Who Is Going to Get Bonnie?

This is the last month on Pony Contest.

I wish to state that Hotels, Restaurants, Bakeries, etc., cannot enter this contest, as it is simply a family affair.

On the 9th of June all holding tickets must deposit them with their name and amount on outside of package, with Mr. Wm. Duncan at the Citizen Bank, who will count all tickets, and the one having the largest amount in dollars and cents, will get the Pony on June 10th. Mr. Duncan will announce the winner.

MR. JONES' CREDITORS DO STROKE OF BUSINESS

Arrest and Bail Proceedings Are Begun and Mr. Jones He Pays the Bills.

The creditors of B. C. Jones, who had been conducting a boarding house at 58 North Main street "got busy" yesterday afternoon and effectually prevented that gentleman's departure from the city until he had "squared up."

It is said that Mr. Jones, who came here from Wilmington, Del., had rented the house at 58 North Main street from Mrs. Neville and conducted it through the winter, in the meanwhile making several bills. The story goes that he had shipped his baggage away about two weeks ago and yesterday he and his wife started back to Delaware.

It was then that the creditors became active. He is said to have owed Mrs. Neville for rent; also coal, meat and grocery bills. He had already gone to the station when papers were issued in arrest and bail proceedings by Magistrate James. This was done about train time and Mr. Jones would have been on his way had not No. 12 been late. As it was the officer had few minutes to spare, and one officer was sent to Biltmore in case Jones was missed at the Asheville station.

Mr. Jones was brought back up town, while his wife continued her journey. He succeeded in settling with the pressing creditors and left on a later train.

A Step Up Awaits the Person Ready for It

When something hobbles one back, the cause is often found to be an unsuspected habit—such as coffee or tea drinking.

Caffeine, the drug in coffee and tea, interferes with digestion; has a destructive effect on nerves and brain and causes various ills which handicap one's physical and mental power.

If this is found true in your case, the thing to do is to quite the cause—coffee or tea—and shift to

COMMENCEMENT SEASON AT WEAVERVILLE COLLEGE

Banquet Saturday Evening, Baccalaureate Sermon Yesterday, Etc.

The morning session of the Weaver-ville college commencement was given to a declamation contest in which several young men took part and acquitted themselves with credit. This afternoon there is a meeting of the trustees of the college at which business matters are considered and the teachers elected.

Yesterday morning the baccalaureate sermon was preached in the college auditorium by Rev. W. A. Lambeth of Winston-Salem. It was a masterly effort, one of the most interesting sermons that has been heard at commencements for years. Last night there was another interesting sermon by Rev. W. A. Newell, pastor of Haywood street Methodist church of Asheville. Large audiences heard both sermons.

One of the most pleasing features of the commencement was the alumni banquet which was given Saturday night. Plates were laid for only about 100 but nearly twice that many were fed. On this account some of the toasts had to be omitted. Just before the banquet Capt. W. T. Weaver of Asheville delivered a very inspiring address. The banquet was greatly enjoyed by all.

PRAYER AND STUDY, CURE FOR DEFECTIVE HEARING

Many Failures, Says Rev. Mr. Stirewalt, Are Due to Defective Spiritual Hearing.

Rev. M. L. Stirewalt of Lenoir college was the speaker at the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting yesterday afternoon, at which he delivered a very helpful address to an appreciative audience. His subject was "Defective Hearing and Its Cure." In the evening he addressed the meeting at the Florence hotel on the same subject.

Rev. Mr. Stirewalt has spoken here on other occasions and his talks are always heard with pleasure.

The hearing to which the speaker referred was spiritual hearing, and he went on to say that many of the failures of life are due to defective spiritual hearing of the man who do not hear the word of God and live according to His laws.

This defect, he said, can only be cured by prayer and the studying of the Word. He urged that his hearers give more time to prayer and Bible study.

Included in the musical program was a solo by Miss Pearl Shope.

FIRST CONFEDERATE REUNION HELD HERE

Mrs. Ray Gave It at Her Home—Story Sent as Feature to Numerous Papers.

N. Buckner, secretary of the board of trade, has sent out to about 50 southern papers the story of what was said to be probably the first Confederate reunion held, when on July 4, 1899, "Mother Ray," the wife of Col. J. M. Ray, invited the members of the Sixtieth regiment, which was commanded by her husband, to come to their home, "Ramoah," and eat dinner. There were about 20 of the Sixtieth regiment present and many of other regiments. The story was to have been released today, but the Nashville Banner published it Saturday. It is nearly a column in length.

The people of Asheville are familiar with the story. The reunion was planned by Mrs. Ray as a surprise for the colonel and was successful in this and other respects.

It was the next year that the United Confederate veterans' reunion was organized in Chattanooga.

The article is also appearing in some papers accompanied by pictures.

Suffrage Parade Big Demonstration

New York, May 5.—The promise of the women suffrage leaders to eclipse all previous demonstrations for their cause was fulfilled Saturday afternoon when more than 9000 women and 900 men paraded for three miles up Fifth avenue under suffrage banners.

Hundreds of thousands of persons looked on from windows and balconies in hotels and business places along the avenue, and the sidewalks were so crowded for the entire length of the route that the mounted police were unable to keep the spectators within bounds. There was no disorder, however.

MAN SERIOUSLY INJURED IN LUMBERING ACCIDENT

Albert Cordell's Leg Crushed and Back Injured by Rolling Log.

John Castle and John A. Reagan of the Ritter Lumber company arrived here yesterday afternoon from Proctor, Swain county, bringing with them Albert Cordell, who was rather badly crushed when a log rolled over him Saturday morning. He was placed in the Mission hospital yesterday afternoon and Dr. Fletcher operated on him. It was thought at first that his back was badly injured, but this was found not to be serious. The bones in one leg was crushed, however, and the splintered parts had to be removed. He is reported to be doing well.

Cordell's home is in Black Mountain and he was employed on the logging force of the Ritter company in the operations on Hazel creek, near the Tennessee line. It is said that he was working below some logs when one of them became dislodged and rolled over him.

The accident happened about 11 o'clock and Cordell was placed on a cot and brought to Bushnell on a log train, not in time, however, to catch the train to Asheville Saturday night. He had already received medical attention at the camp, where a physician is employed.

Gently But Thoroughly Cleanse Your Liver, Stomach and Bowels and You Feel Great by Morning.

You're bilious, you have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. ## STRANGERS IN ASHEVILLE

Usually express their surprise on examining our extensive stock of women's ready-for-service garments which we carry. They say—"It's a Rare Thing," to see such variety, such quality, and modest prices in a speciality store, especially in a city the size of Asheville.

We know this to be a high compliment to our efforts to excel here, in our chosen line of merchandising, for it comes as an unsolicited endorsement of our efforts and achievements in giving the women of Asheville more in styles and better values than they would get in cities double in population.

New garments arrive daily by express—there is always something new to see.

delegates will have arrived by tonight and they will leave tomorrow morning on train number 22. Odd Fellowship is very strong in the western counties and there will likely be 50 or more delegates to leave on the train at Asheville. Some 600 are expected at the grand lodge.

There will be a meeting of the Blue Ridge lodge tonight at which the initiatory degree will be conferred on several candidates, and all visiting Odd Fellows are invited to attend.

The grand lodge and assembly is to be one of the biggest and most important meetings of Odd Fellows ever held in the state. A silver loving cup for the one most proficient in secret work will be contested for by W. H. Zimmermann of the Blue Ridge lodge.

Wanted—Everybody to write a lyric for the Springtime Lyric Contest. The Gazette-News will pay fifty cents for every verse accepted.
