably not be out again for several days.

The report of Revenue Agent Sams for the month of November shows that 32 illicit distilleries were seized during the month and that 22 prosecutions are recommended. The seizures were made in North Carolina and Virginia. A recent report from Special Employee Weaver is to the effect that he has captured an illicit distillery in Rockingham county.

Rev. Dr. C. W. Byrd, who has been conducting a revival at Waynesville, has returned to the city for Sunday and will fill the pulpit of Central Methodist church tomorrow morning. He may return to Waynesville for a few days, as he states that the people there are showing much interest in the revival. Rev. L. B. Abernethy will preach in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

As an evidence of the promptness with which death benefits are paid by the insurance department of the F. O. U. A. M., it is stated that the Biltmore council lost a member by death and the proofs were mailed on December 1; on December 5, the amount of the insurance was received by the secretary, C. E. Grove, and on the following day it was delivered to the beneficiary, the widow of the deceased.

At a recent meeting of the Biltmore council, No. 324, Jr. O. U. A. M., the following officers were elected: A. T. Davidson, junior past counselor; J. B. Jackson, counselor; Ernest Justice, vice counselor; Paul Sales, conductor; Frank Wolfe, inner sentinel; A. T. Moore, outer sentinel; J. P. McMillin, chaplain; C. E. Grove, secretary; Sam Warren, assistant recording secretary; Foke Bell, financial secretary; F. C. Walton, treasurer; E. F. Pressley, trustee.

In the bowling tournament which is to begin tonight between the Y. M. C. A. bowlers and the Remington Bowling club of Richmond, the following bowlers have been named as the local team: Hoffman, Sevier, Brandt, Sugg, Cathey, James and L. Brown. The tournament will last five weeks, three games being bowled each Saturday, and the results made known by wire. The Remington team is said to be one of the best in Richmond.

Edgar and McKinley Sharp and Claude Meadows of the Leicester section were given a hearing before Magistrate Gudgeon today, charged with assault on an old man, S. F. Meadows, the grandfather of Claud Meadows. Edgar Sharp had previously submitted to the charge before another justice of the peace, but the plaintiff was not present and he was taxed with the costs in this case the other two being acquitted.

The Gillette Safety Razors advertised yesterday by the Brown-Weaver Hardware Company should have been priced $2.75 and not $2.15, as appeared in yesterday's advertisement. This firm is offering first quality, standard goods at remarkably low prices, and the citizens of Asheville would do well to see their large stock before making their Christmas purchases. 11

Selecting Jury to Try Pickers. Chicago, Dec. 2.—Selection of a jury to try the indicted Chicago meat packers on charges of violating the criminal provisions of the Sherman anti-trust act is proceeding so rapidly that predictions were made by both sides that the government's first witness would take the stand about Wednesday of next week instead of several weeks hence, as had been expected.

When court closed yesterday six jurors had been accepted by both sides and four others had been found satisfactory to the defense.
