PAUL J. RAINEY AND HIS FAMOUS PACK OF MISSISSIPPI BEAR HOUNDS, FROM AFRICAN HUNT PICTURES, AUDITORIUM, ALL THIS WEEK.

***** ALL THIS WEEK, MATINEE DAILY. *****

Paul J. Rainey's African Hunt.
The Paul J. Rainey African Hunt motion pictures are being presented by four well-equipped traveling companies, besides the permanent New York exhibition which is now beginning its seventh month on Broadway. The production which is now on exhibition at the Auditorium came direct from the Belasco Theater, Washington, being the first to invade the South, the land from which the millionaire sportsman secured his famous pack of hounds and lighting dogs which vindicated so nobly his confidence in them when he staked their stamina and grit against the ferocious denizens of the African jungles. These Mississippi bear hounds are shown in the films to bring the cheetah and lion to bay, and hold them until the arrival of the hunters. This company will continue Southward, playing three days or a week in every large town, until reaching New Orleans at Christmas time it will begin its Northward climb, to begin an all-summer engagement in Chicago.

Max Spigal's latest musical comedy hit to be seen here during the season, is a superior organization including Mul Clark, Lovey Maile Greene, Ben Turbett, James Hunter, Joe Froed, Leo Rosenthal and others backed up by a wonderful array of beautiful show girls.

Two companies are now playing Rupert Hughes' famous travel farce, "Excuse Me." One of them began its season at White Plains, N. Y., two weeks ago; the other, of which Willis Sweatnam is a member (playing his original role of the Pullman porter) started upon its travels at Middletown, N. Y., last Monday night. As was to have been expected, Sweatnam and his associates were greeted by an audience which crowded the Middletown theater to its doors.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan of Wilson, Pa., who says: "I know from experience that Chamberlin's Cough Remedy is for superior to any other. For cough there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all dealers.

"I've tried to propose to Mabel a dozen times and hanged if I can do it. I've slumped every time." "And she you are courting the wrong girl."—Boston Transcript.

Sick headache is caused by a disordered stomach. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and correct that and the headaches will disappear. For sale by all dealers.

Send for this art masterpiece today and see what Gov. Wilson really looks like.
