MILITIA COMPANIES TO CAMP AT MOREHEAD

Accompanied by First Regiment Band and Waynesville Company, for 10 Days.

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock a second section of train No. 12 left Asheville for Morehead City carrying companies F and K and the First regiment band of this city and the Waynesville company to the annual encampment at Camp Glenn, which begins tomorrow and lasts for 10 days.

The entire First regiment of the North Carolina national guard will participate in the encampment, and the stay in Morehead promises to be both pleasant and beneficial to the troops. The event is always anticipated with much pleasure, and the Morehead City people expect themselves to make the time a most enjoyable one for the soldiers boys. There will be a number of dances given in their honor.

The local companies have been doing some hard drilling in preparation for the camp drills and hope to capture some honors with their work. There will be daily drills and maneuvers, and a sham battle will feature one day of the encampment.

Major Lawrence W. Young accompanied the Asheville companies and will have charge of a battalion at the encampment. Dr. E. B. Glenn, who was to have had charge of the military school, will not be able to attend any part of the encampment owing to illness in his family.

A FINE YIELD OF WHEAT ON THE COUNTY'S FARM. Judging from the amount of wheat that was produced on the county farm this year it would not be too much to hope that this institution might sometime come to be more or less self-supporting. The county farm is under the management of Ben Merrill, and he reports that he has threshed out 551 bushels of wheat recently. This is more than has ever been produced on the farm since the county bought it, and so far as anyone knows it is more than has ever been produced on this land. On one and one-fourth acres Mr. Merrill raised 41 bushels. Just what this means may be the more easily understood when it is explained that the average acre does not produce much more than 15 bushels, and 25 bushels is considered a good yield.

The farm has been greatly improved since the county bought it and there would not seem to be much difficulty in making it a model farm, as it should be, one that the people can look at with pride and one where the farmers can see the result of improved methods.

THE THINGS REQUIRED FOR "CITY WE NEED"

Most Interesting Talk by Rev. Dr. Waller at Men's Meeting.

Taking for his subject "The City We Need," Dr. C. B. Waller yesterday afternoon delivered one of the most interesting addresses that has been heard at the men's meeting of the Y. M. C. A. There was a large audience present and he held the attention of his hearers throughout his discourse. In building "the city we need," Dr. Waller said that there are required four things for foundations: "The fear of God; a fearless pulpit and clean public press; an upright municipal government; and a God-fearing, upright people." During the course of his remarks Dr. Waller expressed the opinion that the city has good police judicial departments and declared that it is not their fault if the laws are not enforced but the fault of the people. With reference to the violations of the prohibition laws, Dr. Waller said, that it is difficult for the police to get evidence to convict as the violators are not foolish enough to sell to officers; and he also referred to the unwillingness of the people to testify because it might hurt their business.

Dr. Waller took up each of the four foundations necessary to the successful building of the right kind of a city and told how the city has good police and the part each has in the building.

The meeting at the Highland hotel, which was held yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock under the auspices of the association, was one of the best attended meetings that has yet been held here. Prof. O. S. Dean of Weaverville college was the speaker, his subject being "The Highway to Heaven." Those present were much impressed with the address.

The music for this meeting was extremely good. The South Asheville Baptist choir rendered several selections, and besides this there was a trio, composed of Miss Rosa Watkins, Mrs. Hobart Owenby and Miss Virginia Fortune, that sang several selections and greatly pleased the men in attendance.

FINLEY TO SPEAK. President of Southern to Address Agricultural and Horticultural Institute.

It is learned that President W. W. Finley of the Southern railway has been secured to speak at the agricultural and horticultural institute, which is to be held at Waynesville July 27, and the announcement will no doubt add much to the interest in that meeting. It is known, as Mr. Finley has demonstrated time and again that he is greatly interested in western North Carolina. A number of other speakers of prominence will also be present at the meeting.

FARM INSTITUTES. Meetings for Farmers and Their Wives in this Section Are to Begin in a Few Days.
