CAST 12 BALLOTS WITHOUT RESULT

seem to pass to other hands and will if please them that they may complete their responsibilities that shall be given unto their hands with sincerity and with conscientious performance of duty. We pray that Thou wilt guide the councils of this hour in the selection of a candidate for the presidency of our great country and Thou wilt give us a man who fears God, who is guided by His word and whose heart turns in sympathy to the great multitudes who daily toil for their living and for those dear to their hearts.

"Will Thou give us a man who will guide our ship of state out from the icebergs of greed and selfishness into the high seas of prosperity. May the clouds which have darkened our skies pass away and the muttering thunder of discontent be heard no more forever."

The prediction of democratic success met with approval expressed in an outburst of applause after conclusion of the prayer.

Chairman James at 4:18 announced that the roll call for the presidential nomination would be resumed at once. Several minutes were required to clear the floor and restore order.

Alabama was the first state called and applause greeted the announcement from Governor O'Neal that "Alabama casts 24 votes for Oscar W. Underwood."

No changes from the first ballot marked the call at the outset. Arizona, Arkansas, California and Colorado cast their solid votes for Speaker Clark, as they had on the first ballot. Connecticut again cast its 14 votes for Governor Baldwin, its "favorite son."

Wilson enthusiasts in the galleries applauded the first vote cast for their candidate, that of Delaware.

The banners dropped from the balcony during the Wilson demonstration early yesterday morning still blazoned forth their motto: "We want Wilson," and "Wilson all the time, no compromise."

States continued to follow the first ballot. No changes occurred in the poll as the vote proceeded through the list of states until Massachusetts was reached.

Michigan, whose vote had been distributed among four candidates on the first ballot asked to be passed when its name was called. A conference was in progress in the Michigan section.

Another break of one vote from the Clark to the Wilson standard came in the New Hampshire delegation. The speaker received 7 and Wilson 1 on the second ballot, where he had received 8 on the first.

The accession to the Wilson strength, while small, was greeted with a storm of applause from Wilson sympathizers.

A break of two delegates from Underwood came in the New Jersey delegation. Two given Underwood on the first ballot went to William Sulzer of New York on the second.

In North Carolina Governor Wilson lost 4 of a vote. The first ballot gave him 16 1/2.

Clark and Wilson gained a vote each in Ohio, while Governor Harmon lost one.

The chance of a nomination on the second ballot vanished when the Ohio vote was cast. This brought up the total opposition to Clark above the one-third mark, making it impossible for Clark to secure the necessary two-thirds of the convention.

Pennsylvania threw one more vote to Governor Wilson and gave one to Bryan, reducing by two the vote given Governor Harmon. The Pennsylvania figures on the second ballot was:

Wilson 72; Bryan 1; Harmon 2.

Eight votes were the total Wilson standard amid wild cheers when Vermont was called. The vote had come to Governor Baldwin of Connecticut on the first ballot.

A half vote was gained by Wilson in Utah; and a half vote by Clark in Virginia, the latter breaking away from the Underwood vote of 14 1/2 on the first ballot.

Clark gained one more in Wisconsin. One man who had been absent when the first ballot was taken cast his vote with Clark.

Two Alaska votes cast for Sulzer on the first ballot, joined the Wilson strength on the second call.

The Michigan delegation gave two new votes to Clark and one to Wilson, taking them from the total given Harmon on the first ballot.

Clark gained 2 1/2 more in Tennessee; while Harmon lost a half vote and Underwood lost three.

In the Porto Rico delegation Clark gained one that had been cast for Underwood, thus dividing the delegation with Governor Wilson.

A further revision of the Tennessee vote was made before the final vote was counted. Governor Clark gained an additional half vote by it. A half vote was recorded as "not voting."

The result of the second ballot was: Clark 446 1/2; Wilson 329 3/4; Underwood 111 1/2; Harmon 141; Marshall 31; Baldwin 14; Sulzer 2; Bryan 2; not voting 1/2.

Compared with the results of the first ballot this was a gain of 8 1/2 for Clark; a gain of 15 1/2 for Wilson; a loss of 6 1/2 for Underwood; a loss of 7 for Harmon; a gain of 1 for Bryan; a loss of 8 for Baldwin.

Former Governor Francis, of Missouri, had taken the place of Chairman Ollie James before the second ballot results were announced.

"There being no candidate who received two-thirds of the votes," he announced, "the clerk will again call the roll."

Second Roll Call.

J. Warren Davis, of New Jersey, took the place of Secretary Britton as "the megaphone man" on the third roll call. State after state was called without a change from the second ballot, until Maine was reached. Here the two votes that had gone to Underwood on the first two ballots went to Wilson dividing the state delegation, Wilson 11; Clark 1.

New Jersey's two "floating votes" which had been given to William Sulzer on the second ballot went back to Underwood on the third roll call.

First Break Comes.

The first break in the favorite son delegates came when Connecticut was reached. Underwood got 9, Clark 4 and Wilson 1, of the 14 votes that had gone to Governor Baldwin on the preceding ballots.

This change of vote was hailed with cheers by the partisans of the candidates who profited by the switch.

When Kansas was reached, where Clark had received the solid delegation of 20 in the preceding roll call, the vote was challenged by J. W. Orr, a Wilson candidate.

R. J. Sheridan, a delegate-at-large, read the resolution of the Kansas state convention under which the delegates were bound to vote for Clark "until two-thirds believe he cannot be nominated."

"The delegation stands 11 for Wilson, nine for Clark," said Mr. Sheridan, "and under our instructions I am bound to cast the 20 votes for Champ Clark."

Chairman Ollie James ruled that as long as two-thirds of the delegates from Kansas have not decided that Clark has no chance for the nomination, "the Kansas vote must be cast for Clark" in its entirety.

"Do you want a poll of your delegation?" he asked of the Kansas delegates.

"Yes," shouted Delegate Orr.

"The Kansas instruction authorized the delegates to vote for Wilson as second choice when it became the best," two-thirds that Clark could not be nominated.

The poll sustained Mr. Sheridan that the Kansas delegates stood: Wilson 11, Clark 9. Chairman James held that the entire vote must go to Clark under the unit rule.

"With Clark leading the ballot," he said, "two-thirds don't say that he cannot win. The vote stands 11 for Wilson and 9 for Clark. The chair directs that the instructions of the Democracy in that state be carried out and the 20 votes of Kansas cast for Clark."

The ruling met with opposition from the Wilson forces on the floor and was vigorously approved by the adherents of Speaker Clark.

When Maryland was called there was no response. The state was passed temporarily while the delegation conferred over its vote.

Wilson and Kern each won a vote in Michigan, Underwood and Harmon each losing one.

Clark lost one vote to Wilson in New Hampshire on the fifth ballot but gained in New Jersey the two floating votes that had been cast for several different candidates. This gave Clark four votes in New Jersey.

In North Carolina Wilson gained a half vote from Clark and Underwood two from Harmon. Harmon gained one in Ohio and Clark also gained one. Wilson and Kern each lost a vote in Ohio.

The Tennessee vote, which had fluctuated widely on preceding roll calls, gave Harmon an increase of 8 votes on the fifth ballot. Clark lost 4, Wilson 2 and Underwood 4 votes, Harmon

Peerless Fashion Store

51 Patton Avenue

Our buyer has returned from the northern markets after having purchased some of the greatest bargains we have ever seen in Ladies', Misses' and Children's Ready-to-Wear Apparel.

On account of the late season and the unusual cool weather, which up to the present time has prevailed all over the country, the manufacturers are desperate to sell off their surplus stocks. They are forced to sacrifice their merchandise on hand at any price, so as to raise money with which to pay their material bills. In this way we found several makers of high grade garments and bought liberally. Therefore we are in a position to offer unsurpassed bargains without sacrificing quality or style which are in keeping with the high standard of this store.

Sale Continues Daily

We hope every lady whom this advertisement reaches will avail herself of this opportunity to replenish her summer wardrobe at such money saving prices as the following:

PREPARATIONS MADE FOR BAR ASSN. MEET

Program of Interest to Every Lawyer in the State Prepared.

Atlantic Hotel, Morehead City, June 29.—The annual convention of the North Carolina Bar association will be held in the Atlantic hotel next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and a program of interest to every lawyer in the state has been announced.

President Francis D. Winston urges every Carolina attorney, whether a member of the association or not, to be present. Senator Bailey of Texas will be a guest of the association for the annual address. The first day's session will be given over to the address of welcome and response and the president's address, and the following two days to report and discussion of legislative and law reform and on the Torrens system. A banquet on July 5 will close the program.

Senator Bailey, Chief Justice Clark, Harry Skinner, Judge Francis D. Winston and many other prominent speakers are on the toast list. Clement Stanley of Winston will be toastmaster.

MAY INDOSE RESOLVE AGAINST WALL STREET

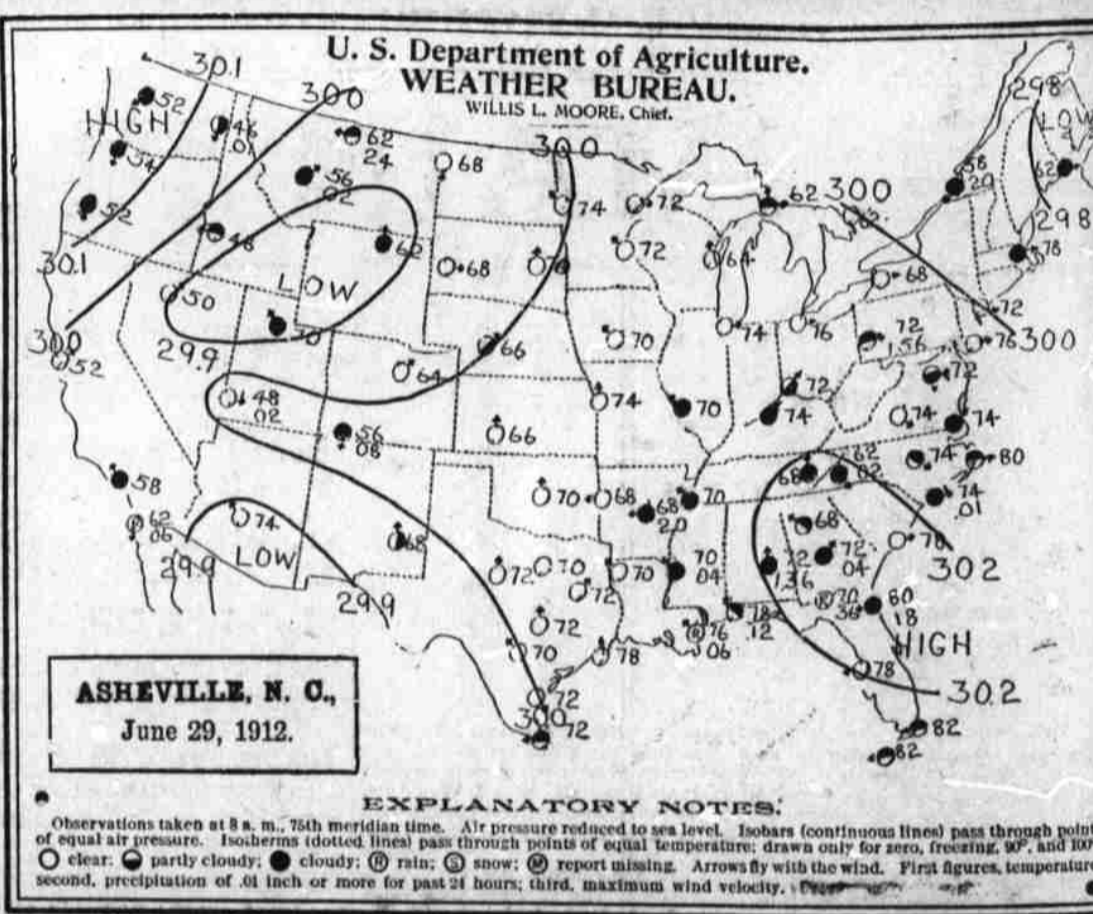

Resolution introduced in the Georgia House, but One Member's Opposition Blocks Passage.

Atlanta, June 29.—Resolutions indorsing the democratic national convention's stand against Wall street's alleged influence in the party's councils were introduced into the Georgia house of representatives by Representative Alexander today. The resolutions, if carried, when voted on Monday, will be wired to William J. Bryan, author of the Wall street resolution.

As unanimous consent is necessary for a vote on the resolutions, the objection of one member served to block action today.

Mississippi Flood Subsiding.

New Orleans, June 29.—Two thousand flood refugees are being fed and housed at the naval station at Angiers, across the river from here. Several hundred are being cared for at Gretna cut-off and Harvey. Flood waters are subsiding.

PALACE THEATER HAS A SPLENDID PROGRAM

For First Three Days of Week With Helen Gannon, Soper & Lane.

The program that is being presented at the Palace theater this last three days of this week is one that is sure to please everyone. Helen Gannon, the charming little lady with a sweet voice and manner, offers a refined singing and whistling act that pleases. Her music work stands out in a class by itself. Soper & Lane present a novelty singing skit, and those two young men have beautiful voices. No better show was ever seen, it is said, for the small price of admission, than the one that is being presented at the Palace theater this week.

Roosevelt at Picnic.

Oyster Bay, June 29.—Roosevelt put aside his cares of politics today for a family picnic. He exhibited no concern at being out of touch with the news from Baltimore for the day, although he expected that before his return the democratic nominee for president would have been chosen.

All love may be expelled by other loves As poisons are by poisons.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Sumner, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child; the chances are it can't help it. The treatment also cures adults and age people troubled with urine difficulty by day or night.
