BULGARS PRESSING ON ADRIANOPLE

Severe Fighting in That Vicinity-Allies Generally Succesful, the Dispatches Indicate.

London, Oct. 24.-While the Balkan nations and Turkey are all generous with official statenents as to the progress of the war in other parts of European Turkey they maintain complete silence regarding the great bat-tle which has been raging for the last two days between Adrianople and Kirk Kilesseh, for news of which all the world has been waiting. British army officers lean to the belief that Turks have been holding lan army, operating near Kuhmanova has been defeated by the Turks defending that town. The Servians suffered enormous losses according to official dispatches from the Turkish commander.

London, Oct. 24.-The news from the seat of war last night told of the continued success of the allies. The Servians have captured Novipazar and are virtual masters of Kumanova. The victories, however, have been purchased at heavy secrifices.

The situation in Thrace is ing clearer. A great battle is being fought over a wide semi-circular from before Adrianople, upon which town Bulgarians gradually are closing On the east they have occupied Vasilika and Tirnovo and are continuing their advance southward.

On the west, the Bulgarians, according to official Sofia accounts have seized the Arda river, close to Adrianwhich is being vigorously born barded. Already the two outer forts strue as a reflection of you or Judge have fallen. Some positions to the Boyd." north of Adrianople are also said to been taken after fighting.

night's It is significant that last Constantinople dispatches had a patches from that capital. They admit that a heavy struggle is in progress in which both sides are showing the utmost bravery. Information concerning the Monte negrin progress is meagre, but the Turkish authorities claim that Scutar has been reinforced and is safe. Soloniki dispatch asserts that the Ma lissori tribes are offended because the Montenegrin commanders are pro-claiming the sovereignty of King Nicholas give a guarantee that he evacuate Albanian territory and se-cure autonomy for Albania. So far they have received no sutisfactory reply and It is reported that they thereby checked.

EMPHATIC DENIAL MADE BY CABELL

Impeaching Judge Pritchard or Judge Boyd.

Sometime ago an article appeared in dispatch to this paper in which it was said, among other things, that Royal E. Cabell, commissioner of internal revenue, had said that he intended to have impeachment proceedings instituted against Judge Pritchard and Judge Boyd on account of a temporary injunction that had been issued by Judge Pritchard, restraining the col-lection of taxes, and which was made cturnable before Judge Boyd, before whom the case is now pending. Judge Pritchard, immediately wrote Mr. Ca-bell in regard to the matter, but when his letter reached Washington Mr. Ca-bell was absent on a tour of inspection and he did not return until a few days ceipt of a letter from Mr. Cabell in which, among other things, he says:

"I most emphatically have made no statement that would warrant any such statement as appears in this aror others of similar import that have been sent to me. NATURE OF TROUBLE

IS NOT DISCLOSED

She Divorced German Army Officer in 1908 and Soon Afterwood Married the Author.

New York, Oct. 24 .- It is learned from an authoritative source that the report of divorce proceedings between Fritzi Scheff, the comic opera singer, and her husband, John Fox, jr., the author, is founded in fact, notwithstanding the refusal of Miss Scheff to discuss the matter,

Friends of the couple insist that the proceedings have reached the stage where a filing of official papers is only matter of a short time.

Rector K. Fox, a broker at 25 Broad street, at whose home in Mt. Kisco his brother and Miss Scheff were married on December 13, 1908, declined to discuss the report yesterday, taking the position that any information on the subject should come from the parties directly interested.

Samuel H. Evins, who has had charge of legal matters in the past both for Mr. Fox and Miss Scheff, also declined to talk about the report. Mes Scheff, whose father was a president and whose mother was a prime donna at the Imperial opera house in Vienna, was born in that city on August 30, 1878, and when 18 years made her first appearance grand opera at Frankfort, Germany, Later she sang in Munich, and on November 9, 1990, made her debut in America, singing "Massita" in "La Boheme" in Los Angeles in a cast velt was still in seclusion today, but that included Meiba, Cremoneni, Giliwas gaining strength so rapidly that bert and Campanari. Maurice Grau recognized her talent and she appeared the following month at the Metropolitan opera house as Marceilina in "Fidelio," She sang there for three years, appearing in a condition after a long night's sleep. Soon after breakfast the colonel, in a variety of roles. in 1903 she entered the comic opera-field and there atttained her greatest long lounging robe, walked about the house more freely than at any time success. She sang in "Fatinitza, "Girofle-Girofla" and "Poccaccio," bu with her assumption of the leading role in "Mile. Modiste" she reached the highest point in public regard. The "Prima Donna" and "The Duchess" followed. Both of these productions she left suddenly, declaring on each ASHEVILLE SANITATION occasion that she was through with made that she is to appear in a new mic opera soon

The singer was formerly the wife of Freidrich Wilhelm Gustav Carl von lardeleben, who resigned a lieutenancy in the German army to marry her. She obtained a final decree of divorce from him on August 22, 1908, and three days later a report was printed that she was engaged to John Fox, ir.
