

THIRD DEGREE REVEALS CLUES

Jack Sullivan and Sam Paul, Sweated by Police, Make Important Revelations.

ROSENTHAL MYSTERY NEARING SOLUTION

Final Plans to Kill the Gambler Were Made at Conference Last Monday Night.

New York, July 22.—The Rosenthal murder mystery is nearing a solution according to well-founded opinion. Sweated and grilled by third degree methods, Jack Sullivan and Sam Paul, the gangsters, willingly made statements today from which the police commissioner pieces together important and heretofore missing evidence. The detectives have learned enough to admit that the gamblers gathered Monday night and were taken to "Bridgie" Webber's poker rooms, where final arrangements to slay Rosenthal were made.

That the murderers were slipping out of town for the last few days is the belief of detectives who are looking for certain thugs that the picked band of "bad men" had selected to shoot Rosenthal. It is said they even had a sort of rehearsal of the shooting. William Shapiro has revealed how the gangsters kept the street in front of the hotel clear of taxicabs for 30 minutes before the murder in order to give the "murder car" a clean get-away. Shapiro said that at least 16 men must have known of the "job", as they were in front of the hotel ready to blackjack and kill, if necessary, anyone who interfered with the thugs or tried to block their escape.

Reports are current today that Jack Rose has "squealed" and given the names of those who were in the automobile.

Louis ("Bridgie") Webber, keeper of an uptown resort, and Sam Paul, head of the "Sam Paul association" at the outing of which last Sunday threats were made to "ret" Rosenthal, were arrested last night on the charge of suspicion of homicide in connection with the killing of Rosenthal. Jack Sullivan, alleged go-between between Police Lieutenant Charles Becker and "Bald Jack" Rose, the latter already under arrest, was taken in custody as a material witness.

The arrests were the result of the activities of Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty who has assumed active charge of the police hunt for the murderers of Rosenthal. More arrests are expected at any moment, the commissioner asserted, but as to the nature of these arrests he would say nothing.

When piled with questions as to the real significance of last night's work the commissioner was reticent. This much he said definitely: "Webber and Paul are not charged with being in the 'murder car' at the time the fatal shots were fired, nor are the men who actually did the shooting in custody; the arrests do not clear up the case, by a jug full, although the police have made material progress in solving the problem which has baffled the police department and district attorney's office for a week."

Whether the evidence obtained leads toward Lieutenant Charles Becker, charged by Rosenthal with exacting tribute from New York gamblers, Commissioner Dougherty refused flatly to discuss. Mr. Dougherty admitted that Becker was not at police headquarters yesterday but declared that the lieutenant had not been arrested.

"Becker is not involved more now than he was 24 hours ago," said the commissioner and with that dismissed the subject.

Dougherty admitted that Sullivan had told him that he left Lieutenant Becker's automobile in the vicinity of Broadway and Forty-second street one hour and a half before the assassination on Tuesday morning. Sullivan was also in "Bridgie" Webber's place between 1:30 and 2 o'clock.

"Whether the rest of the men who are implicated were in Webber's place, Commissioner Dougherty refused to say. Sullivan is said to have admitted that he was with 'Bald Jack' Rose on Monday evening in Sam Paul's place. Rose is now locked up in the Tombs, charged with complicity in the murder.

Movements After the Murder. After leaving the room Sullivan went to the fight in Madison Square Garden and at the conclusion of the bout joined Lieutenant Becker and was driven away from the garden in the latter's machine. It is claimed that Sullivan was in the immediate vicinity of the murder at the time it was committed, but whether his arrest was due to this fact, Commissioner Dougherty refused to say.

Commissioner Dougherty says that Sullivan has stated that his mission after leaving Becker's car was to see Sam Paul in "Bridgie" Webber's place but that he did not find Paul. Sullivan has further explained what his business with Paul at that time was.

OVERMAN ATTACKS FORESTRY BUREAU

Asserts Many Are on Government Payroll for Nominal Duties.

Gazette-News Bureau, Washington, July 22. Declaring that it is his belief that the forestry bureau is wantonly wasting the governments money in hiring numberless clerks, lawyers, doctors, chemists and other professional men from eastern and western states and that that department of the government is duplicating work done by other departments, Senator Overman of North Carolina, Saturday introduced a resolution in the senate asking for a sweeping investigation of the forestry service.

Senator Overman said that when the bureau was first established it only required an annual appropriation of $800,000. "Now, according to the estimates for this year," said the junior senator, "an appropriation of $6,000,000 is necessary and the employees number 30,000. It cost the government $20,000 to get out a single bulletin, according to figures which I have obtained," concluded Mr. Overman.

Men who are interested in the investigation believe that the inquiry will show that hundreds of professors in eastern and western universities and a goodly number of lawyers who are carried on the government payroll perform few if any duties for Uncle Sam. Not only this but it is claimed they use the clerks assigned to their departments for private use.

Tammany's Contributions to Bryan. Tammany hall contributed $10,000 to help elect William J. Bryan to the presidency four years ago. Prominent Tammany leaders as individuals also contributed to Bryan's campaign fund as follows: William F. Sheehan, $3000; E. M. Sheppard, $1000; J. O'Brien, $500; Delancy Nicola, $1000; and the national democratic club of New York, gave $2500. Neither August Belmont nor Thomas F. Ryan contributed. These were facts brought out Saturday by Herman Ridder of New York, who was treasurer of the democratic national committee in 1908 and who testified before the senate subcommittee which is investigating campaign contributions.

Politicians who supported Champ Clark for the democratic nomination at Baltimore, and who think only Bryan has been appointed a member of the agricultural finance committee and Clarence Poe of Raleigh to the vocational educational committee of the Southern Commercial congress.

GOV. C. L. BLEASE DENIES THE CHARGES OF FELDER

Says He Has Not Received Money for Pardons or from Liquor Sellers.

Columbia, S. C., July 22.—Governor Cole L. Blease Saturday issued his promised statement refuting the charges brought against him by Thos. B. Felder of Georgia and W. J. Burns, the dejective. Including copies of affidavits, the statement makes about 50 pages of typewritten manuscript. Each and every charge or rumor is taken up separately and answered by the governor.

Blease says Felder erred when he says he went to Charleston between the two primaries in 1910 to get money from the "tigers" for his (Blease's) campaign expenses. He says the statement that he is getting graft from the Charleston blind tigers originated with Mayor Grace of that city owing to the governor's refusal to allow Grace to control the constabulary there.

The governor denies that he received any money for his signatures on whom petitions were received requesting pardons, one of whom was Rev. Dr. W. A. Mueller, a Lutheran pastor, of Charleston. He says the accusation made by Felder that $2000 had been paid by Raebens for his freedom was a wilful falsehood and he submits affidavits from Raebens and Dr. Mueller purporting to deny this charge.

He presents an affidavit from H. H. Evans to the effect that he has never had any transaction with Blease as to dispendary affairs, or that he and Blease were ever in Atlanta together nor has he ever had money paid to him by any party for Governor or Blease.

Governor Blease also presented affidavits from a dozen persons that he was not concerned in any liquor or other corrupt transactions. As to the famous "T. B." letters, of which Felder had denied authorship, the governor said that he had submitted the letters to several gentlemen of Columbia who are familiar with the handwriting of Felder, and that these gentlemen are willing to go on the stand and swear that the letters were written by T. B. Felder. Persons in the state of Georgia, who are also familiar with the handwriting of Felder had made the same assertion. "I have also two letters written by Felder—one from England and one from a point in the United States—to a woman, and the writing of these letters compared with those of the 'T. B.' letters, shows that the letters I hold were written by Felder."

FULL PROGRESSIVE TICKET PLANNED

Colonel's Adherents in Michigan Divorce Themselves from Republican Party.

Jackson, Mich., July 22.—Michigan progressives divorced themselves absolutely from the republican party in their state convention here Saturday. By almost a unanimous vote the delegates went on record as favoring the placing of an entire ticket, both state and national in the field. A few instructed delegates voted against the move in order to record the sentiment of their home counties, but explained to the convention that they personally were for separation from the old party.

Delegates to the national progressive party convention in Chicago, presidential electors, members of the state central committee and a member of the national committee were chosen. At the time of the adjournment of the day session the convention had not recorded its sentiments regarding candidates for state officers. The state central committee, however, was asked to recommend to the convention a candidate for governor and to report at a night session. The recommendation of the committee does not mean nomination by the convention, however. By the provisions of the Michigan primary law, any man can file a petition for any nomination on the progressive ticket if he has a sufficient number of names.

The coming of Senator Joseph M. Dixon to the convention probably had as much to do with carrying the "full ticket" plan as anything. The factiousness for a "stub" ticket or the nomination of presidential electors only and the "full ticket" crowd were lined up for a bitter fight when he arrived.

But he told them that Colonel Roosevelt wanted a full state ticket and after that it was all over but the shouting. The shouting, however, required much time for the convention was an enthusiastic as the thousand or more delegates and a brass band could make it. Senator Dixon, while addressing the convention, declared "it is a better chance now that Roosevelt will be elected than it was last March that he would be nominated." He declared that progressive sentiment was being edited out of many papers. New York will go progressive, he said, and he named as delegates to the Chicago convention, Bourke Cockran, General Horatio King and Governor Garvin, of Rhode Island.

JUDGE HANFORD RESIGNS FROM FEDERAL BENCH

DIE IN RAGING STREAMS IN PITTSBURGH VICINITY

Lives Lost and Property Damage Done by Heavy Rainfall.

Pittsburg, July 22.—A heavy, steady rainfall caused considerable damage throughout the country districts of Western Pennsylvania yesterday. Although no damage resulted in this city, adjoining boroughs suffered. Industrial plants were flooded, while many homes located along runs and creeks were surrounded by water. In the country sections live stock was drowned and crops ruined. No accurate estimate of the damage is obtainable but it is claimed it will be many thousands of dollars. At Conansburg, Pa., Hester Young, aged 17, fell into Charliers creek and was drowned in sight of many persons who were watching the swollen stream. Louis Forsythe, aged 7, was drowned in a run at Ruffsdale, near Greensburg, Pa., and Lando De Tolo, aged 10, was swept away while watching the raging waters of Connell Run, at Conneville, Pa.

Probably the heaviest damage occurred at Turtle Creek, Bradock, Wilmerding, East Pittsburg, Oakland, Sharfner and several other towns near this city. In the Turtle Creek valley the water spread over the lowlands rapidly driving many families to top floors. At Wilmerding, the plant of the Westinghouse Air Brake company was flooded and the loss to the concern may be large. Probably 50 houses and 25 stores in Wilmerding are partly under water.

In all parts of Allegheny county, street car service was crippled for the day, while a number of branch railroad lines were put out of commission. A score of small foot bridges were swept away.

SAYS THAT NO TRUSTS AIDED COL. ROOSEVELT

Washington, July 22.—Former Senator Nathan B. Scott of West Virginia today told the senate committee investigating the campaign fund of 1904 and 1905 that so far as he remembered no contributions were made to Roosevelt's campaign by any corporation. Henry Havemeyer or any representative of the International Harvester company.

TO CURB ROYALISTS

Troops Patrol Disaffected Portuguese Districts—Peasants Are Friendly to Soldiers.

Lisbon, Portugal, July 22.—Calm reigns throughout the country, but republican troops continue to patrol the districts in which the royalist outbreaks have occurred. The temper of the people is shown by the fact that the peasants fraternize openly with the soldiers everywhere.

TO REPLACE LANDMARK

Gov. Wilson Will Plant New Apple Tree Where Lee Surrendered to Grant.

Washington, July 22.—The famous apple tree under which Gen. Lee surrendered to Gen. Grant, long since carried away piece by piece by souvenir hunters will be replaced by a tree planted by Woodrow Wilson. The farm on which the tree stood is owned by Col. George A. Armes, U. S. A., who has invited Wilson to plant the tree and the governor has accepted.

ANTI-SALOON INTERESTS WIN

INSISTS ON FULL ILLINOIS TICKET

Dixon Calls Plan of Colonel Seeking Only Electoral Vote Folly.

Chicago, July 22.—Senator Dixon today declared there must be a full third party ticket in Illinois with candidates favorable to Roosevelt. He said it was folly for the colonel to attempt to run merely for the electoral vote, because that would be "only a moral protest, not a campaign." He said "pussy-foot" politics wouldn't go these days.

GATE CITY BOND ISSUE PROBABLY WILL CARRY

Caesar Cone to Erect Costly New Residence—Cars Smash Wagon.

Gazette-News Bureau, Daily News Building, Greensboro, July 22.

A force of men this morning began tearing away the home of Caesar Cone on Summit avenue preparatory to the erection of a handsome new home for the head of the Cone cotton manufacturing business. The new residence will cost approximately $40,000 and will be built by the Cones' personal corps of carpenters. The residence will be located almost in the center of Mr. Cone's handsome site and will immediately upon the site of the present building. Just across the avenue from Caesar Cone the $20,000 residence of Bernard Cone is nearing completion.

The final work of Greensboro's progressive citizens for carrying the $130,000 bond issue tomorrow was completed today and the advocates of the bonds are optimistic that the entire issue will carry. It is proposed to pay $75,000 of the issue for street paving to which will be added an additional $75,000 to be paid by property owners on streets improved. The other portion of the issue will be used for improving the city hall, improvements to city market and sewer and water main extension.

A runaway horse with only portions of the harness on him created some excitement for a moment on South Elm street and at the Clegg hotel Sunday afternoon when he dashed across Elm street and came near plunging through the large plate glass front of the hotel lobby. But for an iron post into which the animal ran the horse would undoubtedly have gone through the window and into the hotel lobby.

A negro driver named Thomas Williams, in the employ of the Odell Hardware company, had a narrow escape from being killed or dangerously hurt Saturday afternoon when the wagon which he was driving became sandwiched in between a northbound and southbound car on Elm street. The fender and front of the northbound car were smashed while the wagon was nearly demolished and the driver slightly hurt. How he escaped is almost a miracle.

WORKS FOR WILSON

Senator Says Unless Roosevelt Runs as Republican He Will Not Support Him.

Washington, July 22.—The controversy between Senator John D. Works and progressive leaders of California advanced another stage yesterday when the senator was called upon by telegraph by Lieutenant Governor A. J. Wallace, to inform the progressive voters whether he intended to vote for Roosevelt, Taft or Wilson.

"Will not vote for Taft," Senator Works telegraphed back. "Would have voted for and aided in the election of Roosevelt if he had stood on his just rights to the nomination at Chicago and run as republican. Will not follow him into a new party. Believe a new party abandons the ground that would make his claim invulnerable."

Senator Works added that whether he would now vote for Roosevelt "depends on how he is nominated and whether he runs as a republican." He further said that he felt he could "as a progressive republican, vote for Wilson consistently, if no republican other than Taft is nominated."

Senate Committee Favors Bill Giving "Dry" States Power to Intercept Liquor Shipments.

REVISION OF WILSON LAW IS ADVOCATED

Making Whiskey in Interstate Commerce Subject to Laws of a Single Commonwealth.

Washington, July 22.—The anti-saloon interests won a victory before the senate judiciary committee today when a favorable report was authorized on a bill giving "dry" states power to intercept liquor shipments from "wet" territory. The report would revise the Wilson law to meet the decision of the Supreme court and make liquor in interstate commerce subject to the laws of a single state upon arrival within its boundaries and before delivery to a consignee.

WORLD PEACE IS THEME OF DR. DAVID S. JORDAN

Leland Stanford's President Tells of Disastrous Result of Armed Conflicts.

Gazette-News Bureau, The Hotel Raleigh, Raleigh, July 22.

Dr. David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford university, delivered a strong address last night on the subject of world peace. The speaker attributed the decadence of Greece and Rome to the loss of their strong, brave young men; the millions of unemployed in England to wars, and the condition of France, a "wounded nation," to the loss of so many of its true hearts.

The speaker had studied well his subject and he spoke with exact knowledge of history. He agreed with Benjamin Franklin that "wars are not paid for in war time; the bill comes later." Speaking of the civil war, Dr. Jordan said that the reason for the disappearance of oratory and literature in Massachusetts may be accounted for by the civil war. North Carolina and Virginia and other southern states may never recover from the loss of so many strong men who were killed in battle.

Dr. Jordan and his daughter, Miss Edith Jordan, left last night for Knoxville, Tenn., where he has an appointment. Both Dr. Jordan and his daughter are republicans, but they will vote for Woodrow Wilson. Two teams of firemen left Raleigh today for Fayetteville to attend the State Firemen's tournament. This will probably be the last tournament the Raleigh firemen will attend, as the city is soon to have a paid fire department. It is contemplated spending $34,275 for apparatus.

TRAIN IS ATTACKED; MANY ARE KILLED

Many Women Captured by Zapatistas Are Subjected to Indescribable Barbarities.

Mexico City, July 22.—The dead as a result of Saturday's attack by Zapatistas on the Mexico-Cuernavaca train near Parres on the edge of the federal district, yesterday numbered 84. Three of the wounded died in the railway hospital. A second relief train which reached Mexico City Sunday brought 33 passengers who had escaped the butchery and made their way into Tres Maries, a few miles away.

It is estimated that the train carried approximately 75 passengers in addition to the 50-soldier escort. Forty-three soldiers were killed. Nine bodies of passengers were found near the wreck. Of the remaining 32, a majority are believed to have been killed or wounded and consumed in the burning cars, which were fired with oil taken from the tank of the locomotive.

Before the attack on the train it became known that the Zapata horde had routed a small garrison of federalists at Parres. Many women of the company fell into their hands and were subjected to indescribable barbarities. The wife of the chief of the detachment was found disemboweled and otherwise horribly mutilated.

Captain Rosendo Nunes, in charge of the escort on the ill-fated train, is said to have fought heroically. After he had received three wounds he continued firing until a fourth bullet pierced his heart.
