TAX REJECTS WOOL MEASURE

President Declares Low Rates THE CONFEDERATE of La Follette-Underwood Bill Would Wreck the Industry.

Urges Congress to Frame New Act Which He Can Approve-Other Vetoes

Coming.

Washington, Aug. 9.-For the sec rich law. With his disapproval the Salem. president returned to congress a bill house and senate, holding that its low rates would bring disaster to home industries. He appealed to congress not to adjourn until it had enacted a measure to substantially reduce unnecessary existing duties without destroying the protection of the wool industry in the United States. Disapproval of the wool bill is to be followed with similar vetoes of the steel and cotton bills. The sugar bill is likely to be vetoed as is the excise tax bill, the latter probably on the ground that the president believes it inconstitutional. "I shall stand by the pledges to maintain the degree of protection necessary to offset the differences in the cost of production here and abroad and will heartily approve any bill reducing duties to this level'

wrote the president. While the bill vetoed today and the one disapproved last year are identical in terms the president's reasons differed. He vetoed the former bill because it was framed before the tar iff board's report and the latter be cause he said it was framed with disregard of the board's findings. It is predicted the house will override the veto, but the bill's fate in the senat

Special to The Gazette-News. Washington, Aug. 9.—Governor Wilson's speech accepting the democratic presidential nomination was the principal topic discussed in the democratic cloakrooms of the house Representative Sterling of Illinois and senate yesterday. With few ex-opinion the governor's speech was one of the finest documents he had ever-read. He said that it was a fine explanation of the democratic plat-form and is so broad that there need be no factions in the democratic par-"Every man in the party could

New York, Aug. 9.-Lieutenant vention. Becker denied today that he contemplated making a confession and said he had no confession to make for the reason that he had nothing to con-fess. This will be proved when he has his day in court, he said. PROVIDES FOR CHANGE

Becker Case Strengthened. Yesterday's developments in Rosenthal murder case indicate that the coils of the law are slowly tightening around Lieutenant Charles A Becker, who is charged with murder in the first degree, and there are not wanting indications that other high officials of the police department will be enmeshed in the net.

mors False-Rockefeller

Inquiry Result.

The fact became known yesterday that John D. Rockefeller, jr., has been nstrumental in obtaining evidence of police graft which he has turned over to District Attorney Whitman for use in connection with the prosecu or's investigation of alleged corruption among high police officials that has grown out of the murder of Herman Rosenthal. While Starr J. Murphy, Mr. Rocke feller's attorney, denied the published report that the oil millionaire's son had been conducting a disorderly house for the purpose of obtaining evidence of blackmail against the police, he let it be known that Mr. Rockefeller, who was about a year ago foreman of the grand jury that investigated the white slave traffic, had placed in the hands of the district attorney information "bearing on the

"Mr. Rockefeller having become inerested in white slave matters while foreman of the special grand jury has been securing statistics with regard to the social evil," reads Mr. Murphy's statement. "Whatever information was secured bearing on the police situation has been placed at the disposal of the district attorney. The statement that Mr. Rockefeller or his representatives have been conduct ing a disorderly house is entirely with out foundation."

This information, it is learned, will be presented to the grand jury in conjunction with the rapidly increasing mass of similar evidence which the district attorney and his assistants have unearthed since "Bald" Jack Rose made his first charges involving high police officials in gambling graft.

Along with the publication of the eport that Mr. Rockefeller had been conducting a disorderly house for the purpose of trapping the police it was reported that a detective agency had been operating a gambling house for the same purpose. If this is so it is thus far news to Mr. Whitman, who to conduct a sweeping investigation can party. desired to wipe out the alleged cor-rupt alliance between the police and disorderly elements of the city.

Mr. Rockefeller had supplemented the information obtained in this manner by quiet work among real resorts. Mr. Whitman added that the infor mation had come to him that a police inspector had received $600 a month from a disorderly house. This house, it is understood, was one of those in-vestigated by Mr. Rockefeller's representatives. Mr. Whitman said also that one of his assistants, James Reynolds, had been working with the Rockefeller agents for the past few months. The possibility that the sealed doors of the so-called "system" might be opened wide was strongly suggested when it became known that unsel for Lieutenant Becker, who is charged with instigating the murder of Rosenthal, had visited the district attorney and discussed with him the nestion of leniency for his client. Not long after Becker was arrested the district attorney made it known that the lieutenant's chance to escape efforts to convict him of murder in the first degree depended upon his willingness to tell all he knew gambling graft. It was reported that fter visiting his client and weighing all the evidence thus far pointing against him, the lawyer in his discus sion with the district attorney made

The district atorney had before th grand jury yesterday sixteen wit-nesses, one of them being Lieutenant Dominick Reilly, one of the strong arm squad raiders who it was learned testified that New York city had been 'wide open" for a year and a half. He was asked if he believed that the sorts and said that the best evice of this was that there was n dence of this was that there was not a gambling house in operation at the present time. Relily, it was reported, criticised severely the method of the police in getting evidence, which was of such a nature, he declared, that the courts could not convict.

Three other witnesses were Margaret Rose, Mary Sterr and Anna Glathar, employes in the household of "Jack" Rose, who, it is understood, (Continued on Page Two.)

SAYS THE PARTY'S LAW

Attempt to Take Away the Rights of Thousands of Republicans in State, He Says.

Hon. Richmond Pearson was asked oday by a Gazette-News representaive if he had anything to say in regard to the resolituous adopted he republican state committee at Greensboro Wednesday. Mr. Pearson replied, "Yes, I have good deal to say on the subject, but I am not prepared just yet to make a full statement for the reason that have not yet ascertained certain nec essary facts; but I have this to sa right now: That the committee has assumed to exercise powers which belong to the state convention only. They assumed to change the republi-can plan of organization, and this can only be done by a duly constituted state convention. Article 8 of the plan of organization prescribes the basis of representation. Article 9 prescribes the qualifications of delegates and alternates in county, district, state and national conventions. Arti cle 14 reads as follows:

"This plan of organization and procedure shall continue in force until changed or abrogated by a subsequent republican state convention "It is therefore, manifest that the state committee has attempted to usurp powers which belong to state convention only. It is absurd on its face for eight men, whose powers are strictly defined and limited, to indertake to over-ride the political rights of 100,000 men, "It is well known throughout the state that this committee has four several times endorsed Mr. Taft. It is also well known that on the only oc- arrests. casion when the republican voters had a chance to express their opinion of Mr. Taft, they voted him down overwhelmingly in 99 countles out of 100 in this state, and thereby overwhelmingly reversed the judgment thrice expressed by the state commit has received no reports on the results tee. As far fact that eight members or 20 memas Mr. Rockefeller is concerned it was bers of a political committee have no learned that the young millionaire is right to prevent, abolish or stifle the prepared to furnish all the funds necprecinct primaries provided for in essary to enable the district attorney the fundamental law of the republi-

"It may be uncomfortable for these eight or 20 committeemen to realize what the republican voters will do in the primaries, and it may be distasteful and risky for these eight or 20 committeemen to submit their own claims to a convention composed of honest delegates selected "I was told by him that Mr. Rocke coming primaries, but it might as celler is interested in the developments well be understood now, as later, that the will of the 100,000 and more reto use, if possible, the evidence he has publican voters in the state canno and will not be stifled. These 100,000 men cannot be denied the privilege o expressing their opinion as to the acbeen concerned and that it was con- tion of the Chicago convention held

"The conference which was held in Greensboro a month ago decided to submit the ssue of Taft or Roose velt to the preciet primaries soon to be held, and further agreed to abide by the result of these primaries-in other words, to be governed by the wishes of the people honestly expressed in their several precincts throughout the state. This annot be taken away from them and it seems not only vain and futile but absolutely insolent for the Taft men to ask the people to ratify a nomina tion when the convention in making that nomination openly defied the express wishes of the people.

"Thousands of republicans in this state, who do not favor Mr. Taft, have the right to vote the republican state and local ticket, and they have also the right to stay at home on election day and yet retain their membership in the party. The attempt to take away these indisputable rights is not only arbitrary and revolutionary, but if permitted would at once reduce the republican party in North Carolina to the level of the so-called party in ouisiana or Mississippi. I do not in tend to use any harsh language, but committee must be made to understand that they are the servants nd not the masters of the republican oters of the state.'

Since the above statement was givn to The Gazette-News the ng telegram has been received:

Hon. Richmond Pearson, 'Asheville, N. C. "Not at committee meeting. Am posed to Mott resolution. "CHARLES H. COWLES, Wilkesboro, N. C., August 9, 1912.

Obviously, therefore, the press reports were in error, since they stated that Mr. Cowles was present and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

Knock Her Son Senseless and Remove from House Trunk Containing Coin and Valuables.

Special to The Gazette-News.

Durham, Aug. 9.—A robbery of $1700 in cash from Mrs. Hawkins Hicks was reported to the county officers yesterday. According to the reports given the sheriff and his deputies some one entered the home of the old woman, who lives in Hickswest of the city, and took a trunk containing money from one of the rooms early in the morning. The robbers took the trunk into a nearby ield and rifled it of the valuables and the money. Mrs. Hicks is a very old woman and of a miserly nature. She was known to have much money. Her usband, who died many years ago, left a farm near the city which has become very valuable with the growth of the city.

She recently sold off a part of her land, receiving $15,000 for it. Her bank book, which was in the trunk robbed, was found near the trunk, and it showed a balance of about $20,000 in the bank. The robbers did not attempt to bother this. The woman lives with her son James Hicks, in a ramshackle hut, which is very old, and easily entered by robbers. This son reported the robbery to the officers several hours after it occurred. He said he heard graft scandal occurred today, when a noise in the house, and went to Prosecutor Shepherd announced that make an investigation.
