SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Personal Mention, News of the Societies, Meetings, Etc.

Miss Zimmerman was hostess last evening at a party given at her house in West Asheville. The affair was a charming social success, and was much enjoyed by the guests present, among whom were: Misses Beulah, Bessie and Lottie Roper, May and Lucy Ledford, Bessie Atkins, Lizzie Corn, Essie Black, Lucile Kretsch, Martha Goelet, Cordie Bailey, and S. Moore George Fennell, Burdett Pender, Frederick Zimmerman, Carl Ender, Earl Grice, Frank Tynes, Oscar Howard, Herbert James, Marion Bailey and Mr. Burgess.

The picnic given last evening on the banks of Lake Juanita, near Weaverville, by the Philathea class of the First Presbyterian church was a delightful success. The members of the class left Park square at 6 o'clock on special cars and were served a basket lunch shortly after their arrival at the lake. The class enjoyed rowing upon the lake and other amusements, and the occasion was voted an entire success.

Miss Kate Wilson, who is well known here, was a recent guest at a small party given in Charleston by Miss Nonie Wilson for her school friends. After tea was served, the party motored to Hampton park, the navy yard and other places of interest around Charleston.

Miss Eleanor Harris of Wilmington, who is the guest of Mrs. Robert Johnson at her home on Grove street, will be the guest of honor this evening at a cubical heart party given for her by Miss Helen Meares at her home on Atkin street.

Miss Ruth Croede of Greensboro, Miss Helen McCullough of Atlanta, and Miss Sadie Lipscomb of Gaffney, S. C., will be the guests of honor at a card party to be given this afternoon by Miss Margaret Millinder at her home on Pearson drive.

A large crowd attended the weekly dance at the Lake Juanita pavilion, Weaverville, last night. Several Asheville people went out and returned to the city on the late car.

The annual reunion of the Pickens family will be held on August 8 at Grove park, better known as Reams Creek camp ground, Weaverville.

The usual Friday evening dance at the Battery Park hotel takes place this evening and dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.

Miss Mabel Hartwell, who is attending a house party in Madison, Tenn., is expected home on Monday, and will have as her guest for several weeks Miss Elinor Ibach of Mobile, who will arrive Saturday. Mrs. Harry Hartwell and her two daughters, Misses Mabel and Irma Hartwell, are spending the season in one of the Albemarle park cottages, where Miss Ibach will be their guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stone have returned to Raleigh, after a visit to Asheville.

Miss Sallie Zeigler of Asheville was among the guests present at a recent social function given in Durham by the Misses Levy in honor of a number of visiting young ladies.

Gray Gorham will leave Sunday afternoon for a visit of several weeks to his mother, Mrs. J. W. C. Gorham, who is spending the summer in Adairville, Ky.

Judge Howard A. Poushee, who was recently operated on in the Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, is reported as making rapid recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hennessee and Mrs. C. C. Quinn of Salisbury are expected in Asheville next week from Salisbury. They will make the trip by motor.

T. G. Wood, successor of Charles W. Mason as agricultural agent of the Southern railway, has arrived in Asheville to assume his duties.

J. W. Grimes, formerly manager of the Paragon pharmacy, has accepted a position at the Langren pharmacy.

Miss Garnett Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Williams, has as her guest Miss Katherine Dillard of Spartanburg and will also have as her guest Miss Katherine Stepp of Spartanburg, who has been at the Kentucky home in Hendersonville for a few days and who will arrive in Asheville on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Williams also have as their guest their daughter, Mrs. S. B. Dillard, at their home, 180 Merrimon avenue.

The Charlotte Observer: Among the guests registered at the Selwyn last night were Messrs. C. P. Ambler, W. F. Randolph, C. V. Reynolds, F. and G. Stikelather and R. R. Reynolds of Asheville. . . . Miss Susan

HER HANDS AND ARMS MADE MARVELOUSLY BEAUTIFUL IN A SINGLE NIGHT

FREE PRESCRIPTION DID IT.

Grace Benson says: "Had anyone told me such wonderful results could be accomplished so quickly, I positively would not have believed it. My arms and hands were covered with freckles; my neck was dark and wrinkled from the use of a high collar; my hands were tanned and the knuckles red.

All these defects were removed by one application of a free prescription, which I am pleased to give to anyone. It's just as simple as it is effective. Go to any drug store and get an empty two-ounce bottle and a one-ounce bottle of Kulux Compound. Pour the entire bottle of Kulux into the two-ounce bottle, add one-quarter ounce of witch hazel and fill with water. Prepare this prescription at your own home, then you know you are getting it right. Apply night and morning. It makes the skin soft and beautiful, no matter how rough and ungainly your hands and arms are. One application will astonish you. I have given this prescription to thousands of women and they are all just as enthusiastic as I am. Try it on your neck and shoulders and you will be agreeably surprised."

Summers left yesterday morning for Asheville and Benton Springs, Tenn., to spend some time. . . . Miss Mary Bourne of Tarboro, who has been visiting Mrs. W. J. Smith, will leave Saturday morning for Asheville. . . . J. C. M. Valentine of Asheville was a Charlotte visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor Amis leave this afternoon for Bridgeport, Conn., to be the guests of Mrs. Amis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Banks, in Bridgeport and Mrs. Amis will join Mrs. Amis' brother, Dr. C. L. Banks, and with him motor through the Berkshire hills on an extended trip. Mr. and Mrs. Amis will return to Asheville in one month's time.

Wrightsville Notes.
Correspondence of The Gazette-News.
Wrightsville Beach, Aug. 1.—This has been the banner week of the season so far at the south's premier seaside resort, the hotels and cottages being crowded every day with visitors from all parts of North Carolina and other states. The week-end arrivals surpasses by far any week this season, but all are being cared for at the resort. An unusually large number arrived yesterday from Atlanta to spend 10 days or longer. More North Carolinians than usual are noted at the beach this year.

Both the Seashore and Oceanic hotels have about twice as many reservations for the month of August as they had for the same month last year. This is taken to mean that there will be an unusually large crowd at the beach all through the month and there is some probability that the season will be extended later than usual. Notwithstanding the cool weather that prevailed at interior points in June, this season has been the best in the history of the resort, and but few conventions have been entertained, either, most of the people coming here because they preferred Wrightsville to going elsewhere.

The weekly children's souvenir dance, given every Wednesday morning at the Oceanic hotel, is proving very popular with the little folks at the resort, the attendance growing from week to week. There were 150 little folks in attendance Wednesday and all were given attractive souvenirs. Every other morning in the week except Wednesday a dance is given at the hotel for the young people.

Harry T. Aitchison, business manager of the Winston-Salem Journal, Mrs. Aitchison and little daughter, Mildred, are spending some days at the Oceanic hotel.

Wade H. Harris, editor of the Charlotte Observer, arrived to spend a few days at the resort, joining Mrs. Harris and daughter, Miss Clara Harris, who arrived Thursday to spend some days at the Seashore hotel.

Dr. Calvin H. Granger of Winston-Salem is spending some days at the Seashore hotel.

Miss Jette Lanier of West Point, Ga., one of the most popular visitors to the resort this season, returned to her home Wednesday.

The Hundred Thousand Dollar club of the Security Life & Annuity company of Greensboro, composed of the agents of the company, held its annual meeting at the Seashore hotel recently. This is the third annual meeting and all have been held at the Seashore. The agents of the Jefferson Standard of Raleigh will hold their annual meeting at the Seashore early in August.

Mrs. W. J. Chapman and daughter, Miss Marjorie Chapman, and Miss Allen of Spartanburg, S. C., returned to their homes Tuesday. Friends at the each and in Wilmington of Miss Chapman have been interested in the announcement of her engagement to David Currie of Fayetteville, the wedding to take place in the fall.

The Lumina concert, especially those given on Sunday, have proved more popular this season than ever. Thousands flock to the pleasure pavilion every week. Mrs. Frank Pearson, a noted soprano singer of Atlanta, Ga., last Sunday began an engagement at Lumina and her solos have been as heartily enjoyed as those rendered by her during a brief stay last season.
