WILLING TO FIGHT IN ANY MANNER

Dr. Cook Says He'll Back His Claims with Money, Documents, Witnesses or Fists.

TELLS OF SUFFERING ON NORTHERN JOURNEY

Says His Mission Is to Uncover Dark Pages of Conspiracy to Rob Him of His Rights.

To a fair sized audience Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the arctic explorer, last night delivered a lecture at the Auditorium in which he told of the trip which he claims he made to the north pole, described in an interesting way the sufferings he had endured, told of the customs of the people and in conclusion paid his respects in detail to those who had sought to discredit his claim to immortality. Dr. Cook told a very plausible story and it was evident that the audience, if it did not believe, was at least impressed with the story and his manner of telling it.

He was introduced by Dr. Justin Wohlforth, a classmate, who was introduced by Guy Weaver. Mr. Weaver made a few remarks in which he expressed confidence in Dr. Cook as a physician and a gentleman.

In the lecturing Dr. Cook told of his dash to the pole and illustrated it with slides made from photographs which he said were taken on the journey. In this he made it plain that he had actually participated in some harrowing experiences and that he had dwelt for months in the trackless wastes far from civilization.

In reference to his reaching the pole Dr. Cook declared that he had never claimed "pin point accuracy" but he had attained a spot where the sun in its revolutions had maintained practically the same distance above the horizon, where the shadows were unchanging in their length, which, he said, ought to satisfy real explorers. He undertook to discredit the National Geographic Society.

His mission, he declared to be the uncovering of the dark pages of a conspiracy woven to rob him of his rights and to place him in a false light in the world; and he claimed that he was entitled to some consideration by reason of his 20 years endeavor to do something for posterity.

He then took up the trip in detail, telling how he made the start with the support of John B. Bradley. He sailed to Etah and there awaited the coming of the dawn. It was February 19 when the sun rose, when everything had been made ready for the trip and the party started out with 193 dogs and 11 sledges with as many drivers.

After reaching the polar seas, part of the dogs were sent back with six of the men, and the remainder pressed on with 44 dogs, and in three days they made 60 miles.

He then told of the selection of the two young men who accompanied him to the pole and of the trying times they endured; how, when they were about 100 miles from the pole, one of the men broke down and declared they had as well die; how he infused new courage in them with the statement that the pole was not so far away, after which they went ahead, doubling their daily march.

He told of the last days of the journey by which he reached the pole, of the unspeakable hardships and then began the narrative of the return trip, his battle for food and warmth.

After he had repeated some of the charges of corruption on the part of his enemies, he declared that he was ready to back up his statements by documents, witnesses, his money, or his fists.

LADY BURNED TO DEATH IN SIGHT OF HER SISTER

Dress Caught, as She Sat Before Fire—Cold Causing Much Suffering.

Gazette-News Bureau, Daily News Building, Greensboro, Jan. 15.

Miss Matilda Geringer, an aged maiden lady of Gibsonville, 18 miles from Greensboro, met tragic death at her home Sunday afternoon shortly before 1 o'clock when her clothing in some manner caught while she was seated before an open fire, and before help arrived death had ensued. Miss Geringer was about 70 years of age and lived alone in a cottage across the road from her sister, Mrs. John Boone. It is supposed that while seated before the fire a live spark fell on her cotton dress. She was seen by her sister to arise from her chair in flames. Mrs. Boone called for help and hurried to the assistance of her sister but which she and others arrived Miss Geringer lay in the floor, her clothing practically burned off and the flesh burned and seared. The efforts of a hastily formed bucket brigade saved the cottage from destruction. Miss Geringer was burned almost beyond recognition.

John Terrell, who is under arrest in Roanoke, Va., is badly wanted in Greensboro for the alleged flogging of checks on a number of people of this place. Chief Isley has been seeking the whereabouts of Terrell for some time but only learned that he was in Roanoke after the authorities of that city had named him. When Roanoke gets through with Terrell the Greensboro authorities will take the man in charge.

The severe cold weather in Greensboro is causing much suffering among the poor and while the Salvation army and other associations doing charity work have relieved much of the suffering it is said that there are still a large number of families in distress. The indications yesterday morning were for milder weather but during the afternoon thermometers dropped to about 20 and last night was another very cold night.

INDIGESTION GOES IN FIVE MINUTES

Heartburn, Dyspepsia, Gas and Other Stomach Misery Vanishes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and Eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of Dizziness, Heartburn, Fullness, Nausea, Bad Taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is Indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapensin costs only 50 cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or Indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent cases, then you will understand why Dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why Diapensin always relieves sour, out-of-order stomachs or Indigestion in five minutes. Diapensin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for Biliousness of Constitution.

This city will have many Diapensin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for Indigestion or Gastritis or any other Stomach misery. Get some Pape's Diapensin now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of Stomach Trouble and Indigestion.

The Better to Hear? "Is your boy Josh fond of music?" "I should say so," replied Farmer Corntassel. "When one of these here musical comedies comes along Josh wants to be right up as close to the orchestra as possible."—Washington Star.

Natural Local Temperature 55 degrees; precipitation 13.
Forecast for 24 hours: Fair to light, with lowest temperature about six degrees; Wednesday fair, with rising temperature. Moderate west and northwest winds.
Summary of Conditions.
The area of high barometric pressure noted yesterday over the Dakotas has moved rapidly southeastward and is now central over the lower Ohio valley and Tennessee. Its advance has been preceded by sharp decreases in temperature throughout the southeastern quarter of the country, cold waves occurring at a number of points.
The passage of the high pressure area to the eastward will be favorable for the continuance of fair weather in this vicinity tonight and Wednesday, with rising temperature Wednesday.
