WILL GIVE PRIZES IN CORN CONTESTS

Also Girls' Poultry Contest, at Meeting in Court House Tomorrow.

Tomorrow is the day named by the Buncombe county corn contest committee when the prizes are to be awarded to the successful contestants in the boys' and men's corn contests prizes in the latter are to be awarded according to the judging done at the poultry show now going on here, the girls having entered their birds in the show for that purpose, as well as in competition for some of the poultry show prizes.

The reports in the corn contests have been coming in for the past few weeks, and while the results will not be made public until the meeting, it is said that the yields surpass the expectations of the contestants, considering the unfavorable season. And while it is not expected that the yields will come up to some of the others in the state and other states, it is hinted that the winner in both the men's and boys' contests will have to go above the 150 bushel mark.

Besides the acre-yield reports, there will be a seed corn contest in which three prizes are offered. There are also three prizes each in the other contests.

The corn contest committee consists of George S. Powell, Dr. A. S. Wheeler and E. D. Weaver, the latter being the county demonstrator; but A. C.
Reynolds, superintendent of education, has been taking great interest in the work and has co-operated with the committee, especially in getting the schoolboys interested. Mr. Reynolds stated this morning that this contest far surpassed that of last year, both as to the number of entries and the yields.

There has been much more interest in the work; and Mr. Weaver stated all over the county are impatiently awaiting the time to begin preparation for other contests; so that if next season proves favorable, it would not be surprising if Buncombe is heard from in the state and national competitions.
Some of the boys in the local contests are also entered for state and national prizes.

To give some idea of just what the yields are all over the county the following list furnished by Mr. Weaver of the amounts of corn raised by the assistant demonstrators on one acre of land is given. By the reports of 29 demonstrators it is shown that they averaged over 77 bushels to the acre, Sidney Ashworth averaged nearly 90 bushels to the acre on five acres of corn; he made 448 bushels. These demonstrators were selected from all parts of the county. The report follows:

Years of Suffering
Catarrh and Blood Disease—Doctors Failed to Cure.
Miss Mabel F. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes: "For three years I was troubled with catarrh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles of this medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarrh."

THREE ASSAULT CASES AILED IN POLICE COURT

Long Docket Disposed of; Including Big Whiskey Case.

There was a long docket to be disposed of in police court today, besides the big retailing case which consumed almost two hours. A number of these were assault cases and some of the defendants were rather severely dealt with.

Harry Bradley was charged with an assault on a woman and was fined $25 and the costs. He appealed the case but later withdrew this appeal. The evidence was to the effect that he had followed the woman from one house to another and was dragging her out when the policeman arrested him.

James Odem, colored, was found guilty of an assault on another negro boy with a large stick and was fined $15 and the costs. It was in evidence that the boy he hit had cursed him but the court held that he had no right to use a stick on the offender.

Harry Foster was also up for an assault and was fined $5 and the costs.
The assault charge was upon a small boy and the evidence for the state was that he had struck the boy a number of times without provocation. The defendant went on the stand in his own behalf, however, and said that this boy, with a number of others, was playing in his yard, after having been ordered off, and they were tearing up the grass and raising a noise that disturbed the people in the house.
The court held that he had some provocation and accordingly gave him a light fine.

Ott Fowler was found guilty of disorderly conduct by raising a disturbance with F. W. Zimmerman in the depot section, and was fined $5 and the costs. Zimmerman was found not guilty of an assault on Fowler.

The cases against John Billy Morris and Walter Rimes, charged with stealing a suit of clothes from Carnot Flack, were taken up and part of the evidence heard, but they were not finally disposed of as the court wished to hear from another witness that could not be found this morning.
There was very little evidence of a damaging nature against either of the defendants.

Samuel Justice was before the court charged with driving an automobile in a reckless manner down Patton avenue. The case grew out of an accident in which the automobile struck the carriage of Mrs. Thomas Settle.
The evidence was that the carriage was immediately in front of the machine and that both of them had slowed down on account of the congestion of traffic; and when a stop was made, the machine struck the carriage a slight blow which did not do any serious damage. The defendant was released upon the payment of the costs.
