BINGHAM WON, 7 TO 6, IS UMPIRE'S DECISION

But Tennessee Military Institute Claimed Game, 8 to 7--Lively Contest.

Since the account of the game between the football teams of the Bingham and Tennessee Military Institute, in which both sides claimed victory, was written as communication has come from Umpire D. M. Williams in which he says that Bingham won on the disputed point as to whether the ball was down before a Tennessee man pushed a Binghamite over his own goal line. The umpire says it was not a safety for two reasons: "First, that the ball is dead when the runner calls it down;" second, that it is dead when its forward progress is stopped." He says that Webster called it down half a dozen times. With much reason the umpire says that the referee conceded that it was not a safety when he ordered the ball back to the Bingham's 13 yard line. The weight of official opinion thus seems to be with Bingham. Both the Binghamites and the Tennessee Military Institute aggregation claimed the victory in the football contest Saturday afternoon, which was one of the prettiest games seen on the local gridiron this season. The score either was 7 to 6 in favor of Bingham, or 8 to 7 in favor of the visitors. The dispute arose when one of the Tennessee men pushed a Bingham cadet carrying the ball over his own goal from about the 26 yard line for a touchdown. The locals contended that the cadet had cried "down," but few of the spectators seem to have heard him. He did not have time to say much and he certainly was not "down"; he was going so fast he could not fall. It was ruled, however, in favor of Bingham at that time, and in a moment the contest was over. Here is what the rules say of the question of "downs." Rule 5, section A: "The referee should blow his whistle, when a player having the ball goes out of bounds, cries 'down,' or is so held that his forward progress is stopped, or when any portion of his person except his hands or feet, touches the ground while he is in the grasp of an opponent."

Both the teams were well matched, and the second half was nearly over before Bingham scored her all. Bingham had a better back field and made gains by end runs, while the visitors had a better line and their best gains were made by bucking. Angier starred for the locals; Long for the visitors. Bingham scored when Webster made a forward pass to Young who made a touchdown, and Peas kicked goal.

In the third period Long bucked Bingham's line for heavy gains and finally fell between the posts. Welch, however, failed to kick a goal, which would have tied the score. The line-ups of the two teams were as follows:

T. M. I.	Position.	Bingham.
Welch	L. E.	Ray
Wells, H.	L. T.	Hinson, M.
Picklesimer	L. G.	Walton, Capt.
Veers	C.	David
Wells, M.	R. G.	Craig
Smith, R.	R. T.	Arts
Rodgers	R. E.	Young
Clarke	Q. B.	Webster
Woodson, Capt.	L. H.	Angier
Long	R. H.	Peas

Umpire, Williams; referee, Hudson; head linesman, Gregg.

To clean fly specks from varnished woodwork of furniture, wipe carefully with a soft cloth wrung from warm skimmed milk and water, equal parts. It not only removes the dirt more easily, but makes the varnish look fresher. When anything is accidentally made too salt, it can be counteracted by adding a tablespoonful of vinegar and a tablespoonful of sugar. To clean plaster ornaments, busts, vases, etc., dip in strong starch water with water. When dry, brush off. A North Dakota man has an 11-foot beard.
