

CHAIRMANSHIP IS UNDECIDED

Governor Wilson Now Considering Choice of Future Head for Democratic National Committee.

JOSEPHUS DANIELS CALLS ON CANDIDATE

W. G. McAdoo and R. S. Huds-peth Also at Sea Girt—New Yorker Mentioned for Treasurer.

Sea Girt, N. J., July 5.—Governor Wilson's mind is still "like an open book" to quote him exactly, on his choice for chairman of the democratic national committee.

William G. McAdoo of New York, who has been mentioned as the possible choice of Gov. Wilson for treasurer of the committee, had a long conference during the forenoon.

Inside Story of Illinois Break. The governor's private secretary, Joseph Tumulty, told his chief today what he described as the inside story of Illinois' change at Baltimore from Clark to Wilson.

Seagriff, N. J., July 5.—Thirty-five members of the democratic national committee called on Governor Wilson at Seagriff yesterday.

As to who this will be, whether William F. McCombs, Fred B. Lynch, Robert S. Hudspeth or any one of half a dozen others mentioned for the place will have the preference Governor Wilson has not decided.

Mr. Lynch, who managed the campaign of the late Governor Johnson of Minnesota, and Judge Wade of Iowa were frequently mentioned.

Some of the members of the national committee desired to meet in New York on July 15 for organization, but after conferring with Governor Wilson and after a new canvass of the committee, Chairman Mack announced that Chicago had been selected.

There was much surprise as to Governor Wilson's choice for chairman, Mr. Hudspeth, who managed the eastern end of the campaign in 1908 and 1909, and a close friend of Governor Wilson, was frequently mentioned.

"Personally I am in favor of Mr. McCombs," Mr. Hudspeth said. "He has managed the governor's campaign brilliantly so far and I see no reason why he should not continue to do so. It is a mistake to swap horses in midstream."

A Mitchell Palmer, another close friend of the governor, who has been spoken of as chairman, also said Mr. McCombs is his preference.

"If the governor feels that I can do any good in this respect I will put aside personal inclinations, however great the sacrifice," declared Mr. McCombs, who arrived late yesterday from Baltimore.

Norman B. Mack, the retiring chairman, said that under no circumstances would he entertain a thought of re-election.

U.S. TROOPS CLASH WITH POLICEMEN

Eight Infantrymen and Two Marines Are Wounded at Panama City.

Washington, July 5.—Major S. Medley Butler, commanding marines at Camp Elliott, Panama City, has reported that eight soldiers of the tenth infantry, two marines and one civilian were seriously wounded yesterday in a fight with the Panama police.

Major Wood has telegraphed the regiment commander for an immediate report on the occurrence. Officials here suspect what at first was believed to be nothing more than a common row peculiar to the "red light district" of Panama may actually have serious foundations.

GREAT ANNUAL PICNIC FOR CONE EMPLOYEES

Dinner, Prize Contests, a Double Wedding, Among Features.

Greensboro, July 5.—The eighth annual Independence day picnic of the Proximity, Revolution and White Oak mills, yesterday tendered the employes and their families by the Cone family, the owners of the mills, was as great or greater success this year than ever.

The day was pleasant with the exception of a light shower at noon which, however, neither dampened the spirits of the picnickers nor diminished the number. The number that enjoyed the bounteous spread provided by the mill management was estimated at between 8000 and 10,000.

As to who this will be, whether William F. McCombs, Fred B. Lynch, Robert S. Hudspeth or any one of half a dozen others mentioned for the place will have the preference Governor Wilson has not decided.

CHAMPION PLAYS WITH JIM FLYNN

Pueblo Fireman Child in Negro's Hands—Fight Nine Rounds.

East Las Vegas, N. M., July 5.—Jim Flynn's white hope expired in the ninth round of his scheduled 45-round bout with Champion Jack Johnson.

Flynn's face was chopped and cut frightfully by Johnson's deliberate blows and in the ninth round Captain Cowles of the New Mexican state police pushed his way to the ring and declared the contest ended, as a brutal exhibition. For three rounds Flynn had realized his inability to defend himself and frantically tried to cut his way to victory.

After the men had listened to the reading of the rules time was called at 2:45. Round one—Flynn kept in close, but Johnson easily avoided his attempts and lunged a stiff left to the ear. The champion pushed his man across the ring and hooked him a left to the ear and a moment later flung a hard short arm jolt to the jaw.

Round two—As Flynn rushed Johnson simply grasped him about the shoulders and held him at bay, all the while grinning like an ape. The champion poked at the fireman's face with light lefts and as they clinched uppercut twice heavily with rights to the jaw.

Round three—Flynn cut short a remark of Johnson by twice hooking his right to the jaw. This nettled the black and he cut loose with short arm uppercuts to the jaw.

Round four—Flynn rushed in close and was met with the customary rain of right and left uppercuts to the face. At last it seemed as if Johnson was holding himself in check.

Round five—Johnson turned his head to the right and barely noticed Flynn's attack. Johnson constantly shoved out his stomach and invited him to blow away, which compelled the spectators. Flynn elicited a great cheer when he reached Johnson to the ropes and planted a solid left to the jaw.

Round six—Johnson turned his head to the right and barely noticed Flynn's attack. Johnson constantly shoved out his stomach and invited him to blow away, which compelled the spectators.

Round seven—Johnson turned his head to the right and barely noticed Flynn's attack. Johnson constantly shoved out his stomach and invited him to blow away, which compelled the spectators.

Round eight—Johnson turned his head to the right and barely noticed Flynn's attack. Johnson constantly shoved out his stomach and invited him to blow away, which compelled the spectators.
