"Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway."

"Something to appeal to all classes of theatergoers" might well be the appellation applied to George M. Cohan's production of "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway," to be seen at the Auditorium on both tonight and tomorrow night. First of all, it is a serious drama quite independent of anything else. It has an interesting, well worked out plot, it is a comedy of no mean merit, and last, but not least, it boasts several song hits that are as popular today as when first sung. The performance to be seen here is under the direction of Lattimore and Leigh, with Bert Leigh in the star role of K'd Burns. Tickets are from 50 cents to $1.50. Prices are selling at Whitlock's for both performances.

"Introduce Me,"
The following criticism of "Introduce Me," which comes to the Auditorium on next Thursday, October 10, was clipped from the Charlotte Evening Chronicle:
"Introduce Me," as presented at the Academy of Music yesterday, matinee and evening, is an exceptionally clever little comedy, brimming over with well constructed situations and bright lines. Although a laugher provoker, it is farthest in the world removed from the boisterous, its humor depending upon the clear-cut merit in the lines and situations.
"Miss Della Clarke, who carried the leading feminine role, is also the actress. Her acting is well known in American stage circles, her years with Charles Frohman being a sufficient guarantee of her talent. She has lost none of her grace and vivacity by reason of the care of authorship and carried her part with immense charm.
"The cast supporting Miss Clark was an excellent one, great care having evidently been exercised in the whole giving the impression of a remarkably well balanced aggregation."
Tickets are now selling at Whitlock's. Prices are from 50 cents to $1.50.

BOB BOONE CONVICTED OF RETAILING WHISKEY

He Appealed Case—Several Defendants in Court This Morning.

Bob Boone was convicted in Police court this morning of retailing liquor to Robert Bryant and was sentenced to serve a term of 10 months on the county road. He appealed and his bond for appearance at the October term of Superior court was fixed at $400.
Probable cause was found against Tom Jones, colored, in each of three counts charging him with larceny and he was held to the October term of Superior court in bonds of $200 for each case. He was charged with stealing some clothing from three negro men, who were occupying the same sleeping quarters with him in a railroad construction car. It was alleged that he packed the clothes in a sack case on a freight train. He was brought back from Old Fort by an employee of the Southern Railway company.
Roxie Cook was found guilty of conducting a disorderly house, and (Miss) Bird, Willie Mills, Ruby Ellis, Annie Pool, Ben Morris and Otis Jones were found guilty of aiding and abetting in running the place. The women were let off on the payment of the costs, except in the case of Annie Pool, in which judgment was reserved. The men were fined $10 and the costs, each.

Morris was also found guilty of an assault on F. F. McBeth and was fined $20 and the costs, from which judgment he appealed and bond was fixed at $100. Jones was found not guilty on a similar charge. McBeth was found not guilty on a charge of a counter-assault on Morris but was fined $20 and the costs for carrying a concealed weapon.
Will Rosebud was found guilty of disorderly conduct by the use of profane and vulgar language and was fined $1 and the costs.

The following were fined for being drunk in the city: George Guice, $5 and costs; Vance Mills, $8 and costs; Robert Bryant, costs.

FOUR BOTTLES OF LIQUOR EXPRESS ROBBERS LOOT

Jamestown Office Rifled—New Dormitory of State Normal Not Finished.

The express office at Jamestown, located between Greensboro and High Point, was broken into Sunday night and while the place was ransacked, waybills, tickets, etc., being scattered all over the place, the only things known to have been stolen were four bottles of liquor and some clothing. The railway ticket office is located in the same building with the express office and no one stays there during the evening hours. In the office was a valise containing a suit of clothes. The thief opened this valise, took out the clothing and donning the contents of the valise, left his castaway clothes in the place. Entrance to the office was made by forcing one of the doors with a crowbar. It is believed that some tramp passing that way Sunday night is responsible for the robbery.
New Dormitory Not Completed.
It was stated today that the new dormitory at the State Normal college here, which the senior class will occupy this school year, will not be ready for occupancy for perhaps 10 days or two weeks. The contractor is rushing the work on the building in an effort to have it completed at the very earliest possible moment.
The city commissioner of Greensboro yesterday made formal request of the board of commissioners that Greensboro be allowed to participate in the division of the budget of bond money which was voted some time since for road work in this county. The city wants the equivalent of four miles of Macadam, which is approximately $14,000 for road or street work inside of Greensboro. The county commissioners received the formal request and apparently look with favor upon it. They have taken the matter under advisement and will probably make a decision within the next few days.

REPLIES TO KITCHIN

Senator Simmons Denies Attending That Banquet and Quotes Aycock's Words of Praise.
Special to The Gazette-News.
Raleigh, Oct. 7.—Senator Simmons spent today in the city. While here he spoke of Congressman Claude Kitchin at Greensboro and Governor Kitchin at Goldsboro were called to his attention.
He said that while he had heretofore answered most of the things said in those speeches there were some new things that referred to him that he had not answered which he wished to take notice of.
Referring to Claude Kitchin's statement that he had attended a big state banquet given by the Lumber association at Washington, the senator said he had heard of the banquet, but did not attend it. He had, however, heard, he said, but he did not know whether it was true that some of his colleagues in congress from North Carolina did attend it. He said that long before the banquet was given his position on lumber was well known both in Washington and in North Carolina.
Referring to the statement made by both the Messrs. Kitchin as to Governor Aycock's attitude toward him, the senator said emphatically that up to the time of Governor Aycock's announcement he was giving him no special and active support. That Governor Aycock had often before that expressed his approval of the votes for which he was criticised, including lumber, Lorimer and reciprocity and that Col. F. M. Pearson, Governor Aycock's private secretary and probably his closest personal friend, he was advised, had just published a statement to the effect that Governor Aycock had prior to his announcement of his candidacy and on other occasions, assured him that he approved of his record, and would have voted on the questions about which he is criticised, had he been in the senate just as he did.
