

SPRINGTIME LYRIC CONTEST

Write a six-line verse, or less, on some article you have seen advertised in any store or name of some article sold by any Asheville firm, bringing in the merits of the article and firm handling same. Send or bring to The Gazette-News as many as you want to. Fifty cents will be paid for each Lyric accepted by the merchant and published by them.

Each Lyric must be written on a separate piece of paper and signed with your name and address. Checks will be mailed out by The Gazette-News each week for all Lyrics accepted.

At the end of the contest a $5 gold piece will be given to the one who has sent in the greatest number of Lyrics accepted during the contest. This prize is in addition to the 50c given on all accepted Lyrics.

You stand a chance to get several dollars as it is likely a hundred dollars or more will be given away on this contest. Get busy at once. Address Lyric Editor, Gazette-News.

THE FOLLOWING IS A SAMPLE LYRIC:

With one firm, few can compete,
When it comes to fitting feet—
To make your feet look trim and neat
The Hub Shoe Store can't be beat.
