Correspondence of The Gazette-News. Gray Court, S. C., June 3 .- Saturevening at Highland Home church a most beautiful wedding was solemnized when Miss Lillian May Putnam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Putnam of Gray Court, was mar-ried to Joseph Buren Clayton of Mars

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and at 6 o'clock, to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Elmer Eu-gene Putnam of Virginia Interment college, Bristol, Va., the wedding par-ty began to enter the church, which was decorated with southern smilax, pink roses, and with a white wishbone, under which the ceremony was performed, the room being lighted with numerous candles mounted on pedestals. First entered little Misses Sadie Garrett and Elizabeth Barksdale who opened the gates leading to the altar; next came the lady ushers; Mrs. W. H. Barksdale and Mrs. G. S. McCrary, both dressed in white marquisettes over messaline, trimmed elaborately with white point de sprit laces, and carried pink roses. Next entered the bridesmalds and groomsmen as follows: Miss Laurie Putnam, who were a white chiffon over pink messaline, with S. J. Dickson; Miss Mattle Barr Browning, dressed in a white imported embroidered silk over pink messaline, with Oliver Orr; Miss Ama Clayton had on a white marquesette over pink messaline and was with Mr. Nolan of Sigmon.
