Knoxville, June 11.—The home team walked away with the game yesterday, the first of the series with the Mountaineers. Davis performed on the mound for Knoxville and Waymack for the visitors. The striking out of 13 men by Davis and the touching of Waymack for 14 hits, tells the tale of the victory. The home team played errorless ball. Asheville's seven hits were not lunched well enough to bring the desired results. After the first inning the visitors had a chance to score twice, but the chance was all. The batting honors went to Woodward and Wynne each getting three hits. However, Woodward was only at bat four times while Wynne was up five times. Two big league scouts, Jack Law and Mike Knoch, watched the game with apparent interest.

Should Have Known Better.
Birmingham News.
The late Gen. F. D. Grant used to tell a funny story about Bull Run. "A soldier," he would begin, "had a scar on his face."
"Where did you get that scar?" they asked him.
"At Bull Run," he replied.
"What?" they cried, incredulously.
"What shot in the face at Bull Run? How could that be?"
"Well," explained the soldier, "it was like this. After I'd run four or five miles I got kind of excited and looked back."
