"CLASSIC" NAME CHOSEN FOR THE PALACE THEATER

Miss Grace Bradley, Who Suggested the Name, Gets Prize of $10.

To a crowded house at the old Palace theater last night Charles E. Jones, chairman of the committee of judges in the contest for a new name for the theater, announced the name of the young lady whose suggested name was adopted and who would receive the $10 offered as a prize. The young lady is Miss Grace Bradley of 65 Charlotte street and the name suggested by her was "The Classic." This name was unanimously approved by the judges and was very acceptable to the owners, Sparks and Brunsawig brothers. About 200 names were suggested and many of them were good ones. The owners of the theater declare that the name will be the keynote of the programs hereafter produced.

Death of an Infant.

Ernest I. Clancy, Jr., the seven weeks old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Clancy of Chicago, who have spent the summer and fall here, died yesterday afternoon at 58 North Main street, after a short illness. Apparently the baby had been unusually well until 24 hours before his death. Mr. and Mrs. Clancy have the sincere sympathy of many friends whom they have made in Asheville. The interment took place this morning.
