Cottolene

PANTRY

Pastry can be "pasty" or "tasty"—much depends upon the cooking fat used. Cottolene is preferable to butter or lard for shortening because it makes pastry rich without the least suggestion of greasiness. It also makes it light, crisp and digestible.

In addition to giving better results, Cottolene is cheaper than butter, more economical than lard. Two-thirds of a pound of Cottolene will go as far as a full pound of butter or lard, and Cottolene is usually as cheap as or cheaper than lard.

Buy a pail of Cottolene today, try this recipe, and let "hubby" render the verdict when he tries the food.

When results and economy both point to Cottolene, why use any other shortening?

Cottolene is the original vegetable shortening and frying medium. It is a product of Nature, made from the purest and choicest cotton oil, and is in every sense as palatable, healthful and digestible as olive oil.

COTTOLENE DOUGHNUTS

Cream three tablespoons Cottolene, add scant cup of sugar, 3 yolks of eggs well beaten with one white, stir in one cupful of freshly mashed potatoes and 1/4 cup of milk. Sift 2 1/2 cups flour with 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon each of salt and ground mace, also a little nutmeg, and add to first mixture, working in additional flour as necessary to handle lightly. Roll and cut all doughnuts before frying. Fry in hot Cottolene 3 inches deep in kettle, testing the temperature with piece of bread.

CADETS AGAIN DEFEAT HIGH SCHOOL BOYS

In the second game of the series yesterday afternoon Bingham was the winner over the Asheville High school by the score of 8 to 7. There was a good crowd at Riverside to witness the contest, and there was no lack of interest for the spectators at any stage of the proceedings. The game was kept going steadily and without friction by T. C. Stouch, who acted as umpire and did not have a single kick about his decisions.

There was no scoring by either side for the first four innings, and then Bingham started things off with a little extra work with the willow and scored three runs before the merry-go-round could be stopped. A feature of this start was that Angier went home from first base on a single. The High school boys did not score until the seventh as they succeeded then in putting five men across the rubber. Bingham led the score in the last half of the inning. Asheville made two runs in the eighth and ninth innings, but in the eighth the cadets piled on three more runs and won the contest.

The last game of the series will be played this afternoon, and it is expected that Fortune and Covington will be the opposing twirlers. The box score of yesterday's game follows:
