PIGEON SHOOTING ENDS IN TRAGEDY

Parke, Son of Alderman Shuford, Killed by Gun's Accidental Discharge.

One of the saddest accidents that has happened in Asheville in many days resulted in the death of Parke Shuford, the 12 year old son of Alderman W. E. Shuford, of Flint street, when a .22 caliber rifle, which he had been shooting in the back yard of a neighbor, was in some way exploded and the bullet penetrated his brain. Medical assistance was given at once, but the boy lived only about 20 minutes after he was wounded. When the cartridge exploded the boy was sitting in the back end of a delivery wagon and it is said that the stock of the gun was resting on his feet with the muzzle pointing upward. It is thought that the hammer of the gun was pulled back in some way as he slipped or jumped from the wagon. The boy had been shooting pigeons in the rear of the residence of C. W. Baird with his companion, Harry Baird, and leaving it climbed into a delivery wagon, taking the gun with him. He was seen to fall in the ground by Mrs. Bizar at the residence of Kenneth Baird and she summoned aid. The boy was carried to the home of his parents, and physicians worked with him until he died. It was found that the bullet had entered under the chin and penetrated the base of the brain.

The news of the accident soon resulted, causing great regret on the part of the many friends of his parents and companions of the boy, with whom he was very popular. He was of bright and cheerful disposition and much beloved both in the home and in school.

The funeral services will be conducted from the residence tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. Dr. C. W. Baird, who will be assisted by Rev. W. E. Poovey, and the interment will be at Riverside cemetery.

CAR HITS TREE; THREE BOYS HURT

Harry Gee in Hospital, Ben Meriwether and George Lochran Bruised.

While out riding in an automobile on the Vanderbilt road last night with Ben Meriwether and George Lochran, Harry Gee, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gee of Charlotte street, was more or less seriously injured when the machine skidded, hit a tree and the occupants were hurled to the ground. The other boys were rather badly shocked and bruised but were not seriously injured. It is not known just how badly young Gee is hurt. He is at the Meriwether hospital where the boys were taken by Dr. Meriwether, who notified of the accident, went out for them. It is feared that he may be internally hurt. It is said that the young men left the square about 12 o'clock last night for a ride, with Ben Meriwether driving. They were out on the Vanderbilt road, when in attempting to avoid a mudhole, he lost control of the machine, it skidded and struck the tree, which he had not seen. They struck the ground with such force that they were rendered unconscious, and it was some time before they recovered enough to summon aid.

BEFORE SENATE BAR

Judge Archbald Appears Today for Trial—Goes into Conference With Attorneys.

Washington, July 19.—Judge Robert W. Archbald of the commerce court, the ninth man in the United States to be impeached by the house, appeared before the bar of the senate for trial today. He arrived from his home at Scranton, Pa., and at once went into conference with his lawyers. The house demands an immediate trial.

The judge followed the announcement of the secretary with close attention. Sergeant-at-Arms Ramsdell made the formal proclamation: "Robert W. Archbald appear and answer the charges made against you." Archbald leaned forward to listen. Attorney Worthington said, "The respondent is present in person to answer." Worthington submitted a motion for time in which to prepare and submit an answer. He named no date, but asked for 20 days. August 3 was fixed as the limit for all formal orders. The court adjourned until July 29 without having decided whether trial shall be gone into this summer or be continued until fall. Archbald must answer the charges July 29. The house managers were ordered to present their rebuttal and answer on August 1.

The executive committee of the Western North Carolina Fair association met yesterday afternoon with Secretary Guy Weaver for the purpose of adopting a premium list for the fair department. Two lists were presented, one for the farmers' class and one for the run-about class, both of which were adopted and were ordered printed in the catalog of the fair. Secretary Weaver and W. J. Cook reported that the following had contributed to a fund, the list being made for special premiums: The board of county commissioners, the city of Asheville, the Battery Park bank, the Wachovia Bank & Trust company and the Citizens bank.

DISCRIMINATIVE EXPRESS RATES ARE CONSIDERED

Merchants Will Seek Relief—Local Delivery Equipment Is Not Sufficient.

It is possible that the Asheville Merchants' association will take up with the corporation commission of the state the matter of alleged unjust discrimination in express rates against Asheville, as this was discussed at length at the meeting of the association last night, and most of the members favored such action. The matter has been under consideration for a long time. The Prown Hardware company was elected to membership.

One of the specific instances in regard to the alleged discrimination in express rates was that on bread from Knoxville. It was pointed out that the rate on bread from Knoxville to Black Mountain and some other towns beyond Asheville is less than the rate is from Asheville to those towns. Another complaint was in the matter of the delayed delivery which was placed in the hands of the transportation committee. It seems that there is no blame attached to the local employees of the express company, but it is claimed that the equipment is not sufficient for a town of this size and that very often things that should be delivered by 8 o'clock in the morning are not received until 12 o'clock.

The association did not approve of the advertising feature in connection with certain maps of the city that are being prepared.

This was an all-members meeting and was very well attended, the members taking great interest in the discussions.

Mr. Nichols also denied that he was a delegate to Baltimore. He has been alleged, but stated that he may have made the statements while under the influence of whiskey. He denied that he had wired Reed to come to Spartanburg to close the pardon deal, and said that any telegram to that effect was faked.
