The New Subdivision to West Asheville

2 Minutes from Electric Car Line

The Prettiest Sub-Division That Has Ever Been Offered in West Asheville

-LOVELY RESIDENCE LOTS-7

And I Residence Lot to be Sold AT AUCTION, Sale Begins at 11 O'clock, Rain or Shine HURSDAY, DECEMBER

It's the home place of Mr. Bailey Jones. When the electric line was completed to West Asheville we searched the place over for a good tract for a subdivison to offer the people who wanted West Asheville ville property. We had hundred of them offered to us, but we failed to find just what we thought would make a pretty residence park location, and when we did make a trade for this tract we cried, "Eureka!" Every Lot here is a prize lot and just jot it down in your memory and see if our prediction doesn't come true-here it is, every lot sold at this sale will more than double in value in six months and in twelve months you will be offered a fabulous profit on your investment.

in the merry "Heart Breakers," the Atlanta Georgian last Thursday said: "George Damerel and the rest of The Heart Breakers' were received with much enthusiasm by the audi-ence at the Atlanta last night. Laughter, subdued and hearty, ripples of applause and broad smiles greeted the clever words and acts of the com-pany. No show of the season has aroused a more enthusiastic reception than The Heart Breakers, and though than The Heart Breakers, and though the audience was not so large as usual, it more than made up in ex-pression of appreciation. The musi-cal comedy is very much out of the ordinary. Instead of a big company of girls, and a few 'chorus men,' there is a big company of men and a few girls. The men are not the ordin-ary type of chorus men, but good looking young fellows, with fine voices and nimble feet. The dozen or so girls of the company are pretty and graceful, and make up in quality what they look in quantity."
