NEW PRIMARIES HELD

Candidates Who Falled to Securi Majorities in South Carolina Make Another Trial.

Columbia, S. C., Sept.10.—Those candidates who failed to secure ma-jories in the recent primary are run-ning against their nearest opponents in many counties in South Carolina radio today. The meeting of the sub-committee of the state democratic executive committee investigating charges of fraud in the recent primary, scheduled for tomorrow has been postponed. The investigation may continue until the reneral election in November un-less evidence of fraud develops soon to warrant throwing out the primary.
