To illustrate the value of shorthand to a business man, let me tell you the following story:

A wealthy New Yorker bought a piece of property for $300,000. He strongly suspected that the middle man was making a large profit, although he represented he was getting merely the ordinary broker's commission.

In order to get at the facts the buyer put some questions to the owner who verified the broker's statement. He put down the answer in shorthand, having learned it reluctantly in his youth. The fact of the case was that the owner was only to get $200,000 for his property, and a division of the difference. As usual with people of this type, a row occurred, and the facts came out five years later. The seller of the property and the broker got into a lawsuit. The seller employed one of the best firms of attorneys in New York. The hoodwinked buyer was subpoenaed as a witness, and testified from his shorthand notes. The testimony was so accurate and explicit that the firm of attorneys threw up the case for the original owners and sued and recovered $100,000 for the man whose parents had sense enough to give him a commercial course in shorthand. This investment paid 100,000 per cent dividend and an investment of $70 in our business courses can always be relied upon to pay a bigger dividend than any investment which you are ever likely to make.

Results Yesterday.

At Johnson City—Johnson City-Asheville, game postponed, rain.
At Morrisstown—Knoxville, 4; Morrisstown, 5.
At Bristol—Cleveland, 0; Bristol, 1. (Called at end of the sixth, rain.)

Games Today.

Asheville at Johnson City.
Cleveland at Bristol.
Knoxville at Morrisstown.

Special to The Gazette-News.

Johnson City, May 15.—The second game of the series between Asheville and this city was postponed yesterday afternoon on account of a down-pour of rain. The teams went on the field with the intention of playing if the rain stopped, but there was no indication of its slackening, and Umpire Burke declared it off.
The last game of the series will be played this afternoon and there is much speculation among the fans as to who is going to work and what the outcome will be. The Mountaineers leave tomorrow for Bristol, where they will play the last three games of the week.

Knoxville Defeated.

Knoxville, May 15.—Morrisstown won the second game of the season from the locals here yesterday afternoon in a hotly contested game. The score was tied twice and was finally lost by errors on the part of the locals.
The following is the score by innings:
R. H. E.
Morrisstown . . . 111 001 001—5 8 1
Knoxville . . . 000 201 010—4 10 4
Batteries—Williams and Westlake; Wilson, Silvers and Williams and Franks.

Bristol Wins Again.

Special to The Gazette-News.
Bristol, May 15.—The home team yesterday afternoon repeated the dose administered in the first game to Cleveland and won 1 to 0, in spite of the fact that in the five innings played only one hit was made off of Griner, the visiting pitcher. The game was stopped at the end of the fifth on account of rain. The following is the score:
R. H. E.
Bristol . . . 00 01—1 1 1
Cleveland . . . 000 00—0 3 5
Batteries—Stultz and Munson; Griner and Whitfield.

The Lax-Fos Way.

If you had a machine that would strengthen the liver, the stomach, the kidneys and the bowels, and at the same time make you strong with a systemic tonic, don't you believe you would soon be well?

That's "The Lax-Fos Way."
We ask you to buy the first bottle on the money-back plan, and you will ask your druggist to sell you the second.

It keeps your whole insides right. There is nothing else made like Lax-Fos.
Remember the name—LAX-FOS.
