Clark and Wilson Claims.

Speaker Clark's vote was less than his managers had been claiming for him but it was about what the other candidates had conceded. His adherents were claiming today that he would steadily gain as the balloting progressed.

The Wilson people, on the other hand claimed that now that the va-rious instructed delegates had cast their vote on the first ballot in ac-cordance with their instructions they would be free later to switch to their resond choice. They expected to
