Her Confinement in Hospital Had Been Advised-Inquest Concluded Late Last Night.

With reference to the killing Walter A. Harrison by his young wife yesterday morning at their home, 116 Barriett street, Judge Pallip C. Cocke of counsel for Mrs Judge Harrison makes the following state

"The case of Mrs. Harrison is disessingly sad. There has been the ravest apprehension concerning her since the birth of her hild, Walter, jr., six months ago, and his circumstance of her mental dethronement makes the case all the more pitiable and to be deplored.

"In an effort to arrest this mental couble Mrs. Harrison had been exmined a few weeks ago by Dr. H. C. ong at his sanitarium at Statesville with the result that he advised immelate confinement at Morganton. This pinion of Dr. Long was shared b ther eminent specialists.

"The young woman's family were nsistent in carrying out the physiian's advice; however, they verruled by the young husband who ntended that a change to Asheville and treatment here would be the bet er course.

The father Robert L. White of Hickory, with other members of the amily, is now in Asheville, and the date, when a proper disposition will be made of it."

The hearing of the evidence by the proper and jury was concluded late resterday afternoon, and the circum-fances brought out were substanially the same as published yesterday n The Gazette-News. The jury, com posed of T. P. Johnson, J. H. Rich erdson, J. E. Misenheimer, Jame Corn, W. P. McCollister, and T. E Kelley, returned the following ver
