Socialist Columns.

Controlled by the Socialist Local of Asheville, Which Alone Is Responsible for the Opinions Herein Expressed. Communications and Inquiries Should Be Addressed to the Socialist Press Committee, 23 N. Main St.

democracy at least reminds one of a big boy who has been made a drudge of and abused by a stepfather, who gets up courage and whips his stepfather to a standstill and then sets him in a chair, cuts a whip and puts it in his hand, feeling himself, after all, unable to take care of himself.

Then consider that most of the prominent men in the democratic as well as in the republican party have trained with the predatory interests, and that Bro. Bryan has waxed fat going up and down the country, pleasing audiences with pious phrases, and see what chance you have of real betterment.

The sole hope of the farmer, the workman, the small business man is, after all, that socialist vote of nearly 900,000.

About the twentieth of this month the socialists of this city will distribute several thousand copies of the Appeal to Reason, as they have often done before. This edition is of special interest as it contains full details of the prosecution of Eugene V. Debs as its editor and Fred Warren as its manager, for sending obscene matter through the mails.

This matter consisted of an account of the depraved moral and physical conditions that prevailed in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., and as a result of the exposure the prison was cleaned up.

The Appeal has repeatedly been the object of federal persecution and has won every formal case made against it. It has circulated over 25 million copies during the past 11 months. It has had a thousand subscribers in Asheville alone, and is the greatest and most effective weapon of the working class of America. N. D. L.

Pointed Paragraphs from the Appeal.
There will be no mortgages under socialism.
Mighty good brains are drowned in too much sweat.
The beginning of freedom is freedom from prejudice.
America has signally failed to abolish one lord—the landlord.
Some men are ruined by self-conceit, others by self-deceit.
Dynamite is not half so dangerous to privilege as an idea is.
Under "individualism" the average individual counts for nothing.
This nation is not rich because a few Astors are rich, so long as the many masses are poor.
The masters have cornered the coal, the workers dig, and now the tollers children shiver of cold.
The reason your prospect is dreary is because you busy yourself making the prospect bright for the other fellow.
The drowsiness of opium is nothing in its effects to be compared with the sleep that does not wish old evil to be disturbed.
Socialists may be dreamers, but the dream is mighty beautiful and millions of them are working to make it real.
The king raises his tributes by tariffs and internal revenue. We in America have not got over this crude method of exploitation.
The reason you want a home and can't get it is because you have voted that the rich shall own the houses that the poor build.
The world is handicapped by ignorance and prejudice as the kangaroo is by its useless front legs. It can advance only by hops.
The press, whose normal function is to disseminate light, has become a great maker of shadows, and hides more than it reveals.
The workers create all the wealth, and the shirkers, by taking the wealth, create all the poverty there is. Each should have his own product.
The reason you are poorly fed is because you have voted that a few shall control the food supply, which means that they will take the best of it.
The pennies of the workers have built every big newspaper building, and a majority of those newspapers seek to enslave the workers to capitalism.
There are tremendous agencies at work gravely dispensing misinformation and believing it to be a virtue because of their own misinformation.
The reason your wife can't keep sweet is because you workers are willing to produce soot for two cents a pound and pay the system six cents for it.
If it be true, as has been charged by the standpatners, that the progressive movement is headed for socialism then the socialist vote will in a short time reach several millions.
It is silly to talk of the nation being prosperous because a few have good times as it would be to talk of being happy because a few kings in Europe were having a good time.
We have the public schools, yet the school book trust levies a tribute from you before you are permitted to educate your child. The fault is not with the public school but with the private book maker.

The Spirit of Winter.

The Spirit of Winter is with us, making its presence known in many different ways—sometimes by cheery sunshine and glistening snows, and sometimes by driving winds and blinding storms. To many people it seems to take a delight in making bad things worse, for rheumatism twists harder, colds sharper, catarrhs become more annoying, and the many symptoms of scrofula are developed and aggravated. There is not much poetry in this, but there is truth, and it is a wonder that more people don't get rid of these ailments. The medicine that cures them—Hood's Sarsaparilla—is easily obtained and its use is abundant proof that it cures are radical and permanent.

WEAVERVILLE

Bank Directors Meet—Business House to Be Built—Gun Club Organized—Social Club Projected.

Correspondence of The Gazette-News.

Weaverville, Jan. 11.—When the stockholders of the Farmers and Traders bank held the semi-annual meeting on Wednesday, a five per cent dividend was declared for the past six months. The following officers and directors were elected to serve for this year: L. A. Harris, president; J. S. Colman, vice president; D. J. Weaver, cashier; J. K. Robinson, Matt Hurlston, Stanley Howland, F. T. Meriwether, J. A. Harris, J. C. M. Valentine, J. S. Colman, H. B. Williams, D. J. Weaver, directors. The bank has grown steadily since its organization, enjoys unquestionable facilities for transacting a banking business, and has modern and up-to-date quarters.

In the near future Dr. C. P. West will erect a three-story brick business building near the A. & E. T. railroad depot, which will fill a much needed want for those requiring offices.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Moore are spending several weeks in Florida. While there Mr. Moore will conduct several land sales.

The friends of J. V. Erskine learn with regret that he will not be able to make Weaverville his permanent residence at present, as expected, owing to business interests in Atlanta.

The Weaverville Gun club was organized during the holidays with a large membership. Several shoots have been held, and hunting trips are planned.

Several young men of the town are preparing to organize a social club.

Here is a remedy that will cure your cold. Why waste time and money experimenting when you can get a preparation that has won a worldwide reputation by its cures of this disease and can always be depended upon? It is known everywhere as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and is a medicine of real merit. For sale by all dealers.

AT THE CLASSIC.

The stories of the moving picture dramas at the Princess-Classic theater are given as follows:

Thrilling Capture After Daring Escape
The escape from the jail is shown today in the "Sheriff's Adopted Child," and the capture effected. It is sensational and thrilling. A remarkable feature in the action is a more child feature in California, wild and beautiful. There are three other good offerings: "The Stigma," "The New Fire Chief," and "How Shorty Was Saved."

Convict Life in Ohio Penitentiary.
This is a picture in three reels of a class that is unusual. It will be shown at the Classic on Monday. It shows the prison life; the true story of the escape of General John H. Morgan and his officers from the Ohio penitentiary during the war of the states. He is seen to dig his way to freedom through masonry. The great feature is the "Palace of Death."

Miss Grosse at Classic.
The management of the Classic has engaged one of the finest vocalists singing in moving picture theaters, in Miss Gonyave Grosse, who comes from New York. She has a remarkable soprano voice, high and clear. She will sing between the hours of 2 p. m. and 10 p. m., changing songs daily.

The Classic now has a very beautiful interior, having had three scenic artists at work for three weeks. Work is now being done on the exterior, and the house will soon be one of the prettiest in the state.
