Asheville, N. C., November 1st, 1912.

Mr. Wallace B. Davis,
Cashier Central Bank and Trust Co.,
Asheville, N. C.

Dear Sir:

Please find enclosed herein a deed for Prize lot to be given to the person who is successful in drawing lot to be given away as a prize at the sale of Residence Lots in Jackson Park November 12, 1912.

The conditions prescribed for this drawing will be published in both city papers, but for your information they are briefly as follows:

To participate in this drawing the person must be on the ground when the tickets are drawn from the box, the drawing will be conducted by a committee of three of Asheville's most prominent business men and their decision in writing to you will be sufficient warrant for you to write the name of the lucky or successful person in this deed and deliver the same to her or him.

Yours truly,
ROBERT R. REYNOLDS.

Buncombe County,
North Carolina,

This is to certify that Robert R. Reynolds, owner and promoter of Jackson Park Addition to Asheville has this day placed with me a deed duly executed for PRIZE LOT in Jackson Park, which lot is to be given away November 12, 1912, at the Special Auction sale of Jackson Park lots.

I am instructed to fill in the name of the lucky person awarded the lot by the committee who will conduct the drawing and deliver the deed to him or her.

Respectfully,
Wallace B. Davis,
Cashier Central Bank and Trust Company.

In order to participate in the drawing it will be positively necessary for the party to be actually present on the grounds the day of the sale, Tuesday, November 12.

INSTRUCTIONS: Fill in the coupon below, mail it to Mr. Wallace B. Davis, cashier, Central Bank and Trust Co., Asheville, N. C., or place it in the coupon box at the King street entrance on the Mer- rimon avenue car line when you enter the Park on the morning of the sale. One person is entitled to one guess for every coupon of different dates clipped from the Citizen or Gazette-News.

TO THE INVESTOR—TO THE HOMESEAKER—TO THE SPECULATOR.

Within the next 12 months Asheville and vicinity will experience a tremendous rise in real estate values. Twenty years ago Horace Greely said: "Young man, go West," but now the cry everywhere is young man, go South.

Watch Asheville grow—Get in on ground floor while the winter is on and the weather bad. Buy a lot in Jackson Park at auction now and sell it in the spring when the grass is green at a big profit.

The person who is seeking a homestead could certainly not find one more beautiful than in Jackson Park where there are all the modern conveniences and no disadvantages or handicaps.

The man or woman who is seeking a safe investment and a sure profit will do well to attend our sale and get a lot for we believe we can satisfy the desires of all the people from the humblest to the greatest.

Go out, look over the property and make your guess—you have as good a chance to win as the other person.
