INTERESTING PICTURE! AT PRINCESS THEATER

Every person should make it a special point to see "The Heart of Esmeralda," to be shown at the Princess theater tomorrow. This is a picture made by the Vitagraph company, and one which should appeal to all being made and acted during the stay at Esmeralda Inn near Asheville.

Esmeralda Foster, an attractive girl, is very much impressed with Duncan Miller, a crafty country swain, who makes love to Esmeralda because of her father's wealth. Ben Holt, who has been adopted by the Fosters, is deeply and sincerely in love with Esmeralda, and his intentions are very much encouraged by Esmeralda's father, who esteems Ben very highly. In fact, he has gone so far as to say that he hopes he will marry his daughter. Miss Louise Lennox, a novelist, spending the summer in that section of the country, finds the young people a very interesting study. She readily recognizes Duncan's mercenary desire and Ben's sterling qualities. She becomes better acquainted with them through a little accident to her manuscript. Esmeralda really loves Ben, but she is infatuated by Duncan. She consents to marry the latter, and induces Ben to tell her father that he cannot marry her because he does not love her. When Ben tells Mr. Foster, he is furious, and drives him from the house. Miss Lennox meets Ben making his way across the field with his hat thrown over his shoulder. She withers the latter, and induces Ben to do with him. Duncan flees, thoroughly ashamed of himself. Ben, who has been invited to keep himself within reach, is called by Miss Lennox. Esmeralda, when asked if she loves Ben, says she has always loved him, but did not know it. Miss Lennox takes him to the station and leaves the two young sweethearts to their happiness.

Much Rioting in Superior, Wis., but at Duluth no Violence is Attempted.

WARN MISS BROOKS

Postal Authorities Seek Writers of Letters Which Threaten West Hammond "Joan of Arc."

Chicago, Sept. 20.—The United States postal authorities have been brought into the anti-vice crusade of Monday, Ill., because of letters threatening the "Joan of Arc" of that village unless she stopped her crusade. The letters were turned over to the postal authorities. Miss Brooks said the letters did not frighten her. On the contrary, she said she intended to pursue the fight against vice harder than ever. The arrest of the letter-writers is expected soon.

INDIAN OFFICE CAUSES ARREST OF MRS. GRAY

Concealing Public Records, Allegation—A Trumped up Charge, She Says.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 20.—Mrs. Helen Pierce Gray of St. Paul, Minn., who is an investigator of Crow Indian affairs for the Graham committee of the house, was the center of stormy scenes at the last session of congress, was arrested here yesterday upon complaint of the Indian office and charged with concealing public records. She was released upon $500 cash bail furnished by senator Clapp of Minnesota and her trial before a United States commissioner was set for Thursday.

Specifically, Mrs. Gray was charged with concealing the allotment roll of the Crow tribe, covering Indian lands in Montana. Upon her arraignment she declared she had taken the roll from the Indian office with the consent of former Indian Commissioner Robert G. Valentine and Judge M. C. Burch, an attorney of the attorney-general's office attached to the United States marshal's office in Detroit, and turned them over to the department of justice that it might be saved from destruction and used as evidence in a proposed investigation before the senate committee on Indian affairs. Such an investigation was provided at the last session in a resolution by Senator Townsend, of Michigan. Mrs. Gray declared her action had the approval of Attorney-General Wickersham and that her arrest had been brought about by her enemies in the attorney-general's absence from the city. Destruction of Crow records, she said, involved lands valued at probably $100,000,000.

At the department of justice very little was known of the affair. Most of the officials there are out of town. At the interior department, however, it was said Mrs. Gray's arrest had been asked by Assistant Secretary Adams upon the report of the Indian office, which had three times declined to return the Crow records. Acting Commissioner Abbott pronounced Mrs. Gray's charge that the papers were about to be destroyed "foolish."

Mrs. Gray last winter had a desk in the Indian office as a representative of the Graham committee, investigating Crow affairs. At one time, she claimed that she was being paid by the democratic national committee. In a heated passage upon the floor of the house between Republican Leader Mann and Chairman Graham, Mr. Mann declared her employment by the committee was with the purpose of blackening the characters of men in public life. The incident passed over Mrs. Gray's head. The incident passed over Mrs. Gray's head. The incident passed over Mrs. Gray's head.

Since she began investigating Indian affairs eight years ago, at the request of former President Roosevelt, Mrs. Gray declares, she has been arrested eight times by persons who wish to impede her work. Mrs. Gray when arrested was at first inclined to go to the district jail rather than give a bond. Her bail was fixed at $1000, but later reduced to $500 and furnished by Senator Clapp.

HOLDS BRIDE'S CHILD DURING MARRIAGE RITES
Greensboro Couple Wed—Familiar of Dr. W. L. Grissom—Boosters Welcomed.

Gazette-News Bureau, Daily News Building, Greensboro, Sept. 20.

A novel wedding scene was witnessed in the office of the register of deeds here yesterday when Filo L. Jennings of Wilkes county and Mrs. Lucy Hill of Guilford plighted their troth, the bridegroom having in his care the youngest child of the bride during the ceremony. The ceremony was performed by Magistrate J. B. Minor while the marriage license gave the groom's age as 20 and the bride 30.

The funeral services over the remains of Dr. W. L. Grissom, whose death occurred here yesterday following a brief illness of heart affection, was conducted from the late home this afternoon. Dr. Grissom was one of Greensboro's most prominent citizens and business men, being engaged in the drug business at the time of his death. He was well known over North Carolina, having spent a number of years in active pastoral work and at the time of his death

MEN'S FALL SUITS CLEANED

It's about time gentlemen are getting out their fall suits and overcoats to be cleaned and pressed. We first take out every particle of dust, then thoroughly wash the suit in the finest grade of benzene, then dry it, then press it on a modern steam press, forcing dry steam through the fabric, raising the nap and making the goods look soft and woolly like new. Suit is returned absolutely odorless and in large paper bag on hanger.

was a member of the Western North Carolina Methodist conference. Dr. Grissom at one time was one of the publishers of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, disposing of his interest to the late Dr. L. W. Crawford. He was also author of the first volume of the history of Methodism in North Carolina. Surviving are a widow and three children: Mrs. Aleck Smith of Richmond, Hyatt Grissom and Miss Annie Lee Grissom of Greensboro.

The "Richmond Boosters" were extended a hearty welcome here yesterday by the "Greensboro Boosters," and during their brief stay were made at home at the Elks club and the Merchants and Manufacturers club, the members of which were prominent in the "receiving line." The Richmond folk were met at the train by 300 to 400 citizens with automobiles and were given the glad hand. The action of the "Greensboro Boosters" was especially noticeable in view of the fact that recently the Retail Merchants association of this place had, by formal resolution, refused to extend to the Richmond Boosters a welcome to the city.
