Facts in the Ninth District, "But in the Ninth Alabama district two Roosevelt delegates had been unquestionably elected. The facts are as follows: The republican committee of this district, composed of 39 members, met to call the convention. Eighteen members were favorable to my candidacy, 12 to Mr. Taft's. The Taff men conceded that this was the regular district committee, and began by participating in the meeting, but as soon as it developed that the Roosevelt men were in the majority the 12 Taft men left the meeting and convention of their own, leavnz 18 members, a clear majority of the regular committee, to call the regular convention in which the Roose veit delegates were named.

"No serious evidence was presented sefore the national committee to contravene these facts. The contest against these two regularly elected Roosevelt delegates had literally no oundation whatever, even of the most flimsy description. There was more ground for unseating these delegates than there would be, for example, in unseating the Taft delegates from Rhode Island or in any district in any state where there is no con

The represent nothing whatever in the republican party except the determinaion of certain members of the naional committee who have them elves been repudiated by the republean party, that the majority of the party shall not be permitted to decide whom they wish to be the nomine

'Now, I wish to call the attention of only to all good republicans, but of all good citizens, to just what this type of action means. As yet there is no law to govern national nominating conventions as there is to govern national elections, although in certain states the nomination of candidates is carried on under the law of those states precisely as are the elections.

states precisely as are the elections, Difference "Not in Morality." Because of this lack of federal law is, which if done to influence elecions, would be criminal, can be perpetrated with impunity so far as national nominations are concerned. But be presented by us. If a majority of this is a difference in legality, and the national committee is prepared to have sent to the penitentiary election officials for deeds morally not one whit worse than what was done by the members of the national committee who unseated the two properly elected delegates in this Ninth district of Alabama, and substituted for ther men who have no more ris, it to vote in the national convention than a re peater has to vote at an election.

"The majority of the committee nen thus voted to sent in the republican convention men who have no shadow of right to represent any portion of the republican party anywhere, and who have no more right to sit in that convention than any other two outsiders. Nine of these committee men came from the republican states of Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, New Jersey, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia.

Every One Repudiated. "Every one of these nine national mmitteemen has been repudiated by his home voters. Not one of then vill succeed himself on the national committee. Each of them represents a state which at the recent primaries has declared overwhelmingly against Mr. Taft. The nine states, in the aggregate, have 302 delegates in the convention, of which 258 are for Roosevelt, and only 34 for Taft. The nine committeemen are for Mr. Taft, the delegates from their states are eight to one against him.

"It is in view of these facts and of that these facts foreshadow that I wish to make my appeal to the sober judgment of all men who believe that the usefulness of the republican party has not ended. Every man who wishes to see the republican party continue to exist should at once protest against those who are deliberately proceed-ing to wreck it. The leaders speak as if they were the regular republicans. I don't concede that theft is Certain of the committeemen who attended the meeting expressed great indignation at the text of Colonel Roosevelt's statement, which they delared was deserving of an emphatic reply, Others, however, counselled against a reply of any kind and urged their fellow committe members to ignore the statement. This advice finally prevailed.

Scarcely any of the Taft members of the committee would discuss the meeting after it had been concluded. One, however, sald:

Washington, June 10.-Legislation providing for a general parcels post broughout the United States is pracically certain to be enacted by the present congress, perhaps before the conclusion of the session now in procress, in the opinion of Postmaster General Hitchcock. He has urged indistently upon congress the desirability of domestic parcels post, because among other reasons, he believes it will aid substantially in the solution of the problem of the high cost of living. In a statement yesterday he expressed the hope that the measure introduced Bourne, chairman of the committee on postoffices and post roads, might be crystalized into law.

PRESS COMMENT.

THE TENTH DISTRICT.

The democrats of the Tenth district in convention at Asheville renominated Hon. James M. Gudger, jr., for congress in that militant distriet, in which the democrats always have a battle royal. Mr. Gudger has this is a difference in legality, and had long public service and has never but once been defeated for office. He has always been a good runner and two years ago, in a very hot fight, when many feared he would not come out victorious, the democracy of his district railled to him and elected him and they will do so again. Mr. Gudger is a man of ability and has seen diligent in his duties. At one time it was supposed that his vote pension appropriation might prevent his renomination, but while in every good cause. the people did not approve of that vote a majority of them did not hold it against him in the primary, Mr. Gudger having made a statement in regard to the matter which reconciled a number of people in the district, who had at first decided not to support him. He will get the united vote of the district and keep that dis rict in the democratic column.

The co. vention elected as delegates the national convention Mr. J. C. Mills, one of thehrd shr s shrdul Mills, of Rutherford, one of the most popular captains of industry in all that section of the state, a man of fine ability and unselfish service to the party, who as county chairman, state committeeman and state sens tor served his party with ability; Mr. J. H. Dillard, one of the ablest lawyers in Western North Carolina who was one of the most capable eaders and able debaters in the last egislature, Mr. Hugh Love, of Haywood, a member of a distinguished family that has made that county tory, and Dr. H. B. Weaver, of Bun-combe, who belogs to a great pro-fession too little recognized in the politics of the country, and who is a splendid type of the mountain democracy.—Raleigh News and Ob-
