Whiskey will take out every kind of fruit stain. A child's dress will be entirely ruined by the dark berry stain on it; but if whiskey is poured on the discolored places before sending it into wash, it will come out at good as new.
For the destruction of ants, spiders and cockroaches, a strong solution of alum in boiling water, poured over the infested parts, will be found excellent.

TRINITY LOST AT TENNIS.
Carolina Defeated Methodists in Singles—Darkness Ends Match.
Special to the Gazette-News.
Chapel Hill, Nov. 16.—Carolina defeated Trinity in tennis here yesterday. Oates and Chambers, representing Carolina, won from White and Anderson, respectively, in singles. The doubles were not finished on account of darkness, but Carolina was the victor by taking the singles. Oates won his match, 2-5, 6-3, 6-12, and Chambers took two straight sets, 6-4, 5-7. The doubles were played in the afternoon before a large crowd. Carolina took the first two sets, 7-5, 6-3, but Trinity came back and by steady playing, tied the score in sets 6-1, 7-5. The last set was fought bitterly at five all. It became too dark and the match was called. Cold weather and a strong wind prevented good playing.
