VOL. XVII., ~O. 274.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., FRIDAY AFTERNOON, DECEMBER 27, 1912

PRICE THREE CENTS

WILS N LEAVES FOR STAUNTON

Physician Permits Him Leave for Birthday Celebration, but Strongly Advises Caution.

VIRGINIANS PREPARE A ROUSING WELCOME

National Chairman McCombs and Party from New York Accompany President-

Elect.

By Associated Press.

Philadelphia, Dec. 27.-President elect Wilson and party passed through here at 11:50 o'clock en route to Staunton, Va.

"I feel a little bit husky," said the governor, "but otherwise I am all-

The governor said the weakness in The governor said the weakness in his voice probably was due to the relaxation of the last few days rather than to the possibility that this cold had settled in the throat.

The governor's face appeared drawn but he said he probably would be back to normal health in a day

The president-elect had a great many things to tell National Chair-man McCombs, who was on the train. To Mr. McCombs alone it is believed Governor Wilson is confiding his thoughts about making up the cabi-

The national chairman admitted that he knew many things but was not at liberty to tell. He believed, however, he said, that important anuncements would not be made un-

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 27,-President-elect Wilson shook off his attack of grip and started away today to Staunton, Va., his birthplace, where tomorrow he will celebrate his fiftysixth birthday. Mrs. Wilson accomup warmly in an automobile which frok them to the station. A drizzling rain was falling and the stacets were full of slush.

Dr. James Carnochan called early to see if the governor was physically fit to make the trip and pronounced him "about himself again." He said he did not think it particularly risky for Mr. Wilson to go, but advised him to take good care of himself.

The governor's train left here a 10:30 o'clock, due to connect with a fast train which was stopped especially for him at Princeton Junction at National Chairman McCombs and party of Virginians living in New York were aboard the train. Governor Wilson expected to sleep tenight in his own bed in the Presbyterian manse at Staunton, where he was born. He will participate in a celebration given by the townspeople tomorrow and will attend a banquet in his honor tomorrow night. He will leave Staunton at 11:05 Sunday morning and will reach Princeton Sunday night.

staunton in Readiness. Staunton, Va., Dec. 27.—A great arch, hearing the words "Welcome Home" outlined by incandescent bulbs. forms the gateway through which President-elect Wilson will pass when he returns to his birthplace here to-night. Preparations under way for nearly two weeks to make the homecoming a great Virginia occasion were completed early today.

The parade to be reviewed by the president-elect tomorrow will be one of the great features of the festival. Staunton streets have been strung for blocks with incandescent bulbs and blocks with incandescent bulbs and are lamps; flags and bunting were in evidence on business blocks and private houses; and streets have been flushed and scrubbed and swept for the passing of the Wilson parade.

Much interest centers in the frame house that was Wilson's birthplace and his residence during his boyhood. Plans that had been made for an 'old Virginia dinner' have been abandoned. Efforts will be made to protect Governor Wilson as fully as possible from exposure or inclement weather ed. Efforts will be made to protect Governor Wilson as fully as possible from exposure or inclement weather that might endanger his health.

Washington's Welcome.

Washington, Dec. 27.—Elaborate preparations have been made here and in adjacent Virginia for the recotion of President-elect Wilson when he arrives late today on his way to his highliday anniversary. Bonfires will light the train's dying journey from the Virginia end of the bridge spanning the Potomac river to the president elect's birthplace.

Governor Wilson will be accorded an ovation here. Democratic members of congress now in the capital arc to be at the railroad station when the train arrives.

Nearly a coore of police and detectives left today for the Virginia town to lend their aid in caring for the crowds that will be attracted by the affair.

Jewish Chautaugun Society Meets,

By Associated Press.

Memphia, Tenn., Dec. 27.—The establishment of chairs of Jewish history and Hierature in all summer whools, Christian as well as Jewish, and the insugarration of a national correspondence school for Jewish Sabbath school Isachers are iopics which will be completed at the sessions of the National Jewish Chautangua sociaty, which represented in eighteenth annual assembly, in Memphis isangle

* STEAMSHIP LINE IN RECEIVERSHIP

The Phildelphia & Gulf Steamship Company Is Declared Insolvent.

Philadelphia, Dec. 27.-The United States court here today appointed Samuel P. Wetherill receiver for the Philadelphia and Gulf Steamship company, which operates a line of freight steamers between Philadelphia and New Orleans. The company was organized in 1808 with a capitalization of $1,000,000. The petition for the receiver states that the company operated the steamers at a loss and that

KILLS WIFE WHO SPENT MONEY DURING HOLIDAYS

Death After Quarrel Over Christmas Presents.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Dec. 27 .- Mrs. Ella Mon ague was stabbed to death last night by her husband Pasquale Montague, in the presence of their 19 years old son after he had upbraided her for being extravagant. On Christmas day Mrs. Montague presented her hus-band with a small remembrance and he scolded her then for spending all of their money for luxuries. Last night she served a beef steak for din-ner and after resuming the quarrel he drew a stilletto and killed her. He escaped from the house but was arested shortly afterwards.

MONEY 12 PER CENT

the stringency of several weeks ago, when loans touched 20 per cent, is looked for

SENATOR-ELECT HURT PLAYING SANTA CLAUS

By Associated Press.
Garden City, Kan., Dec. 28.—William Thompson, United States senator-elect, narrowly escaped serious injury Christmas night, it was learned today, when his Santa Claus costume caught fire. His hands were burned and most of his hair singed off.

The senator threw himself on the floor, wrapped himself in a rug and so extinguished the flames.

NEVER SAW INAUGURATION.

Events of March 4 Will Be of Unusua Interest to Mrs. Wilson and Daughters.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 27.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and her daughters are looking forward to the inauguration. looking forward to the inauguration on March 4 with more than usual anticipation, for none of them ever has seen a president of the United States inducted into office. The fact developed through a letter from Mrs. Wilson to the Southern League of Women's National Wilson and Marshal organizations replying to a query as to whether the mistress of the White House would receive the members immediately after the inaugural ceremonies. Mrs. Wilson's reply follows:

lows:

"Your letter has just reached me here and I hasten to say that, while I feel quite sure that it can be arranged for the ladies of the Southern league to be received after the inaugural ceremonies. I my of am too ignorant in the maiter to say any more on my own authority, as I have never seen an inauguration and know never seen an inauguration and knownothing of the program."

Toy Balloons Their Wireless.

By Associated Press.
El Paso, Tex., Dec. 27.—Toy balloons are being employed by the rebels in northern Mexico as a system of "wireless" to give information regarding the movement of federal troop trains. Every time a troop train departs from Chihuahua City a toy balloon floats up from the center of the state capital. A relay of the simple signals tells the rebels government troops are coming. nent troops are coming.

Representative McHenry Dead.

M. Associated Press. Hartisburk. Ca., Usp. 27.—Hapre-mative John G. Mellenry of the steamth Pennsylvania district died

GLASS OF WHISKEY BULGARS MAKE

Buried With Dolls That Santa Claus Was to Bring Her -Raleigh Notes.

pecial to The Gazette-News.

Raleigh, Dec. 27.-With the two dolls that Santa Claus was to bring her in her arms, Alpha Lashley, the four years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Lashley, was lowered into her grave. The little child, playing about the room, drank a cup of whiskey that a visitor had left at the Lashley home in this city, and as a result death ensued. Alpha went to sleep and all efforts to arouse her failed. The dolls that she had longed for were placed in her little arms The funeral was held in Burlington. Veterans at the Soldiers' home were none the worse for their feast of tur-key Christmas day. Superintendent Lineberry killed 16 of the fowls.

The prisoners in the state printen-tiary and in the Wake county jail en-joyed an extra feast, the state prisoners receiving a dinner of fresh pork and the county prisoners boiled ham roast beef, cake and apples.

The state board of health will not ask the legislature for a large increase in the appropriation to carry on its work, but will ask for only enough money to continue the work begun two years ago and to equip the depart-ment with force sufficient to secure Chicago Woman Stabbed to $12,000. The board recognize about $12,000. The board receives directly and indirectly $26,000 a year. Secre-tary W. S. Rankin said today that he had sent out letters to the daily and weekly newspapers of the state for the purpose of learning how many would care to print the literature fur-nished by the board, and that practically all of the editors had hat they would be glad to publish the iterature. This has become a real eature of the state newspapers, and he secretary was pleased to read of warm support the board was being given by the North Carolina Press

Raleigh's eight banks will pay ou dividends a total of $58,400 for the panies, the Atlantic Fire Insurance company and the North Carolina Home Insurance company, will pay out $17,500, making the grand total institutions in the city amount to $75,900. In addition to this three of the ranks are erecting buildings that will cost approximately $600,000.

Sherwood Scott, the 13 years old 2 months ending December 31, and Call Rate High in New York, but the Deimand is Light.

Sherwood Scott, the 13 years old son of W. O. Scott, has consented to have his father the him next Christmas is not a opened at 12 per cent today and renewals were made at the same rate. This equals yesterday's high quotation, in the early afternoon as low as temper cent was quoted, although out-of-town banks were holding out in expectations of placing money here at a higher figure. Demand is relatively light, however, and no recurrence of the strike situation of the Balkan allies by which they would come into possession of the Sherwood Scott, the 13 years old son of W. O. Scott, has consented to have his father the him next Christmas and the Ottorian empire be allowed to conclusion that Christmas is not a lucky day for him. Last year he was almost blown out of existence when mained in a hospital for several weeks, and this Christmas he got hit the face and eye with a lot of powder exploded and repertations of placing money here at a higher figure. Demand is relatively light, however, and no recurrence of the strike situation of the Balkan allies by which they would come into possession of the Sherwood Scott, the 13 years old son of W. O. Scott, has consented to have his father the him next Christmas is not a lucky day for him. Last year he was almost blown out of existence when a can of powder exploded and remained in a hospital for several weeks, and this Christmas he got hit the Ottorian empire be allowed to coast of the strike of the sale and lines by which they would come into possession of the Sherwood Scott, the 13 years old cone into possession of the salice and the ottorian empire be allowed to a lucky day for him. Last year he was almost blown out of existence when a can of powder exploded and remained in a hospital for several weeks, and the Ottorian empire be allowed to the strike situation of the Sherwood scott, the 13 years old cone into possession of the Selowate as impossible of achieve ment as is the Turkish demand that the Ottorian empire

VERY FEW NEW PEERAGES ARE NOW IN PROSPECT

Honors to Be Conferred by English King Occasion Many Rumors.

By Associated Press.

London, Dec. 27.—The honors to be onferred by King George on New Year's day have given rise to some of the Order of Merit naturally creates the greatest speculation. The name like to see Sir Aston Webb, the archi-Sir Lawrence Olma-Tadema, as a member of this order. It is said that to find the door open, Entering the John S. Sargent, the American artist, house they heard someone running up would have received it had be become British subject.

Johnston Forbes-Robertson, the ac-or, it is said, will on this occasion be Prince Arthur of Connaught, the ernor-general of Canada, is due to re-ceive a dukedom, probably that of Kent, but this may be postponed until the king's birthday.

New peerages will be few and all of them outside of parliament as the government is not willing to run any further risk of losing bye-elections.

SERIOUS SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC AROUSES FEDERAL OFFICIALS

Hy Associated Press, Washington, Dec. 27.—Rigid steps by the public bealth service have srought under control a threatened serious outbreak of smallpox along the West Virginia-Maryland border. Dr. B. S. Warren, detailed to investigate he situation, has reported eleven mass in the vicinity of Martinsburg.

cases in the vicinity of Martinsburg, W. Va. These cases, all within from three to 10 utilies of the city, are under proper control.

In Cumberland, Md., 11 cases were reported in the city, and proper measures for control have been put into effect. One case is reported from Lanncoulum, Md. It has been isolated, but the public health service has warned the local health service has warned the local health officialis to watch for new cases in that locality,

READY FOR WAR WITH PARCELS POST

Preparations for Resumption of Hotilities Are Actively Proceeding, According to Dispatch.

PLACE ENVOYS TERMS

London Expects that the Attitude of Intractability Will Be Altered However.

By Associated Press.
Berlin, Dec. 27.—Bulgaria is pre-Berlin, Dec. 27.—Bulgaria is pre-selves of an opportunity to obtain paring to resume the war according to fresh produce at small cost. special dispatch from Rustchuk. Bulgaria. The correspondent says the with the state grange. colors

Large supplies of munitions of war and provisions have reached Rustchuk vegetables in season. on a Russian steamer which came up the Danube. Two other steamers brought a large number of cavalry horses and hospital supplies and there were 80 physicians and a corps of nurses on board.

London, Dec. 37,-Peace envoys both of the Balkan states and of Turkey have adopted the attitude of in tractability which was anticipated to ward their opponents' proposed terms of settlement. Each side declares that the other's demands are preposterous. Third parties who are in touch with both groups of negotiators share this opinion and intimate that a period of

HUUSE IS EN IEKEU

Several Shals Fired at Two Feeling Men, Supposed to be Burglars.

Two men, supposed to have been burglars, entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Moore of Weaverville. interesting rumors. The vacancy roll while the latter were calling on neigh bors last night, and although several shots were fired at them, they sucof Mrs. Humphrey Ward, the writer, ceeded in getting away. It is not has been mentioned in this connection thought that any of the shots took but if is likely that while she will re-effect. One of the men was hemmed ceive some recognition, this greater, in the second story but succeeded in sliding down a porch column.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore, early in the vening, went to call at the home of other ran through one of the down-stairs rooms and jumped through a stairs rooms and jumped through a screen to the ground.

Mr. Moore then telephoned to Mr. Rengan who with one of his sons came to his aid with a shotgun. Going upstairs they could find no trace of the man, but descending they heard him tipping over the upper porch. They ascended again but the man had hidden behind a large column. Going den behind a large column. Going into the yard they heard him sliding down the column and several shots were fired at him, but he escaped in

In making a search of the premise hey saw a man running from the doennels, evidently the one who had caped first from the house. They escaped first from the house. They need at him with both gun and pistol but he kept running.

The affair caused considerable excitement as there has been no attempt at burglary in Weaverville for many years.

"Patsy" Sheppard Dead.

By Associated Press.

Boston, Dec. 27.—"Patsy" Sheppard, who as a lightweight was one of the stars of sparring years ago, died at his home here today, aged 65 years. From 1834 to 1874 he fought nearly all the noted boxers in England and this country. Later he was

FIGHT MIDDLEMAN JURORS STILL DELIBERATING

Housewives' League Plans to Get Produce Direct from Farmers.

By Associated Press. New York, Dec. 27.-Apples, fresh eggs and country butter direct from the farm to the housewife by parcels post to reach half a million homes in DEEMED IMPOSSIBLE New York and its environs-this is the newest plan, announced today, of Mrs. Julian Heath, president of the National Housewives' league. Mrs. Heath says her plan will become operative to some extent on January 1, when the mails are opened to parcels posts packages,

Mrs. Heath's plan to eliminate the a registry committee. This committee has begun its preliminary work of investigation being of importance to listing all farmers within the 50-mile railroads and travelers in the south The league will work in harmony

Bulgarian war minister has called up believes will be dual, inasmuch as the the recruits due to be enrolled only in farmers will receive more for their 1913 and has summoned all able- produce than they now receive from bodied men up to the age of 50 to the dealers, while the consumers will get preferring to issue tickets in exchange fresh food at lower prices than those now charged. The plan will be extended, Mrs. Heath said, to include Similar registry bureaus will be open next Wednesday in the principal cities of the country, Mrs. Heath declared.

THE STRIKE SITUATION IN MEXICO UNCHANGED

Men Ask an Eight Hour Day, Pension and Hospital Reforms.

Mexico City, Dec. 27.—No ahanges have taken place in the strike situa-tion on the lines of the Mexican rail-has the movement of trains been im-

MASON'S WIDOW SUES TO RECOVER DAMAGES

Seeks to Recover $15,000 on Policy Insuring Husband Against Death by Violent Means.

New York, Dec. 27.—The first suit ever brought here to recover damages for the death of a passenger in ar airship was filed yesterday in the supreme court by the widow of Victor L. Mason, who was killed in London England, on May 13. Mrs. Mason sued an accident and guarantee company of London for $15,000 on a pol-ley insuring her husband against death by violent means. The policy was issued by the defendant's New York agents in 1906.

Mr. Mason, the complaint says, was passenger in an aeroplane "for it was due to arrive here a leasure" when he fell out and was old not get in until 12:45.

FRENCH COAST IS STORM-SWEPT:

By Associated Press Havre, France, Dec. 27.—The storm which has ravaged the English channel for the past few days has caused serious depredations on the French coast. The new harbor works of this port have suffered considerable dam-

Dispatches from Cherbourg state that many steamers and sailing ves-sels have taken refuge there from the gale. Telegrams from Brest say that the harbor is crowded.

Wire Communication Delayed.

Paris, Dec. 27.—The great storm which has prevailed throughout France yesterday and today has caused considerable interruption to the telegraph and telephone system in France and the government as nounced today that communication with Belgium and Holland can only be effected with much delay.

Leave to Seize Counterfeiters.

Washington, Dec. 27.—A United States secret service operative left Washington today for Clarksburg. W. Va., to take charge of two alloged Italian counterfeiters held by the police there.

Balvadore Lutello and Fortunado Lobello are charged with having in their possession and passing $1 countrierfeit notes made by the notorious Morello-Lupe gans, the leaders of which are now serving long terms in the ponitentiary.

THE MILEAGE BOOK QUESTION IS UP

Examiners for Interstate Commission Are Taking Evidence in Charleston.

Charleston, S. C., Dec. 27.-Special Examiners William A. Ryan and Helder of the interstate commerce "middleman" involves the creation of ing of the mileage book question, the of investigation being of importance to zone. The rolls will be opened to all High railroad officers, representatives housekeepers who wish to avail themof commercial travelers organizations dicts in the "dynamite conspiracy" and the attorney general and railroad case, if any are found today, will not commissioners of South Carolina are present.

The railroads question a state's au thority to compel them to accept mileage coupons on trains, the lines

EXODUS OF TURKS

Many of the Mussulmans Already are Leaving Europe to Reside in Asia Minor.

By Associated Press.
Washington, Dec. 27.—The exodus of the Turks from Europe virtually has been begun according to a letter received by the American Red Cross. The letter says that the Red Cross has already aided more than 100,000 Turkish refugees to leave Europe and to take up agriculture in Asia Minor. The families are agriculturists and they represent for the most part the primitive portion of the Turkish pop-

"The sight is very interesting," says the Red Cross correspondent, speaking of the farmers desertion of their homes in Europe, for, leaded into their bullock carts are their families and the crude implements of their trade. To all appearances the im-plements are of the same design as used before the time of the

The farms across the Boshprus are provided free by the Ottoman govern-

'BAD MAN'' KILLED

errorizes Town and Stabs Officer Who Attempted to Arrest Him.

after he had stabbed to death Deputy been exercise on the roof of terrorized population in doors. Ray the verdicts as to the other defendants was stabbed to death while attempt- are returned.

which followed.

TRAIN DELAYED

'unnel of No. 41's Engine Blew Out —Face of Enginer Was Slightly Burned.

There was an accident yesterday was delayed about an hour and a half.

RENCH COAST IS STORM-SWEPT: fered a few slight steam burns about shipping suffers severely the face. The train was held up unrain and the dead engine into Ashe-

Gen. Huerta Relieved of Command,

By Associated Press.

Mexico City. Dec. 27.—General Vic-oriano Huerta, hero of the campaign against General Pascual Orozco, the rebel leader, was retired today by the federal war department from the com-

General Huerta has been in Mexic City for several weeks and it was said that he had been undergoing treat-ment for an affection of the eyes. It was declared that General Huerta asked to be relieved of his command. He has been offered an advisory post

The Turrialba Taken in Tow.

By Amociated Press.

Sandy Hook, N. J., Dec. 27.—The United Fruit company's steamer Turriaiba, which went ashore on South Brigantine shoals near Atlantic City in a snowstorm early Tuesday morning was pulled off into deep water by wrecking tugs today. The tugs took her under tow for New York where she will be docked for repairs. Her 57 passengers were taken off Christmus day and her cargo jettimoned yesterday. Most of the crew are still on board.

After Report of Failure to Reach Agreement Adjournment Is Taken Until Afternoon.

GOVERNMENT HOPES FOR EARLY VERDICT

Defense Believes Deliberations Wiil be Lengthy-The Instructions of Judge

By Associated Press. Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 27.-Verbe reported to the court until this afternoon at least. That was assured when Federal Judge Anderson, on receiving word from the jurors that they were not ready to report, adjourned court until 2:30 o'clock.

Anderson.

Government officials were confident that before night the jurors would be able to return their findings in the ases of the 40 labor union officials who are accused of assisting in and appropriating $1000 a month for the series of 100 dynamite and nitroglycerine explosions carried on by the McNamara brothers against the employers of non-union labor. From the fact that Judge Anderson instructed the jury to "carefully con-sider all the evidence in the case," which it required three months to present, attorneys for Frank M. Ryan. president of the Iron Workers Inter-national union, and the other defendants were of the opinion that the jurors may not be able to find verts within 24 hours after their re-

Thousands of persons have tried in (ain to witness the closing scenes of what the government contends is the most important trial involving labor union officials ever held in a federal Judge Anderson's court room is comparatively small, being occu-pied almost to its capacity by the 40 defendants, members of their familles. attorneys and newspaper correspond-ents. The room occupied by the jurors day and night for three months is reached by a special stairway not ccessible to the public.

On the same floor with the jurers are Ortic E. McManigal and Edward Clark, confessed dynamiters. Mc-Manigal, upon whose confession the charges that labor union officials violated the federal law prohibiting the Oak Grove, La., Dec. 27.—After senger trains, is to be returned to the having been "boss of the town for one day," as he declared. Fink Madass the trial ends here. His recreation dox, a reputed "bad man," was shot since his being brought here as a Marshal L. E. Ray. Maddox had al-most complete possession of the town out of cigar boxes. Clark, who conthe entire day. By the liberal use of fessed to blowing up the bridge at his lirearms he kept nearly all of the Dayton, O., is to be sentenced after Maddox mounted a horse and attempted to escape, but was overtaken by officers and killed in the battle Association of Bridge and Maddox mounted a horse and attempted to escape, but was overtaken by officers and killed in the battle Association of Bridge and Maddox mounted a horse and attempted to escape, but was overtaken by officers and attempted to escape, but was overtaken by officers and attempted to escape, but was overtaken by officers and attempted to escape, but was overtaken by officers and attempted to escape, but was overtaken by officers and killed in the battle lron Workers; John T. Butler, Buffa-lo, vice president; Herbert S. Hockin, former secretary; Olaf A. Tveitmoe, San Francisco, secretary of the Cali-fornia Trades council; Eugene A. Clancy, San Francisco; Philip A. Cooley, New Orleans; Michael J. Young, Boston; Frank J. Higgins, Boston; J. Munsey, Salt Lake City, Utah; Frank C. Webb, New York; Patrick F. Far-There was an accused to C. Webb, New York; Paurick P. rat-morning to the engine attached to rell, New York; John H. Barry, St. passenger train No. 41 from the south, rell, New York; John H. Barry, St. passenger train No. 41 from the south, rell, New York; John H. Barry, St. when the funnel blew out about three miles this side of Saluda and the train Fy W. Legleitner, Denver; Charles N. Beum, Minneapelis; Herman G. Seifwas delayed about an nour and a nam.

It was due to arrive here at 11:15 but fert, Milwaukee; Michael J. Cunnanea, Philadelphia; William E. Reddin, Mil-No one was seriously hurt by the accident, aithough the engineer sufcago: James Cooney, Chicago: James H. Coughlin, Chicago; William Shupe. Chicago: Edward Smythe, Peoria, Ill.; til another engine could be sent down James E. Ray, Peoria, Ill.: Murray L. from Saluda and it was pushed into Pennell, Springfield, Ill: Daniel Buck-Hendersonville. There another en-gine wat attached which brought the hardt, Cincinnati; William C. Bern-hardt, Cincinnati; Wilford Bert Brown, Kansas City, Mo.; William J. McCain, Kansas City, Mo.; Frank K. Paynton, Omaha; Peter J. Smith, Cleveland; George Anderson, Cleve-land; Michael J. Hannon, Scranton, Pa.: Edward E. Phillips, Syracuss, N. Y: Charles Wachtmeister, Detroit; Frank J. Murphy, Detroit; Fred J. Money, Duluth; Ernest G. W. Basey. Indianapolis; Fred Sherman, Indianapolis: Hiram Kline, Muncie, Ind., former organizer for the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Join-union.

> All except Tveltmoe and Kline are ennected with the Iron Workers' mion.

Instructions of Judge.

After stating the substance of the various offenses charged and mentioning the nationwide strike of the Iron. Workers' union, which the government charged was the motive for 100 explosions on the work of contractors who refused to recognize the union, Judge Anderson in his instructions smid:

"It was not unlawful for the atrustural iron workers to organize the union to which they belong. It is not unlawful for the defendants to it members of that or any other last organization. Men have the right use their combined power investigated organizations to his account the interests in any lawful and it is interests in any lawful and it is the power to the foreign to use the power to the law no clight to use this power to the (Continued on meet 4).