Destroys dandruff—Stops falling hair—Cleans and invigorates your scalp—Delightful dressing.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine. It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once. If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this. (Adv.)

METHODIST PROTESTANT CONFERENCE THIS WEEK

Special to The Gazette-News. Burlington, Nov. 20.—The North Carolina annual conference of the Methodist Protestant church will convene in its eighty-seventh session here tomorrow. This conference is the oldest of the denomination and with the exception of that of Maryland, it is the largest numerically. It extends over all of North Carolina and includes small portions of South Carolina and Virginia. That which particularly characterizes the Methodist Protestant church is its representative form of government. The organization and governing power begins with the local church, each qualified member having the privilege to vote on all questions and the right of appeal, and all officers of all branches of the church are elected by the people. In all legislative bodies there is an equal representation of ministers and laymen. In other particulars the Methodist Protestant church differs little from the Methodist Episcopal church (usually known in the south as Northern Methodist), and the Methodist Episcopal church south. The Methodist Protestant church is a branch from the Methodist Episcopal church, a result of a controversy in the mother church over the question of mutual right of ministers and laymen. While the president of the annual conference is elected each year, the constitution of the church provides that no man shall serve more than five successive years. Rev. W. E. Swain, D. D., of Ashboro, N. C., having served the limit, this conference is compelled to find a new man. This necessarily will prove to be an interesting part of conference. Out of the number of available men in question, the ballot of the first day of conference only will determine who will occupy the position another year. The question of providing for the new orphan's home, which is now being built near High Point, will be an important feature of this conference. Thursday night will largely be given to this work. T. A. Hunter of Greensboro, chairman of the finance committee, will have charge of this ser-

ANOTHER MODERN BLOCK GOING UP

Buildings Between Langren and Walnut Street Mean much to Asheville. There are probably very few people in the city who realize that the changes being made in the block of store rooms between the Langren hotel and Walnut street on North Main will make of them one of the handsomest blocks of business houses in the city. There are eight of these store rooms in all, two belonging to Hugh LaFarbe, two belonging to John Nelson, two to Mr. Sitzer of Hickory, two to Mr. Setzer of Hickory. The last named two of these did not have to be cut off in front as the others, but the owner has decided to remove them altogether and erect instead of the one-story structures a three-story concrete and brick building there that will be one of the handsomest in the city. The work is under the supervision of Ed. McDowell and the construction work, begun in the rear, is progressing rapidly. The chances in the other six buildings are being superintended by J. E. Joyner, and considerable progress has already been made. Eight feet has been cut off of each one in the front and 40 feet added to the rear, thus making the buildings 22 feet longer. A second story is being added to each and the front will be finished in pressed brick and stone. Each of the store rooms will have a big plate glass front, and the upper stories will be partitioned into living rooms. The work has been going on for the past five weeks and all the extensions have been made. The contractors think that all the work can be completed before the first of February if weather conditions continue favorable. A new sidewalk will be laid in front and the street widened accordingly, making a straight line of fronts all the way down North Main street. When completed this block will equal anything in the city, it is considered.

OPPOSE "WHITE HOUSE" AS MANSION'S NAME

One Faction of Historical Society Says Designation Was One of Contempt by British. Washington, Nov. 20.—A heated discussion is raging before the Columbia Historical society over the common use of the title "White House" for the residence of the president of the United States. One set has delved into history and declares that the title is one of contempt bestowed on the historic mansion by the victorious British shortly after they partially burned it in the war of 1812; others maintain that the name was given to the building in honor of Mrs. Martha Washington, wife of the first president, whose childhood home on the York river in Virginia bore it. Already the society is divided into camps and an embryonic movement to petition for the changing of the name of the building is bitterly opposed by the "pro-White Houseers," as they have been designated.

HOUSE RAIDED

Dora Rich Heavily Fined—Only One Road Sentence Imposed This Morning. The place of Dora Rich, at the corner of West Chestnut street and Pearson drive, was raided last night about 11 o'clock as a disorderly house and eight inmates of the place were arrested and brought to City hall in the patrol wagon. The owner of the place was given a hearing this morning on the charge of conducting a disorderly house, was found guilty and fined $25 and the costs. The others were tried for aiding in conducting the house: Estelle Moody, Sam Weldon and D. H. Sharp were found not guilty. The others were found guilty and fined as follows: Mrs. James A. Toll, $10 and the costs; Mrs. Ichabod Cocks, $10 and costs; A. E. Wissengen, $20 and costs; G. E. Foster, $20 and costs. Fred Coleman received the only road sentence imposed, his sentence being 30 days imposed for vagrancy. Lon Lytle was one of the defendants on the docket, charged with the larceny of clothes from Sumpter Garrett in two cases. Both were continued until next session. J. W. McAfee was charged with stealing a sum of money from Jim McAfee, and this case was also continued. He was found guilty of being drunk and fined $2 and the costs. Judgment was not entered in the case charging W. B. Barnhardt with an assault on Mack Hellens but he was fined $3 and the costs for being drunk in the city. Brownie Crawford was brought before the court for escaping from the Reform school, but the case was dismissed. Parton Durham was fined $5 and the costs for being disorderly. Tom Mitchell drew a penalty of $4 and the costs for being drunk.

ASSERTS MORSE CODE IS OF IRISH ORIGIN

Receives Show Dot and Dash Alphabet Was in Use in 1150, Declares Archaeologist. Washington, Nov. 20.—The Morse code, by which messages are flashed over the vast network of wires through the civilized world, was not the invention of Samuel F. B. Morse but was of Irish origin, being the old Gaelic dot and dash alphabet in use as early as 1150. This declaration by Prof. James Money before the Archaeological Society of Washington has stirred up a heated controversy. Prof. Money declared that the Gaelic alphabet, or the Ogem system as it is known, was actually the basis of the so-called Morse code. He insisted that his contention was fully carried out by the records of the ancient Irish people as found in stone and wooden carvings. "There were 17 letters in the Gaelic alphabet," he declared, "and they began with one dash, went up to five dashes, then from five dashes down to one dash, and then began the dots, very much the same as the Morse alphabet used in telegraphing."

BOWELS BAD, LIVER TORPID? CASCARETS

If Constipated, Bilious, Head-achy, Stomach Sour, get a 10 cent box of Cascarets.

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important. Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry it out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. A Cascarets tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—do good—never gripe or sicken.

HEAVY WEIGHT ON THE STOMACH

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Remove It and All Other Forms of Indigestion Quickly. That awful feeling as though there were a heavy weight on your stomach—as though you had swallowed an enormous lump of lead—is caused by the failure of your stomach to thoroughly digest your foods. You may have eaten too fast or too much. Your stomach may be over-worked and tired out. It is too weak to produce enough of the digestive juices necessary to take proper care of the

SEVEN REMEDIES FOR HIGH COST OF LIVING

Hutchinson, Kans., Nov. 20.—Seven remedies to overcome the high cost of living were offered here yesterday by Dean Frank W. Blackmar, professor of sociology at the University of Kansas, in an address before the Kansas Agricultural and Industrial Congress. They follow: Let the government check the decline in the purchasing power of gold by taking automatically advantage of the bullion that is behind the dollar, thus leaving the value of the dollar stable and allowing the weight to vary with the rise and fall of a-ounce prices. Induce more people to engage in the production of raw material. Introduce scientific intensive agriculture in order to double production per acre. Revise the tariff by scientific treatment. Prevent as far as possible organizations from advancing prices arbitrarily, placing a maximum limit to prices if necessary. Introduce simpler and less expensive methods of bringing the commodity to the consumer. Educate people in the principles and habits of true economy, thus doing away with extravagance and waste.

CALIFORNIA FRUIT IS BOYCOTTED BY BUYERS

Shortage Throughout the East Likely to Result from Action of New York Association. By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 20.—Three hundred thousand dollars worth of California's fruit, 150 carloads in all, will be allowed to decay on the North river piers where it was landed this week, unless some settlement is reached shortly in a dispute between the New York Fruit Buyers' association and the brokers representing the California shippers. The disagreement is over a recent increase by the brokers in the cartage charges assessed against those who purchased the fruit at the pier auction sales. As soon as the increase was announced the buyers' association declared that it would boycott all shipments until satisfactory adjustment was effected. A shortage of California fruit throughout the east will be the probable result. The 150 carloads, mostly oranges, grapes and pears, were to have been sold at auction yesterday. When the oranges were put on the block not an offer was received. The fruit was valued at about $4 a box. "Will anyone give me five cents a box for these oranges?" asked the auctioneer. Not a bid was received although nearly 400 buyers were present. "Will you give me one cent a box?" asked the auctioneer. Still the fruit went begging and the sale was adjourned.

CRIME SEWER GIVES UP VICTIMS' BODIES

Receding Waters of Canal at Indianapolis Reveals Evidence of at Least Two Murders. Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 20.—Four bodies have been uncovered by the receding waters of the canal, known to the police as "the crime sewer," which is being drained. The first body given up was that of an unidentified baby only a few days old. A brick fastened about its neck with a ribbon was murder proof to Coroner Durham. Blanche Kimpke, a negro, 17 years old, of Peoria, Ill., was another victim. A hole in the forehead seems to indicate she was murdered. William Phebus, another victim, is believed to have fallen into the canal accidentally. Another body of a man showing no marks of violence has not been identified. The canal is 12 miles long and three miles of it pass through a negro settlement. Many bodies are taken from its waters each year.
