Again Successful.

The French McEntee Pastoral players were most successful yesterday afternoon, despite the rain, in their presentation in the Manor greenwood of the "Merchant of Venice," and the audience showed much appreciation by frequent applause. The difficult and leading part of "Shylock" was played by Frank McEntee, and his clever acting and remarkably fine and expressive intonation was the cause of much enthusiasm on the part of the audience. The following was the cast of characters, all of whom sustained most creditably their reputations for excellent Shakespearean interpretation:

Duke of Venice, Wilson Duncan; Prince of Morocco, Walter von Bockman; Prince of Arragon, George Sommes; Antonio, a merchant of Venice, Leonard Shepherd; Bassanio, his friend, suitor to Portia, Chester Barnett; Salanio, Edmund Mortimer; Salarino, John M. Kelly; Gratiano, Richmond Flood; Lorenzo, in love with Jessica, Dallas Anderson; Shylock, a rich Jew, Frank McEntee; Tubal, a Jew, his friend, Henry Calver; Launcelot Gobbo, the clown, servant to Shylock, Tuedey West; Old Gobbo, father to Launcelot, William Hammond; Leonardo, servant to Bassanio, Henry Willie; Balthasar, Stephano, servants to Portia, Arthur Milton, Eugene Wilson; Portia, a rich heiress, Augusta True; Nerissa, her waiting maid, Millicent Evison; Jessica, daughter to Shylock, Helena Head; magnificos of Venice; officers of the court of justice; servants to Portia and other attendants.

Scene—Partly at Venice, and partly at Belmont.

Interesting Toilette Items.

The following toilette items will interest the feminine portion of society: It seems dreadful to contemplate, but we are evidently getting the Director's fever just as the summer is upon us, and will put on the high collars that must be boned and inter-lined, be they of silk or lace, with a jabot of lace edging, a fan or lace allover or a satin tie and ends after folding it around the neck below the high lace or silk collar which may cross the front in true Director's style or leave the throat exposed. In the latter case the Director becomes the Robespierre, and is also boned, and the front turns back in reverse or is cut off straight, and a jabot or fan of lace brought down on each side. The newest edition to this collar is a band of No. 7 black velvet ribbon close about the throat, with a tiny bow tied at the corner. Another idea is to wear a locket on the band, the more old-fashioned the better. If you wish to be really very smart, go into a Chinese or Japanese store and rummage around until you find a bit of gay Oriental-looking silk and tinsel embroidery of which to make a band around the hat crown that you wear with lingerie waists; also a bow on a shirtwaist collar or on a lingerie waist below where the collar usually is, and wind up with a wide girde, boned or folded without if the silk is soft and finished with the obi scarf bow at the back.

Delightful Dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Rees gave a dance at the Manor last evening for their sons, DuBois Rees and Fritloff Rees. Mrs. Rees was assisted in receiving by Mrs. A. E. Bates, Mrs. Connelly, Mrs. Harold Rees and Miss Rees. The dance was large and was one of the most delightful social events that have marked the summer season so far in Asheville. Supper was served in the attractive dining room of the Manor, where the tables were artistically decorated in cut flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Rees' guests of last evening were: Bishop and Mrs. Julius M. Horner, Mrs. Hugen, Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Minor, Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Pearson, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Cheesborough, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Settle, Mr. and Mrs. Trench Cox, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lyman, Capt. and Mrs. J. A. Perry, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Wheeler, Maj. and Mrs. Huger, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Waddell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. W. Vance Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mrs. Corcoran's Reception. Mrs. P. J. Corcoran's reception yesterday afternoon at Rock Lodge for the members of the American Woman's league was attended by 75 or 100 guests and was a very successful affair. The large parlors and reception halls were attractively decorated with sweet peas and ferns. A feature of the afternoon was the musical program, arranged for the entertainment of the guests, to which the following contributed:

Piano duet—Misses Grace Jenkins and Eva Moore.
Vocal solo—Miss Othabelle Smith.
Piano solo—Miss Eva Moore.
Vocal solo—Miss Pursell of Cincinnati.
Piano solo—Miss Grace Jenkins.
Vocal solo—Miss Mary Corcoran.
Piano duet—Misses Moore and Jenkins.
Mandolin solo—Miss Mary Corcoran accompanied by Miss Erma Sieben-thaler of Cincinnati.
Mrs. Perry V. Shoo and Mrs. Myers served punch, and refreshments were served by Miss Sue Belle Corcoran, Miss Hilda Sieben-thaler, Miss Belle Burnette and Mrs. Collins of Spartanburg. Mr. Potzigan and Herman Warshener of New York assisted in the entertainment of the guests.

Mr. Loughran's Reception. Proprietor Frank Loughran of the Swannanoa-Berkeley hotel gave a reception in the ball room of the hotel for the visiting ladies and their friends who are attending the Hoo Hoo convention now in session in this city. Previous to the reception the ladies enjoyed a trolley party over the different car lines of the city. A number of Asheville guests were invited to the reception at the Swannanoa-Berkeley to meet the visiting ladies, who were greeted and made welcome by Mrs. Reuben Robertson and Mrs. Jere Cooke, who also served punch. An orchestra furnished inspiring music to which the young people present danced. After the dancing refreshments were served, which consisted of a delicious salad course. The reception was much appreciated by those present as a charming bit of cordial hospitality extended the guests of the city by Mr. Loughran.

Initial Reception.

The reception given yesterday afternoon by the Woman's Social and Study club, with which the club rooms were formally opened to the public for the first time, was large and successful. The club rooms which include a number of apartments and class rooms were decorated in sweet peas and other flowers. There were 200 guests present at the reception, which list included many prospective members. The first display of the afternoon was an exhibition of china painting done under the direction of Mrs. J. E. Guder. The display was most interesting, well executed and artistic. The club will be open Tuesday and Friday afternoons every week from 2:30 o'clock for visitors who may be interested in the work.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Duke, according to recent London news, have taken Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Smith's house in Grosvenor square for one year. Town and Country says: "Mrs. Duke will be generous in entertaining when she takes this house, for though she has achieved social success very quietly, she now has many friends in England. Her beauty and Cleverness in dress are factors toward popularity. At her country home in New Jersey, her own rooms are snow white, including even the rugs and the lilacs put in vases and her boudoir robes and dinner gowns are in delicate pink. These ideas are part of her personality. Mrs. Duke was formerly Mrs. Inman of Atlanta, but only in her quiet and leisurely manner does she show the traits of the southerner."

The Newton Enterprise: The Lincoln cavalry troop will start next week on a 10 days' march, under an 'A' States army officer as instructor. They have organized a baseball team from members of the troop and will play games with local teams on their line of march. They will play the Newton team on the Catawba college grounds next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and will probably camp here for the night or so on to Hickory. The route they have laid off is by way of Blowing Rock, Linville, Asheville, Hendersonville, Rutherford and Shelby. W. A. Fair, editor of the News, is captain of the troop.

The dancing set will be glad to hear that the usual Friday night dances will be given at the Battery Park hotel this evening, and all members bearing season cards are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. William S. Whiting will entertain with a card party tomorrow morning at her home on Montford street in honor of her sister, Miss Margaret Link, and Miss Alice Thurston Pender.

Miss Alice Thurston Pender of Toronto, who is visiting Miss Elizabeth Murphy, was the guest of honor at an informal reception given recently by Miss Elizabeth Williamson at her home on Pearson drive.

The Charlotte Observer: Mrs. Charles W. Johnston will leave this morning for Black Mountain, where she will spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Braswell, before going to Asheville to spend some time. Mrs. J. L. Caldwell and daughter, Miss Lida Caldwell, will leave today for Kanuga, where they will spend some time. Dr. Caldwell will accompany them and spend several days in Kanuga, returning to Charlotte next week. During the next six weeks he will divide his time between Charlotte and Kanuga.

The Greenville News: Mrs. S. M. Bright is visiting friends in Asheville, N. C. Mrs. Joe Lawrence of Asheville is the guest of Mrs. Earle Hartsell on West Washington street.

MME D'MILLE'S BEAUTY HINTS.
(From the Journal of Fashion).
"No woman who prizes true beauty will neglect her eyebrows and eyes. Brushing the eyebrows trains them to grow arch-shaped and applying pyroxin will make them grow thick and silky. Pyroxin applied to roots will make the lashes grow long and silky."
"To keep the skin clear, smooth, fair and pitant, use a simple complexion beautifier made by dissolving in a half-pint of witch hazel, Gently massage face, neck and arms with this and you will escape freckles, tan and sunburn. It prevents that 'shiny' look and will not rub off or show like powder, while it gives a lovely, soft and youthful complexion."
"Any person desiring abundant, glossy hair should use a dry shampoo frequently. Mix four ounces of powdered orris root with an original package of mayatone in a half-pint of witch hazel. Gently massage face, neck and arms with this and you will escape freckles, tan and sunburn. It prevents that 'shiny' look and will not rub off or show like powder, while it gives a lovely, soft and youthful complexion."

Committee Meetings Held By Hoo Hoos This Morning

Ladies Given Trolley Ride over City—Last Night 30 Kittens Were Initiated into Order—"Session on the Roof" Was Enjoyable Occasion.

The Concatenated Order of Hoo Hoo convened for the second business session of the twenty-first annual meeting at 9:09 o'clock this morning, but adjourned in a few minutes in order to give more time to committee meetings. The committees then met in the anterooms of the ballroom of the Battery Park hotel, where the convention is being held and finished their reports.

This morning at 10 o'clock the ladies who are attending the meeting were given a trolley ride over the city, taking in all the points of interest along the lines of the Asheville Power & Light company. After the ride they were entertained with a reception at the Swannanoa-Berkeley hotel.

This afternoon the visitors left the Battery Park hotel at 2:30 o'clock in carriages for a drive over the Biltmore estate, which will take up practically the entire afternoon and tonight a musical and ball will be given in their honor on the roof garden and in the ballroom adjoining the Lanrenk hotel.

The trip to Sunset Mountain yesterday afternoon was much enjoyed. After the serving of refreshments on the mountain the visitors were photographed, and after being presented, Mr. Grove, who was present, stood with them for the picture. Immediately after this Locke Craig made a short talk in which he thanked Mr. Grove on behalf of all present for the afternoon's entertainment on the mountain, and in addressing the visitors referred to Mr. Grove as one of the city's most progressive citizens, who had done more for the city, possibly, than any other one man and is now planning to build a quarter of a million dollar tourist hotel that will be another most valuable addition to the city.

Evening Session. Last night the annual concatenation proper and the Dutch supper took place. The former as well as the latter part of the program was very much enjoyed by those whose eyes had already been opened, and they initiated into the mysteries of the order some 30 "kittens." This part of the ceremony was in charge of the following: Snark E. Stringer Boggers, Senior Hoo Hoo J. F. Judd, Junior Hoo Hoo H. B. Darlington, assisted by E. C. Gordon and J. C. McGrath, BoJum G. M. Murray, A. B. Cone, Jabberwock Alfred Ruddy, assisted by John Rutherford and H. Rotha; Custodian T. L. O'Donnell, Arconoper, L. W. Wilson and Gordon J. T. Wilder.

The following kittens were initiated: C. C. Bell, J. A. Weems, W. M. Currier, D. L. Brainard, G. M. Liepiar, Isaac Newell, Joseph Ford, A. S. Guerard, H. G. Eswaller, C. J. Parnell, Otis Green, L. S. Perry, H. C. Hanaker, R. E. Holcomb, G. N. Carter, O. F. Williams, R. C. Lieb, A. A. McLinde, C. D. Kinsland, Paul Gerhardt, W. S. Smith, W. E. Cunningham, J. P. McLain, D. S. Oakley, Robert Greenwood, C. H. Hodges, T. M. English, E. L. McKee, J. M. Westall and J. M. Acee.

The Dutch supper, known as the "session on the roof," began at 12 o'clock and lasted until a much later or earlier hour, and those present enjoyed a most appetizing menu. Judge Henry B. Stevens acted as toastmaster in a very interesting manner and a number of excellent and entertaining speeches were made by the following: Scribevoter James H. Baird, Nashville; Vicecrafter Snark J. M. English, Asheville; Frank Chapman, Asheville; W. A. Hadley, Chatham, Ontario; F. W. Trower, San Francisco; T. L. O'Donnell, Mississippi; and E. D. Tennent, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.
