BULLETIN SERVICE DREW MULTITUDE

The Gazette-News Stereopticon Flashes Witnessed by 5000 Men and Women.

The people of Asheville manifested decided interest in the returns. The largest crowd, perhaps, that ever assembled before a bulletin sheet, on election night, crowded about The Gazette-News office shortly after dark, and most of the people remained until well into the night. The service given by this paper, with the assistance of W. A. Ward, in charge of the stereopticon, and E. E. Masthead, of the Remington Typewriter company, could scarcely have been improved upon. At 8:45 The Gazette-News gave the Associated Press "flash" giving the intelligence that Frank Munsey's paper, the Washington Times, had conceded the election of Woodrow Wilson by a "tremendous sweep," and the crowd appeared to accept this as more or less final.

At 9 o'clock it was estimated that there were five thousand people on Pack square, intently watching this paper's bulletin sheet, and listening to the megaphone, which was handled admirably by Donald Elias and James Howell.

ANOTHER BLAZE IN CREASMAN STABLE

The building in which J. H. Creasman had his livery stable, which was almost totally destroyed by fire over a week ago, caught fire again about 11 o'clock last night and the firemen had hard work to extinguish the blaze. A fine jack which Mr. Creasman had in the stable was killed. It is not known how the blaze started.

When the fire alarm rang, many of the people on the square thought it was in celebration of the democratic victory.

INCREASE IN OCTOBER IN NUMBER OF ARREST

Over October of Last Year—Sergeant Cendor's Tabulation of Comparison.

Sergeant F. L. Cendor has compiled the report of the police department for October in which a comparison is made with October, 1911. An increase is shown in the number of arrests made from 223 to 275. Five more than last year during the same month have been found not guilty and 19 more have taken appeal this year. Three more were bound to court this October and the comparisons of road and jail sentences were slightly increased. The same number as in October of last year were sent to the county jail but the aggregate sentences fell from eight years and 10 months to eight years and two months.

The tabulated report of arrests for all the causes heard in the Police court show, as above mentioned, an increase of 52 over October of last year and some of these increases seem to be contradictory. For instance there was decrease of 7 in the number of defendants charged with retailing, while the number of "drunks" increased from 29 to 55, a total of 27. There was a decrease by one of "drunk and disorderly" cases but an increase of five among those charged with disorderly conduct. There were two defendants charged with cruelty to animals, one with abandonment, six in conducting a disorderly house, one attempting to commit murder, two for fornication and adultery, while during the October of 1911 there was not a single defendant so charged. The carriers of concealed weapons increased from one to six.

WITNESSES DENY ETOR URGED THEM TO FIGHT

Lawrence Strikers Declare Accused Leader Did Not Incite Violence.

By Associated Press.
Salem, Mass., Nov. 5.—Having waived their rights to go to the polls and vote, jurors in the trial of Joseph J. Etor, Arturo Giovannitti and Joseph Caruso for the murder of Anna Lopez in the Lawrence strike were in the courtroom as usual today.

Attorneys for the defendants had a group of children, mill workers and members of the Lawrence strike committee on hand to testify.

Fred Morgan, secretary of the English branch of the Industrial Workers of the World at Lawrence, the first witness of the day, declared that he heard Etor say in a speech to the strikers:

"When you go on the streets and to the picket lines, put your hands in your pockets and sing."

Pearl Shilberg, a mill worker, 14 years old, testified that she was one of the strikers and "a regular picket."

"I never heard Mr. Etor tell the strikers to fight," she said. "He always said, 'You can't fight bayonets with your fists.'"

James Falvey, another striking mill worker told the jury of several public speeches he had heard Etor make.

"He always told us to fold our arms," said Falvey, "and not to give the police and soldiers a chance."

CITY NEWS

The Dreamland theater will announce tonight the returns of the election, at intervals between the parts of the program.

The fire department was called to the home of H. F. Adhikes on Vernon Hill this morning about 9 o'clock. There was a blaze in the roof of his house which was put out with the chemical extinguisher.

In the office of the clerk of Superior court, Effie Cox Johnson has instituted suit for divorce from S. O. Johnson. The complaint was filed yesterday afternoon and the divorce is asked on statutory grounds.

W. C. Cole left today for Augusta, having already shipped his race horses to that place for the purpose of entering them in the fair races there. He had just returned from Spartanburg, where his mare, Appalachian Belle, took first money in the third race in the fair. Mr. Cole races his horses on the southern circuits and at southern fairs and generally gets some good purses.

The musical program which has been arranged for the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon men's meeting next Sunday, when Dr. W. C. Type of High Point will be the speaker, will be one of the best of the year. The Central Methodist church quartet, composed of Mrs. J. M. Burns, Mrs. E. J. Clemenger, J. G. Stillemeier and Judge Thomas A. Jones, will sing several selections and the boys' orchestra will furnish the instrumental music.

Tonight at 7 o'clock a supper will be served in the Y. M. C. A. hall adjoining the Highland hotel and immediately following this the weekly Bible class will be conducted until 8 o'clock. A big crowd is expected as a big supper is to be served the men of that section of the city. Zeb E. Curtis will be the teacher and Miss Lucile Dinkins will be in charge of the music. The supper will consist of pork chops, French fried potatoes, stewed corn, celery, apple float and coffee.

Much excitement was caused yesterday afternoon when those in the vicinity of the Windsor hotel saw a man jump from a rear window of the third story of the building. Hurrying to him they found that it was Gus Young, who until a short time ago was engaged in the meat business here. Dr. E. R. Morris arrived immediately and on making examination found that no bones were broken and that there were no external evidences of serious injury. It is thought that he will recover. Mr. Young is well known in the city. It is supposed that he made the leap with the intention of ending his life, as it is said that he has lately been despondent.

KITCHEN CARRIES FIFTH BY SCANT MAJORITY

GAZETTE-NEWS BUREAU, DAILY NEWS BUILDING, Greensboro, Nov. 5.

Eight of 11 counties in the Fifth district, all but Durham, Forsyth and Orange give Simmons 497. Kitchen 582 and Clark 1080. Stedman's majority over Curry will be about 5000.

It is now considered that Kitchen will receive less than 1000 majority in the Fifth, which had been placed in his column as good for 7000.

All but one precinct in Guilford give Simmons 1753; Kitchen 1738; Clark 246. Greensboro gave Simmons a majority over both candidates. Craig and the state ticket are running well. A Randolph report is that Simmons has 1600 majority over Clark and Kitchen. Alamance was also hit by the Simmons landslide. Incomplete and unofficial returns indicate the Kitchen majority in the fifth district will be scant.

VERY MUCH ALIVE

Oscar Rogers' Friends Say Report of His Death Was Greatly Exaggerated.

"Oscar Rogers is very much alive," his friends say, although the report of his death was published in The Gazette-News yesterday.
