Mrs. Stuart Finally Saved By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Her Story Interesting.

I could not sit still long enough to eat, and could sleep hardly any I was in so much misery with pains in my side and back.

"A year ago last spring my doctor gave me up, and he was surprised to see me this spring and to see my condition. I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the praise wherever I go for I know I would not be here today or have our fine baby boy if I had not taken it."—Mrs. SARAH J. STUART, R.F.D. No. 2, Box 16, Elmo, Mo.

COUNSELORS OUT PLAYED PRESCRIBERS OF PILLS

Fielding of Doctors Was Ragged, Although Battery Was Effective.

The lawyers and doctors of the city played a "professional" game on the Riverside diamond yesterday afternoon for the purpose of establishing the baseball championship for the year and for increasing as much as possible the funds of the Mission hospital. When the dust of battle had cleared away it was found that the lawyers had come out victorious, the score being 10 to 4. It was not such a bad game after all, and the spoils were justly due the counselors, for they outplayed their opponents at almost every point and angle of the game.

The battery for the doctors was composed of Wilson and Hinger, and it was not a bad one, but the support in the field was extremely poor, and when the offerings of the twirler were touched only slightly they generally resulted disastrously. Harkins and Gudgeon went in as the battery for the lawyers, but this pleased the physicians so well that it was soon switched around to Gudgeon and Weaver. After that the pill prescribers had no chance.

The contest was very well attended, and the rooters for both sides were lusty of lung. The rooting, in fact, was one of the most pleasing features of the game—to the fans. Everyone present enjoyed the whole bill.

Mr. W. E. Gunsalus, a farmer living near Fleming, Pa., says he has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for 14 years, and that he has found it to be an excellent remedy, and takes pleasure in recommending it. For sale by all dealers.
