HAYWOOD'S APPLE CROP.

We gather from an interview an official of the Haywood Fruit exchange gives the Waynesville Courier that only about 25,000 bushels of that county's great apple crop will be marketed under such conditions as to make it profitable.

"This is following the western method of packing and experienced men were brought in the county to put up this fruit. It is interesting to note that a great portion of the boxes packed in the west is done by girls and we regret to say that not one girl or boy in Haywood county showed sufficient interest in the prize offered this year by the exchange to compete.

"It is thought this offer will be renewed another year and if it is there should be a large number of entries. There is no reason why Haywood boys and girls should not learn to pack apples as well as their western cousins and it is a highly profitable trade to learn."

Haywood will profit more from its apple crop this season than ever before, but thousands of dollars have been lost by carelessness and lack of intelligent self interest.

HOMER LEA.

If you like to draw a moral, here is the life of Homer Lea, adventurer. He was a hunchback of stunted growth, five feet and three inches high; born to physical weakness and suffering.

His was a career of accomplishment from the start. He was graduated from Stanford university, California, and by the time of manhood he had matured the adventurous plan of overthrowing the oldest and most populous monarchy—the ancient dynasty of China—and establishing a republic, he to be the martial figure of leadership. Was he mad?

Perhaps his condition might be properly so defined. But he went to China in 1899, and in 1901 returned to his native State, California, bearing a general's commission from the Chinese reform association. He went back to China to take part in the revolution and was active in that triumphant struggle.

Before his death, which occurred the other day at the age of 36, he wrote two books, "The Valor of Ignorance," and "The Day of the Saxon," warnings to America and Great Britain of dangers of unpreparedness for war.

Often bodily limitations make for a persistence of spirit. Often physical weakness is coincident with abnormal nervous energy. We may think of Homer Lea as one triumphing over great handicaps in following a career of high adventure which he had mapped for himself, but it is perhaps true that the very imperfections of his bodily structure gave him a spiritual fire, a persistency and desire, which served his purpose better than normally adjusted faculties would have done.

CHAIRMAN M'COMBS EARLY SEES VICTORY

New York, Nov. 5.—Chairman McCombs of the democratic national committee announced shortly after 9 o'clock that victory for Governor Wilson was now complete. He said that Governor Wilson had carried Massachusetts, Maine, Connecticut, New York, Maryland, New Jersey, and all of the south.

WOODROW WILSON ELECTED PRESIDENT

(Continued from page 1) 14,000 and Roosevelt by 11,900. Philadelphia, Nov. 5.—Scattering returns from election districts in Philadelphia usually carried by republican organization leaders show that Taft is leading by about two to one over the combined vote of Wilson and Roosevelt. Up to 9 p. m. no returns had been received from the reform wards.

In the state outside of Philadelphia the first returns showed Wilson leading strongly. Philadelphia, Nov. 5.—The first election district heard from in Philadelphia gave Taft 116; Wilson 37; Roosevelt 49. The same district in 1908 gave Taft 188; Bryan 39. Eleven election districts in Philadelphia out of 1226 give Taft 1011; Wilson 110; Roosevelt 180. The districts are republican strongholds.

One hundred and eight precincts out of 1126 in this city gave Taft 1193; Wilson 2946; Roosevelt 3787.

MAINE DEMOCRATIC RETURNS FROM THREE-FIFTHS OF STATE INDICATE WILSON AND MARSHALL HAVE ELECTORAL VOTE.

Portland, Me., Nov. 5.—Success of the democratic electoral ticket in Maine, which will give Wilson and Marshall six votes in the electoral college, was indicated by returns at 10 p. m. from three-fourths of the state. CONNECTICUT GOES TO WILSON COLUMN

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 5.—With more than half the vote counted at 10 p. m. indications are that Connecticut has given Wilson and Marshall seven votes in the electoral college. CLAIM MINNESOTA FOR WOODROW WILSON

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 5.—It seemed at 11:30 p. m. as if Wilson had won in Minnesota. Returns from 145 precincts out of 2963 gave Taft 6330; Wilson 9178; Roosevelt 3188. Governor Eberhardt, republican candidate for re-election, at 11 p. m. was leading the state ticket.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 5.—At 8 o'clock on Monday before the closing of the polls in Minnesota, Fred B. Lynch, national committeeman from Minnesota, claimed the state for Wilson by 25,000, the claim being based on reports from poll watchers in today's election. Republican and progressive leaders advance no claim.

MARYLAND CONCEDED TO DEM. NOMINEE

Baltimore, Nov. 5.—The News (Pro.) conceded Maryland to Wilson by a plurality of about 14,000, which it says, the meager returns from the state indicate will be largely increased by the vote in the counties. Roosevelt was running a good second.

WILSON AND MARSHALL SWEEP OKLAHOMA

Oklahoma City, Nov. 5.—Wilson-Marshall electors carried Oklahoma today by a majority estimated at 30,000. Senator Robert L. Owen defeated his republican opponent, Judge J. B. Dickerson, by a large majority. No progressive electors were placed on the ballot.
