Attorneys Tell of Severe Denunciation of Pritchard and Boyd by Revenue Commissioner.

RULINGS IN WILLIAMS CASE THE OCCASION

Cabell Said to Threaten Impeachment Attempt—Countercharges Will Be Made by Defense.

Sanette-News Bureau, Daily News Building, Greensboro, Sept. 24.

Alleged denunciation and threats of impeachment of two federal judges of North Carolina have been accredited to United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue Royal E. Cabell of Washington, D. C., by attorneys in this city who represent N. Glenn Williams of Wilmington, N. C.

The "rulings which called for the alleged criticism were made when the government threatened to sell 25,000 gallons of whiskey belonging to N. Glenn Williams, that were stored in a warehouse at Williams.

Now a supplementary complaint has been made before Judge James E. Boyd by the government through the district attorney, A. E. Holton, this having been done Saturday.

The supplementary answer will be filed today, and it is stated the answer will contain allegations as interesting as the statements said to have been made by the commissioner of internal revenue.

WILSON WELCOMED IN PENNSYLVANIA

Big Crowds Everywhere Turn Out to Hear Democratic Nominee.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 24.—Through rainy Pennsylvania Governor Woodrow Wilson rode yesterday, campaigning as he went and addressing thousands of people who crowded the wayside stations to see him.

From the moment the democratic candidate crossed the state line at Phillipsburg, N. J., and stopped at Easton, Delaware Water Gap, Portland and Stroudsburg there were umbrella-covered crowds to greet him.

It was getting along toward dusk when the governor reached Stroudsburg, and as he leaned from the rail of the observation platform the brakeman removed a rear light.

"They know we don't need any artificial light," said the candidate amid laughter, "and that there is no danger on the part of the democratic candidate of a rear-end collision, because nobody is in the same running class with it so that we are not afraid of any other train catching up with us."

Col. Roosevelt found a great crowd awaiting him and he left his car and entered the town square.

He appealed to democrats of the south to stand with the progressives, which he said was no sectional party but appealed equally to all sections of the country.
