

Price is a Factor, Too---When the Quality is Behind It

Saturday will be one of the big days in clothes-selling at R. B. Zageir's---that's tomorrow.

Have you got your share of the good, new, high-grade suits we are selling at reductions? You might as well save $3, $4, $5 or $7 on a suit. Every time you save a dollar you earn one. In this case you save and gain both.

The House of Kuppenheimer made most of the suits we sell---so much for quality and style.

- $25 Values for $20
- $20 " " $16
- $18 " " $14.40
- $15 " " $12

Remember, it's our half-yearly sale of all of our spring and summer suits. Sizes and styles for all and savings that count in the year's clothing bill.

R. B. ZAGEIR

8 South Main St.

"Just a Whisper off the Square."

SUITS FOR COLLECTION OF NOTES ARE FILED

American National Bank Plaintiff in Actions Begun Today.

The American National bank has instituted suits against three parties for the collection of the four notes of certain notes which it is alleged are due and unpaid. The three complaints were filed today.

Judgment is asked against J. B. Horton and others for $200 with interest from January 25, 1910, against Earl Thrust & Co. for $1818.55 with interest from June 12, 1912, against Edward A. Walker, $2000 with interest from August 29, 1912, and $2500 with interest from May 4, 1912.

TICKETS SELL WELL

Gate Receipts Expected to Pay Expenses of the Third Party National Convention.

Chicago, July 19.—The national tickets to the third party national convention in Chicago, August 5, was opened at headquarters yesterday. Within a few hours it was announced $1500 had been received, $1000 of this amount being for 50 tickets from one man, whose name was not given out. Merrill McCormick said it was planned to have the receipts from the tickets pay most of the convention expenses, estimated at $25,000.

A general committee of arrangements with various subcommittees was appointed yesterday. Ralph C. Otis, who has been at Oyster Bay consulting with Colonel Roosevelt, was made chairman. The committee is to have charge of all details, including disposal of tickets and finances.

Spain Offends Portugal. Madrid, July 19.—Spanish-Portuguese relations suffered a violent wrench after having been badly strained for some time. If Portugal were strong enough there would be a clash. Some sort of trouble may yet occur if the Portuguese can get foreign backing, which is possible.

For some time the Lisbon government has complained that King Alfonso has been encouraging the royalist rebellion in northern Portugal.

"Ho!" cried the poet with delight,
"They taste like sun and autumn blended."
Then penned a toast—straightway to Post,
"Here's to your Toasties—they're splendid."

THREE EXCELLENT ACTS AT DREAMLAND THEATER

Tojotty and Bennett, George Clay and the Wesleyan Trio Are Appearing.

Large crowds attended the performance at the Dreamland theater yesterday afternoon and last night, and all were well pleased with the show. It was simply great from start to finish, and the only objection to it was that it did not last long enough.

Tojotty & Bennett headed the bill with a performance dancing act and made quite a hit. The act was well planned and gave opportunity for the exhibition of some very fine dancing. Their singing was also good, and they received much well deserved applause.

George Clay, comedy cartoonist, was really the hit of the night. His appearance is entertained for a few minutes with an excellent comedy monologue and then brought on his cases and crayons and proceeded to sketch. His sketches are done and swift and the pictures are good. They have expression, and it is a treat to watch the strokes that give life to expression.

The Wesleyan trio was the last act on the bill, and the three making up the act made a combination that did well in the comedy singing-talking style which they gave. Their act was considered by many to be the best, which is complimenting it very highly.

This show will be here the last part of this week.

Another Ship. Capt. Blondell, the long distance ocean swimmer, who is announced to give one more of his novel water exhibitions at Riverside park on next Monday night, will complete his model of an ocean steamship tonight. The model is built on the same lines of the "Titanic," recently wrecked near the great banks. The captain will mount the ship on a car float and exhibit it over the lines of the Asheville Power and Light company on tomorrow, Saturday, and Monday. This will be his third model of a miniature constructed ship, which will be very attractive. He requests the ladies and gentlemen to have their toques ready and take a snapshot. He will give a scene of a wreck at sea, distress signals, lifeboats leaving the ship, and explosion. He works from inside the ship.

HAYWOOD COUNTY TEACHERS' SESSION

Well-Attended Institute Now Being Conducted at Waynesville.

Special to The Gazette-News. Waynesville, July 19.—The Haywood county institute for teachers is now in session. On the second day 52 teachers had enrolled. Every teacher who expects to teach in the schools of this county is present. The institute is being conducted by Superintendent J. C. Griffin of Marion and Mrs. M. C. Garrison of Waynesville. While the methods are receiving the attention, the new subjects are from the actual work of the county, using the teachers as pupils. Reading, penmanship, writing, training and geography are being especially emphasized. A daily schedule for a seven-day course, one teacher school is being prepared and on Tuesday of next week the teachers will be divided into seven groups and this schedule will be carried out by the county for during the "model school day."

On Friday of next week, there will be a joint session of teachers and school superintendents. A special program has been arranged and an effort will be made to bring about a closer cooperation of the two important factors of the school.

The institute is impressed with the fact that this institute is a place for work. The teachers all seem to be interested and are very free to take part in all the discussions.

The Haywood county schools are in safe hands with such teachers, superintendents and directed in their work by Superintendent R. A. Scudellie. To carry out their efficiency is due to his intelligent and careful supervision.

James McLeod left for home on Wednesday, breaking his right arm.

Rev. A. S. Anderson, the minister called to the Presbyterian church, will preach Tuesday evening and will preach his last sermon Sunday morning.

Rev. Roy Shelton of Flat Rock is here on business.

Ground has been broken for the two additional brick store-fronts to the Messie block on Depot street.

Misses Mary, Hattie and Sarah Davis of Charlotte, are guests of Miss Price's residence.

John Hines is a guest at Mrs. Mary Hines.

Democratic Party to nominate county officers have been called for August 2. Sheriff W. L. Palmer, the incumbent, has apparently had no opposition, but it is rumored that there will be four other candidates—J. C. Bennett, Lawrence Harbin, Carl Haddock and John Cato.

A special medical session will be held this evening at Grace Episcopal church.

Many women take perfect care of their face and clothes, yet neglect their hands. Rough, red hands are almost as unattractive as ill-dressed feet.

It is a simple, easy matter to keep your hands smooth and beautiful. The following prescription, which you can compound at your own home, is famous for the marvelous, instantaneous result it gives.

Get from your druggist one ounce of J. I. P. Compound. Put it in a 10-cent bottle, add quarter of an ounce of witch hazel, fill with water and shake well.

Acet will be surprised at the result when applied to your hands, arms or neck. It does not of every kind disappear as it by magic. Freckles, tan, rough skin, coarse pores, yield instantly to this application. This is the private prescription of a famous Parisian beauty.

Y.W.C.A. BENEFIT DAY AT PRINCESS THEATER

Today is benefit day for the Y. W. C. A. at the Princess theater. A very interesting program has been arranged, two reels of comedy and one drama picture will be shown. The five-piece orchestra, which has received such favorable comment from the people of Asheville, will furnish instrumental music throughout the day. Miss Pearl Shope will sing illustrated songs at both evening and night performances. The ladies connected with the Y. W. C. A. and those in sympathy with the good work which is being done by this organization have sold tickets throughout the city, and they will doubtless realize a good sum as a reward for their efforts. The same management gave a Y. W. C. A. benefit day last summer at the stadium on Haywood street, which was a great success for the association.

FOUL TIPS

One of Hart's fingers is almost as good as ever.

Sharp is still on crutches on account of a sprained ankle.

Although Hubert White comes from Memphis, he is the son of a former pastor of the First Baptist church of this city.

There are times when a good batter would come in handy.

When Bumb makes an error there must be something wrong with the whole team.

Waymack says himself that he is the original "hard luck kid."

ARCHITECTS HERE FOR CONVENTION

Held First Session This Morning at Langren—Here for One Day.

Members of the Virginia, North and South Carolina and Georgia Architectural associations convened this morning in annual session in the ballroom of the Langren hotel, with about 75 present. The meeting is for one day, and some very interesting addresses are on the program during the day of the architects here.

The first session this morning was opened with an invocation by Dr. Charles W. Byrd, and this was followed by an address of Welcome by Brooks Crain on the part of the city. Mr. Crain spoke for only a short time but extended to the visitors a most hearty welcome to Asheville and the "Land of the Sky."

Response to this address of welcome were made by C. C. Wilson of Columbia, president of the South Carolina association, and W. B. Rogers of Charlotte, vice president of the North Carolina association. Both men expressed appreciation for their cities and their associations for the hospitality extended to them here, and then the principal address of the morning was made by John Brown, secretary of the American Institute of Architects, of Washington.

Mr. Brown told fully of the organization of this national institute and the associations of the states working with it and the objects that it promotes which to attain through the organization. He said that the institute has so far had not been in its expectations but in spite of this some very excellent work had been done, and he told in detail of the things that had been done for the benefit of art in the lines represented. His address was interesting, and he had the close attention of those present throughout.

An extensive business session was opened this afternoon at 2 o'clock and when over, the visitors will be given a drive to the points of interest in and around the city.

On the program for tonight there is an illustrated lecture by Henry R. Dillon of Chicago, one of the leading architects of the country. He will lecture on the Right and Wrong Way of constructing buildings of all kinds and will emphasize the points with photographs. His lecture will both in various phases of building and promises to be of much interest. The public are invited to attend.

Democratic Force Vote Agreement.

Washington, July 19. The senate passed an agreement late yesterday to vote upon the three principal Democratic tariff and Finance bills late next week. The measures will be taken up as follows: Thursday, Finance bill; Friday, sugar tariff; Saturday, the calendar day will be devoted to each measure; amendments will be permitted and a short debate allowed, and the final vote on each will be taken before the day's adjournment. The agreement stipulates which had for two days held up the consideration of the big tariff civil appropriation bill and which threatened to carry the session of congress beyond September 1.

Peerless Fashion Store

51 Patton Avenue

Unusual Good Values

For Dresses, Light Night Woolen Suits, Linen Suits, Silk, Linen, and light weight Woolen Coats, Costumes, Evening Dresses, Lingerie Dresses, Wash Dresses, very pretty House Dresses, Skirts, Parasols, Muslin Underwear, Hand Bags, Irish Crochet Collars and Neckwear, Hosiery, Silk, Linen and Lingerie Shirt Waists.

In order to reduce our large stock of merchandise liberal discounts are offered on above mentioned articles.

PRIZE MARE HAS ARRIVED IN CITY

Will Be Given to Best Lady Rider at Horse Show in August.

The $1200 saddle mare, which is to be given as the grand prize at the horse show at the Inter-State Horse Show Association to be held here August 17, 19 and 20 to the best lady rider competing at the show, has arrived in the city and will be exhibited on the streets as soon as she has rested up from the three days' trip from Birmingham. She is a beauty, a chestnut color and is being greatly admired by all who see her. The competition for this great prize is expected to be very great, and the winner will be well repaid for her success. It was announced several days ago that the show here would be an exclusive night show, but this will not be the case. There will be both afternoon and night exhibitions.

Interest in the coming show is growing daily and already horses are arriving in the city to be exhibited. Mrs. J. Ashley Jones and daughter, Miss Mary Allgood Jones, and Miss Margaret McKee of Atlanta arrived in the city this morning with their horses for the show. Misses Jones and McKee are two of Atlanta's most expert horsewomen and will contribute greatly to the attractiveness and interest of the show.

L. L. Jenkins, president of the American National bank, has just pulled off three or four days after the show here. Dr. L. H. Snyder of Terra Haute, who is an experienced horseman, is acting as secretary of the association.

Put (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you die, Pat, you can thank him, too."—Judge.

Pat (to doctor)—"If O' live, doctor, sure O'll have you to thank for it." Pat's Wife (sneakingly prejudiced against the doctor)—"And if you