THE THREE SISTERS. ADAM VIRTUE and Miss Genius With their sister, Reputation, Traveled once through distant countries On a tour of observation.

Ere they started Genius hinted That by some unlucky blunder As they traveled through the kingdoms

Virtue said: "If I am missing And you deem me worth the trouble Seek me at the courts of monarchs Or the dwellings of the noble.

"If among the high and mighty
You should fail to find me present
You may meet with better fortune
In the cottage of the peasant." Genius said, "If from my sisters I should chance to prove a roamer Seek me at the tomb of Shakespear Or before the shrine of Homer,"

"Ah," said Reputation, sighing,
"It is easy of discerning
Each of you may freely wander
With the prospect of returning!

"But, I pray you, guard me closely, For despite your best endeavor If you miss me for a moment I am lost and gone forever."
