Will Determine Whether Taft or Roosevelt Gets State

Delegation.

Baltimore, May 6 .- The Maryland primary election today will determine whether Taft or Roosevelt will capture the state's 16 votes at the republican national convention. Three can didates for the democratic nomina-tion are in the field-Clark, Wilson and Harmon Wilson men are confident of winning.

One particular feature of Mary-iand's primary law adds to the un-certainty of the outcome. This is the provision for voting by county units. According to this provision, if a county goes for Roosevell, the delegates to the state convention will be morally bound to regard the trend indicated, and if a majority of the counties should vote for Taft, for instance, then the state convention is bound to select delegates' who will be favorable to him. Maryland has many counties and and the interests of the various sec-lions of the state are diverse, thus rendering the results of the voting more difficult to foretell with any detee of certainty, The Taft and Roosevelt manager
