The Woman Makes the Home

She makes it best who, looking after the culinary department, turns her back resolutely upon unhealthful, or even suspicious, food accessories. She is economical; she knows that true economy does not consist in the use of inferior meat, flour, or baking powder. She is an earnest advocate of home made, home baked food, and has proved the truth of the statements of the experts that the best cooking in the world today is done with Royal Baking Powder.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Personal Mention, News of the Societies, Meetings, Etc.

Williams-Goslen Wedding.

Miss Garnette Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Branch Williams, will be united in marriage this evening at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist church with Junius Blake Goslen of Winston-Salem. Rev. Dr. Calvin B. Waller officiating. This social event has called forth much sincere and cordial interest and is being anticipated with great pleasure by friends. The church will be made floridly beautiful by a skilled decorator, and the wedding course scheme of pink and white is being arranged with artistic effect. The chancel will be banked with palms, ferns and masses of greenery, producing a beautiful wedding tableau. On the four posts of an improvised altar will be castled towers which will shed a soft light over the scene. A large attendance at the church is anticipated, as several hundred invitations were sent out and as the bride has many friends who will be interested in this important event in the life of one of Asheville's most charming and popular young women. From 7:30 to 8 o'clock a program of wedding music will be rendered by Miss Eula Wright, Miss Lucy Vance singing "O Perfect Love," just before the entering of the bride party. The ushers will be: Peary Seagle of Raleigh, Clyde Rights and James Peterson of Winston-Salem and Ernest Reid of Asheville. Samuel B. Dillard of Spartanburg was to have been one of the ushers, but instead will be sponsor and give the bride away as her father is unable to do so owing to illness. The best man will be the groom's brother, W. A. Goslen of Winston-Salem. Mrs. Samuel B. Dillard of Spartanburg, a sister of the bride, will be the first matron of honor, and Mrs. Frederick H. Ayers of Richmond, Ind., will be the second matron of honor. The two bridesmaids will be Miss Bonnie Williams and Miss Thelma Williams, sisters of the bride. Wexler Malone will be the small ring bearer, and the flower girls will be Misses Maryvne Bledsoe and Grace Walter. The right hand aisle of the church will be used for the entrance of the bride party, the bride being met at the altar by the groom and his best man who will enter from the pastor's study. The first to enter will be the ushers, who will be followed by the second matron of honor, Mrs. Frederick Harold Ayers, who will wear a pink chrysanthemum dress, en train, over draped in silver net and silver slippers and carry an armful of large white chrysanthemums tied with white tulle and will wear a hair ornament of white uncurled ostrich feathers. Next will come the two bridesmaids, the Misses Williams dressed in pink and blue satin draped in corresponding shades of crepe de chine trimmed in real lace and marabout, and will carry pink and white chrysanthemums. The small ring bearer, Wexler Malone, who will precede the bride, will wear a suit of white satin and will carry the ring in the heart of a large pink chrysanthemum. Next will come the first matron of honor, Mrs. Dillard, who will appear in a creation of blue chiffon over blue chrysanthemum with iridescent pearl and crystal trimmings carrying pink chrysanthemums tied with tulle and wearing in her hair a white akrette. The flower girls will strew pink rose petals in the pathway of the bride, who will enter on the arm of her brother-in-law. The beauty of the bride will be made most appealing by her regal wedding gown of white brocaded chrysanthemum and duchess satin with soft touches of chiffon, rose point lace and pearl garniture. The skirt of the gown is gracefully draped and caught with pearl ornaments and the court train is also held in place by a pearl shower. The bride's tulle veil will be caught with orange blossoms and will fall in graceful folds from a Juliet cap of pearls, and she will carry orchids showered with lilies of the valley. After the ceremony, there will be a buffet supper served for the members of the bride party at Miss Williams' home, the large reception which was planned to follow the ceremony being given up on account of the illness of Mr. Williams. The bride's cake will occupy the center of table beautifully arranged and lighted in candles and the bride party will be given souvenirs of small cupids holding Tiffany wedding rings. Immediately after the supper Mr. and Mrs. Goslen will leave for a wedding trip in the east, and after January 1, will be at home at 402 South Liberty street in Winston-Salem.

Sale of R. C. Seals.

The sale of the Red Cross stamps is progressing wonderfully, the results being far past the most optimistic anticipation of the committee in charge. Mrs. Thomas S. Rollins, assisted by Miss Julia Grace and others sold at the post office yesterday over 4,000 seals in about three hours. Mrs. Rachel Howland reports that one half of stamps that the committee had in hand, amounting to $500, have been sold and the committee will probably have to send to Charlotte for more of these seals. Yesterday Mrs. Dunn McKee, Mrs. Thompson Frazer, Miss Bonnie Heeves and Miss Mary Louise Swope sold the seals from a motor on the streets and realized quite a sum of money. The efforts of the committee in the selling will be concentrated in the morning hours and especially at the postoffice as a market place for the stamps, as both these hours and this place have been found especially favorably.

Music Club Meeting.

The Mendelssohn Music club will meet at the studio of the Asheville School of Musical Art on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. ### Anniversary Exercises.

After the reception to be given on Thursday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Campbell at 8 o'clock, in the annex of the Presbyterian church, there will be anniversary exercises held in the church. These exercises will begin at 9 o'clock, and the following program will be given: Hymn—"Onward, Christian Soldiers." Prayer—Rev. R. P. Smith. Address—"Twenty Years in Ten Minutes."

Col. Robert Bingham. Address—"Pastor and People." S. D. Holt. A Message from the Pastor—Rev. Dr. R. F. Campbell. Closing hymn—"Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

The pastors of all the Asheville churches are invited to attend the reception and exercises.

Russian Blouse Effect in Serge.

Bright tartans are introduced in some of the more girlish costumes and in one of the new suits one in brown and green forms the entire skirt. It is laid in shallow plaits stitched the top to form a yoke. Scarf brown serge is used for the coat and velvet of the same shade for the rolling collar. Buttons covered with the plaids and the plaid sash, lapping over in back in two ends, bring a bright touch to the coat. With a transparent yoke a coat of this sort is often used as part of the dress instead of a separate garment.

The boys of the high school minstrels are very busy this week making the finishing touches on the minstrel show which is to be produced the last of this week and the first of next. All the last year's stars will be seen in this production. These are: J. Y. Jordan, Jr., Carl Bean, Charles Tennant, Oscar Steele, Carlos Goldsmith, William Brownson, James Howell, Horace Robertson, Sidney Petrie, Aaron Samuels, Walter McRary and about 15 others. This show, it is said, promises to eclipse all others that have been put on.

Miss Alma Jordan entertained informally Monday evening with a miscellaneous shower, at her home on Chestnut street, in honor of Miss Ada Baily, whose marriage to Harvey Wilson occurs this evening at 6 o'clock, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baily, in West Asheville. There were 39 guests who presented the bride-to-be with many beautiful and useful gifts.

Miss Edna Creamman, who recently arrived from New York, will be the guest of honor this evening at a dinner to be given by Miss Helen Jones, at her home on College street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Granville Taylor, who were married on Wednesday of last week in Clinton, S. C., are spending part of their honeymoon in Asheville.

Mrs. A. M. Frye, member of the legal firm of Frye & Frye of Bryson city, arrived here yesterday to be the guest of her father, Rev. Dr. J. C. Rowe, at the Central Methodist parsonage on Church street. She will be here several days.

Miss Violet Lemming, who has been the guest of relatives in the city, has returned to her home in Yancey county.

Miss Nellie Redmon has returned to the city from Greensboro and Charlotte, where she has been the guest of friends.

Mrs. A. Whitlock has returned home from New York, where she went to attend the wedding of her daughter, Miss Carrie Whitlock.

Hood Ramsey of this city, who has been seriously ill in Mexico, is now able to be about his work, and Hendrix Ramsey, who went to attend him during his illness, will shortly return to Asheville.

William Wallace, daughter of Mrs. A. Whitlock of this city, has returned to her home in Statesville from New York, where she attended the wedding of her sister, Miss Carrie Whitlock of Asheville, and Louis Tamson of New York which took place at the Hotel Manhattan in New York on Wednesday of last week.

Hermann Gets Tinker for Cincinnati and Will Release Chance Unconditionally.

By Associated Press. New York, Dec. 11.—Magnates of the National league, after winding up their affairs at a final session of the annual meeting this afternoon, will depart for their homes tonight.

After a series of negotiations and counter-negotiations it was pretty well established that the trade of Joe Tinker to Cincinnati will be put through today. The deal will involve not only Mitchell, Phelan and Cordillon but it is said that as soon as Tinker becomes the property of Cincinnati, Herrman will grant the unconditional release of Frank Chance. This, it is said, will lead to Chance's retention by President Farrell for the New York Americans.
