MR. CRAIG.

Plain facts about it are that his neighbors recognize in Mr. Craig a good man and worthy of the exalted cure for him; and a majority of them are greatly pleased at the nomination of a western man. North Carolina is an empire, in extent and wealth. To utive is a great compliment, a great recognition; and this community so

Mr. Craig is a man of parts and personality. His neighbors have known him well for a long time. He wears. He is a pleasant companion. genuine. He is of a presence and dignity to fit the gubernatorial office, and at the same time he is vigorous other, and easily aroused in a cause that appeals to him, to zealous effort and impassioned oratory. He has the other interesting developments. His rare gift of eloquence. He has profound, solemn undelying convictions in democracy. He has gone far; still ment and even now have revolution a young man, and strong, he may go much further.

Mr. Craig has already achieved success. He had his years of struggle-a long period. He has had to sacrifice much to his political career, But, especially in the past four years, he has achieved remarkable professional success.

The hearts of his own people are warm to Mr. Craig and they joy in his singular triumph.

This nomination is usually equivalent to election. In North Carolina just now, however, the vast majority of Republicans are also Roosevelters, and a Roosevelter confidently expects the impossible to happen tomorrow as some sage "Savoyard" quotes says it always does. With Roosevelt the nominee of his party they will endeavor to see that it does happen. They would expect to carry North Carolina for their chief, and would nominate as strong a State ticket as possible and work for it with fervor.

With Mr. Taft the nominee and Mr. Roosevelt out of the field it would be another story. Gloom would obsess the camp and there might be no very determined attempt to elect any

CLARK VS. WILSON.

The New York World's advocacy of Woodrow Wilson as the most available Democratic candidate in the event of Roosevelt's nomination by the Republicans has aroused Col. Watterzon, in his Courier-Journal, to pen a strong brief for Champ Clark. The inception of Col. Watterson's antagonism to Wilson is a matter of political history. The colonel embraces this occasion to take another whack at the "school master:"

No honorable man can learn the editor of the Courier-Journal holds and has repeatedly offered to produce under proper restrictions as to per-delegates. The decision was reach sonal rights and party interest, and after a conference last night remain of the opinion that the governor of New Jersey is either a trust-worthy or a safe man to be invested with Democratic leadership and the Presidential office. Unfortunately, good breeding and integrity are not convertible terms, while austerity and virtue are often wide apart. . . . and goes on to term the governor "a doctrinaire man of letters who has acquired by a lifetime in the classroom quired by a lifetime in the than the the tyrannous east of mind and the disciplinary habits of the school mass. ter, and who, suddenly elevated to the Presidency, would lose all real sense of the relation of things, if ever he possessed any faculty for making common cause and working to har-Col. Watterson wants a "man of flesh and blood" in the Presidential chair, and strongly excepts to the World's characterization of Champ Clark as a "slang-whanging politician" fhom whom the east would recoil. Of his choice, he says: All the World says against Champ I Clark was said against Abraham Lincoln. The Democratic party wants a Democrat a Democrat tried and true, in the White House. We want no great, and whose friends think and tall him he is so great, that when the test comes he is good for noth-ington long enough to know who's and what's what. He ought to be that want a man and not an ange for their President. He has been in the thick of factional fighting during revolutionary times. Inevitably he has said much he might have better left unsaid. So have all of us. The comparison of Champ Clark to Abraham Lincoln hardly tends to add weight to Col. Watterson's indorse ment, which already lacks something of being absolutely convincing in view of his former stand for Wilson and his alienation for causes which, so far as the public knows, were chimerical. It is difficult to conceive of a situation in which Mr. Clark would be in the running, even with the support of Col. Watterson and Mr. 经税税税税税税税税税税 机铁铁铁铁铁铁铁铁铁 Hearst.

REVOLUTIONIZING IDEAS AS TO ANIMAL LIFE.

Dr. Alexis Carrel, in charge of reearch work at the Rockefeller institute in New York, has announced a Western Union are co-operating. Flynn to Chicago.

Oyster Bay, June 7.—State Senator
William Flynn of Pittsburgh was dispatched post haste to Chicago by facts and inspect the proof which the Colonel Roosevelt to act as the expresident's representative in the fight in the national committee over seafing delegates. The decision was reached which the situation at Chicago, as told to the colonel over his private wires, from the seat of war, was discussed Colonel Roosevelt was careful to explain that the leadership of his fight would remain where it has been, in the hands of Senator Dixon, his campaign manager.

"Senator Flynn starts for Chicago at once," he said. "He is going at my request. Senator Dixon will be in charge. Mr. Flynn will assist him."

Order of Nominations.

Washington, June 7.—President
Taft's name may not be the first to be presented to the republican na-tional convention at Chicago and in fact Taft leaders still in Washington said that the president's name might not be put before the convention until after Colonel Roosevelt has been placer in nomination.

It became known that when C. D. Hilles left for Chicago he carried with him a draft of a tentative plan for him a draft of a tentative plan for the presentation of his name to the convention. That plan was declared to be subject to alteration by Taft leaders now in Chicago and of course by Mr. Taft if he finds it unsuitable before the day when the nominations are made.

Officials, Citizens and Regimental Band Will Meet Hon. Locke Craig.

NON-PARTISAN AFFAIR; EVERYONE IS INVITED

He Will Be Escorted With Fitting Ceremony From Station to His Residence.

A mammoth mass reception is being planned for the purpose of giving Hon. Locke Craig, democracy's unanichoice for governor, an ovation when he returns to the city from Raleigh, where he received the nomination, the like of which has not been seen for many years. The committee on arrangement has not yet learned just when he will arrive, but it is making strenuous efforts to that end Southern railway and the to be a non-partisan affair, everybody present, and it is not thought that invitations will be very necessary. Mr. Craig will be met at the station

When Mr. Craig arrives at the sta tion he will be greted with the thrill band. A committee on reception will advance and welcome him with cere mony, suitable to the occasion. Mrs Craig will be present and an automo bile has been provided for her and her illustrious husband. The line of March will be up Southside, South Main to Pack square, where a stop will be made for the speech of the future governor. It will then proceed down Patton avenue, out Haywood to Montford and on to the residence.

First will come the First Regiment band, followed by the loaded fire trucks; then an escort of mounted poice which will be followed by Mr. and Mrs. Craig. Behind them will be prominent public officials, all in auto nobiles, and after them the mass o he people. It is expected that the line will be a long one and there will be no dearth of enthusiasm. It will be one of the happiest occasions in the history of the city. Only twice before has such a thing been possible and not at all since the war, and the eople will certainly not lose the opportunity to make the best of it.

Anyone who desires additional inormation about the reception can obain it from a member of the cor nittee on arrangements, Judge J. G. Adams, Robert M. Wells and W. G. Fortune. They desire it to be perfecty understood that it is to be a nonpartisan occasion and would like to lave as many automobiles at the sta ion as possible.

The expected clash between the Kitchin and Simmons forces came with the report of the resolutions committee over a section which "in dorsed the record of our senators and representatives in congress and the administration of our governor and state officers."

Following the reading of the majority report by Cameron Morrison, Judge J. S. Manning, for the Kitchin people, presented a minority report declaring that the question of inent of the record of Simmon and Kitchin was a question for the voters of the state to decide and the convention should not attempt Manning offered a substitute in the the democratic party in the state and the nation."
