

Robert E. Lee Said

"When to the intelligence of Southern men we have added the wholesome instinct of saving money, no race will equal us."

Were he alive today he would be a most loyal supporter of the Building and Loan plan. And here is what some other good people think—

Dr. T. C. Smith says:

Having already taken a hundred shares in the Blue Ridge Building and Loan Association and expecting to take more as soon as convenient, I cheerfully add my testimony to the good management of President, Treasurer and Director—they seem to be making good, and then work will increase if our people will continue their support as in the past.

Mr. S. Lipinsky says:

I do not believe there is a better institution in Asheville than the Blue Ridge Building & Loan Association. It is one of the few organizations which can be conducted along mutual lines with success and with small expense. I am glad to recommend it to the public.

Capt. J. P. Sawyer says:

Real Estate mortgages are without question as safe a form of investment as one can find. The Blue Ridge Building and Loan Association lends only on this class of security. Its expenses are small, its officers careful and I believe it one of Asheville's safest and best institutions.

Mr. C. T. Rawls says:

It pleases me to have the opportunity of commending the Blue Ridge Building and Loan Association to the confidence of the public. I think it a most worthy institution in every way and as economically and carefully conducted as any business enterprise in Asheville.

Mr. F. M. Weaver says:

Nothing adds to the value of a citizen so much as owning his own home. The Building & Loan Association enables a man of limited means to do this. Wherever you find Building & Loan Associations you find good citizens and a thrifty community. I believe the local association is doing a fine work and that its affairs are well managed.

We have sold over one thousand shares already.

WILSON'S CHANCE EXCEEDINGLY GOOD

Mr. Ramsey Thinks New Jersey Man Will Win on the Third or Fourth Ballot.

D. Hiden Ramsey, who is at home from the University of Virginia, stopping over here in a trip in the interest of the southern Woodrow Wilson student clubs, said today:

"The simultaneous appearance of the Joline letter and the so-called Cleveland letter, along with the Carnegie pension embroglio and the Harvey-Watterson fiasco, lent some color to the statement that the bitter opposition to Wilson within his party would prevent his nomination. But the bubble blown by Hearst and Dohlan were soon pricked. The underhand, piddling attempts of the New York Sun, the Charlotte Observer and others of their ilk to discredit the Jersey executive's candidacy have disgusted many fair-minded readers into defending Wilson from such virulent and unwarranted attacks. The Wilson boom is becoming so large and overshadowing all the others that the Clark, Harmon and Underwood forces have been frightened into a combination to tie up the delegates in the Baltimore convention and prevent Wilson from receiving the nomination.

"When any democrat can go into the national convention heartily supported by such leaders of democracy as John Sharp Williams, Culberson, Gore, C. G. Smith and Tillman of South Carolina, Senator Gore of Oklahoma, Hoke Smith of Georgia, Bryan of Florida, O'Gorman of New York, Gardner of Maine, Newlands of Nevada, Chamberlain of Oregon, Governor Shafroth of Colorado (whom Bryan mentioned as his candidate for the nomination) and others equally well known in the party councils his chances of winning are very bright, to say the least.

"In my estimation the clearest indication of Wilson's strength is to be found in the number of letters received by the Wilson bureau in every mail pledging the support of the senders to the governor's candidacy. Another hopeful sign is to be seen in the unanimity with which the independent newspapers have rallied in Wilson's defense. The support of such independent organs as the Indianapolis News, the Springfield Republican, the Baltimore Sun, the Nation, Collier's and others argues well for his chances.

"Wilson will go into the convention with a majority of the delegates. His lieutenants will be able to organize the convention, appoint the committees, etc. On the first ballot, many state delegations will throw away their votes on a complimentary to some favorite son. The real fight will come on the second ballot. Here Wilson will muster his first trial of strength. It is confidently expected that the third or fourth ballot will be all that is necessary to give Wilson the required two-thirds.

"A few days ago I had a conference with Mr. Stuart Gibbons of New York, one of Wilson's campaign managers. Mr. Gibbons claimed all the states west of the Mississippi except seven. Two of those excepted were Oklahoma and Kansas. Later developments have given Wilson the Kansas delegation on the second ballot. Although Oklahoma was conceded to Clark and no fight was made by the Wilson forces to secure the delegation, yet the governor got a dog-fall and will go into the Baltimore convention with half of Oklahoma's votes to his credit.

"No real fight has been opened for the North Carolina delegates. But an organization will be effected in a few days with Josephus Daniels or ex-Governor Glenn, Congressman Small or some other capable man at the helm. Governor Wilson's boyhood residence in the state and his numerous friends and friends in North Carolina will help materially in working up Wilson sentiment."

The Woodrow Wilson League for College Men, he says, has a student membership of nearly 15,000. College men are taking an active interest in the present campaign, many of them at present canvassing their states in Wilson's behalf. On June 18 the national committee of the league will meet in Baltimore. Mr. Ramsey will preside at this meeting.

Mr. Ramsey went today to Waynesville, where he will deliver the main address at a Wilson rally tonight. Saturday night of this week he speaks before the Wilson club of Chatham and Pitsylvania counties, Virginia, April 13—Jackson's birthday—Mr. Ramsey is to deliver the oration at a Wilson rally at John Hopkins university.

Club Organized Here.

About 25 boys of the High school met in the High school auditorium yesterday afternoon and with the aid of Mr. Ramsey organized a Woodrow Wilson club with the following officers: Wallace B. Wright, president; Charles O. Riddick, vice president; Edward Olsen, secretary-treasurer; Hubert C. Jarvis and J. V. Brookshire, publicity committee.

This is said to be the first high school club to be formed.

OVER 650 CASES FROM THE DOCKET

Bar Passes Resolutions of Appreciation of Work of Judge B. F. Long.

ASKS THE GOVERNOR FOR SPECIAL TERM

And Wants Judge Long to Preside—About 350 Cases Now on Docket.

Superior court for the trial of civil cases, which has been in session here since March 11 with Judge B. F. Long of Statesville presiding, met this morning and adjourned since die, the real business of the court having been completed yesterday afternoon. At the term just closed a great deal of business has been disposed of and the docket is in much better condition. It is said that more cases were disposed of at this term than at any former term. More than 650 cases have been cleared from the docket since Judge Long began holding court here and there now remain about 350 cases on the docket. Over 100 cases were disposed of this week.

Just before court took recess yesterday afternoon, the members of the Bar association passed resolutions commending Judge Long for the effective work that he has done and requesting the governor to order a special term of Superior court for the trial of civil cases and to assign Judge Long to preside.

Judge Long thanked the members of the bar for their kind expressions and said that he had been able to do the work only with the co-operation of the attorneys and with the efficient assistance of the court officials. He left today for Statesville to attend a family reunion.

The resolutions follow: "Resolution of thanks to His Honor, B. F. Long, Judge presiding over the Superior court of Buncombe county, spring term, 1912.

"Whereas, His Honor, B. F. Long, by arduous work has succeeded in clearing our dockets of their burden of congested cases and by his business-like methods has disposed of all causes set down for trial by the bar on our calendars; and

"Whereas, it appears from an inspection of the dockets of the court, that since Judge Long began holding our courts there have been disposed of more than 650 cases, leaving now on our trial docket only about 350 cases, most of which are live cases and stand for trial upon their merits, and the business of the courts has been dispatched with promptness and uniform courtesy; and we, the bar, feel that his honor has earned a well merited rest; therefore, be it

"Resolved, by the members of the bar of Buncombe county: "That the thanks of the citizens of Buncombe county and the members of the bar of the county are due, and are hereby tendered, to Judge B. F. Long for his faithful, efficient, arduous and effective labors and efforts in relieving the dockets of Buncombe county of their crowded and congested condition; and

"That Judge Long by his unremitting and indefatigable labors has disposed of more than 650 civil cases heretofore pending on the Superior court docket of Buncombe county and has accomplished these results without undue haste, with considerate courtesy to lawyers and litigants and, without, has displayed the highest type of judicial ability.

"That we earnestly request the governor of North Carolina to order a special term of the Superior court of Buncombe county for the trial of civil cases and for that purpose to assign Hon. B. F. Long to hold said special term.

"That we do now recommend that court do adjourn for this term and request the clerk of this court to spread these resolutions upon the minutes of the court and deliver a copy thereof to his honor, Judge Long.

"Unanimously passed in open court March 27, 1912."

The following cases were disposed of yesterday afternoon:

Hugh Saxton vs. S. Sternberg; plaintiff recovers $2.
A. B. Hamby vs. Southern Railway; plaintiff recovers $250.

STATE'S BEST DRILLED SQUAD IN COMPANY F

And the Company Has the Best Close Order Drill of Any in the State.

After completing the inspection of the two local companies of the N. C. N. G. and their property last night, Captain Daugherty of the United States army and Col. Stringfield of the N. C. N. G. left this morning to continue the inspection of other companies. While here they also inspected the First Regiment band. The guns, uniforms, quarters and in fact the whole equipment were found to be in good condition, and last night the companies were put through some difficult drills. The men made a fine showing.

Before leaving this morning Captain Daugherty expressed himself as being well pleased with the results of the inspection of the two companies. He stated that Company F, commanded by Captain Koon, put up the best close order drill of any company in the state; that the third squad of Company F is the best drilled squad in the state.

Wrong Bearings.

After spending the greater part of the evening with friends John decided that home was the place for him, and, arriving there, he elected to sleep in the front yard. Next morning, happening to look up, he saw his wife observing him from an open window. "What that window?" he yelled. "Do you want me to catch my death of cold?"—Everybody.
