Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is astonishing. Please don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

GOOD HORSE SENSE.

The horse is man's universal motor, without which he could not have attained to his present degree of civilization—could not even have emerged from savagery—yet he is so familiar that he is not appreciated until he is lost. No other animal is so important to human welfare, and his improvement by the use of good sires should be the care of every farmer as a mere matter of economy.—Kansas Farmer.

IS IT "LAZY MAN'S WAY?"

Use of Commercial Fertilizers Discussed For and Against. Mr. Fullerton, who, with his wife, is the "head and front" of the Long Island experiment farms, discourages as follows on the use, or rather, abuse, of commercial fertilizers. In answer to the question, "Aren't you ever going to use fertilizer, Mr. Fullerton?" he said: "Bless your soul, yes. Didn't I use fertilizer when I plowed that rye under? Next fall I am going to put on about ten tons to the acre of manure again, and I am going to turn under crimson clover, vetch and rye on every square foot I can get planted. "Then I shall use lime for a sweetener, for we now can afford the lime a little time to work. Next summer when I am putting in a second and third crop on the same ground I shall probably use blood and bone meal. "Don't misunderstand me. I think chemical fertilizers are bulky for old, worn-out land, but it would be like 'carrying coals to Newcastle' to put them on virgin soil. "The craze for chemical fertilizer has gone too far. There are places where they have put it on so heavy (with the theory that if one ton is good two tons will be better) that they have chemical laboratories, not farms. All chemical fertilizing is 'lazy man's way.' He claims he will not have weeds, so will save cultivation. Weeds are the farmer's best friends. They force him to cultivate, and lack of cultivation is the crime of modern farming. If they'll pile some old tanure on that ground now and so liberate through decomposition the various component parts of the chemical fertilizers they will have farms again."

HEAR BOTH SIDES.

Never condemn your neighbor unheard, however many the accusations against him. Every story has two ways of being told, and justice requires that you should hear the defense as well as the accusation. And, remember, your enemies may place you in a similar situation.

CALLS WATTS REACTIONARY

E. J. Justice Attacks Candidate for Collectorship— Sees President and Gives Interview.

MAY START A RUMPUS AMONG THE TARHEELS

If President Takes Any of Justice's Advice There Would Be a Democratic Cleavage.

Gazette-News Bureau, Wyatt Building, Washington, March 27.

E. J. Justice of Greensboro caused a mild sensation here today when he gave out an interview in which he said he had asked the President to consider the "progressive" democrats rather than the "reactionaries" in the distribution of patronage in North Carolina. Mr. Justice mentioned Col. A. D. Watts, by name, and told the president that the colonel was responsible for the defeat of every progressive measure that failed of passage by the last legislature.

Mr. Justice's statement followed conferences with secretary of state Bryan, Senators Gore and Owen of Oklahoma, Secretary of the navy Josephus Daniels and Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo.

Should the president follow the advice of Mr. Justice, even to a small extent, a big row will be caused in democratic ranks in the state. It would mean, perhaps, that national committeeman Daniels would have to line up with either the Justice faction or the side led by Senators Simmons and Overman. But whether Mr. Daniels favors the Justice movement or not is not known. Mr. Justice will oppose Senator Overman for reelection to the senate. He will base his campaign upon progressive policies and against what Justice terms "Machine politics."

Justice's Statement.

After his various conferences Mr. Justice issued the following statement: "There was nothing of any personal interest discussed by me with the president. We discussed public questions generally and particularly my interest in seeing North Carolina democracy be in thorough harmony with the policies of the president. I frankly discussed the North Carolina situation along the lines I had discussed in public prior to the Baltimore convention and as I discussed it in general assembly. I undertook to impress upon the president what the fight for progressive policies such as the anti-trust law, the corrupt practice act and the legalized primary meant to those of us who had supported these measures."

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE

Chicago, March 27.—Prediction of cessation of rain in the Ohio valley sent wheat down today. Easier cables from Liverpool and reports from Argentina of prospective large shipments, added to bear sentiment. The market opened a shade to 1/4 cent lower, with May 1/2 @ 1/4 off at 96 1/4 to 96 3/4 @ 1/2 and declined to 96. Corn after a firm start, sagged owing to scantiness of demand. May started unchanged to 1/2 @ 53 1/2 @ 1/2 to 53 1/2 and eased to 53 @ 1/2.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK.

Chicago, March 27.—Hogs, receipts 20,000; slow, generally 5c lower. Bulk of sales 9.20 @ 9.35; light 9.05 @ 9.35; mixed 9.25 @ 9.35; heavy 8.75 @ 9.30; rough 8.75 @ 9.00; pigs 7.15 @ 9.20.

Cattle, receipts 4000; strong. Beeves 7.00 @ 9.10; Texas steers 6.50 @ 7.70; western steers 6.85 @ 8.20; stockers and feeders 6.70 @ 8.20; cows and heifers 3.75 @ 8.10; calves 6.50 @ 9.60.

Sheep, receipts 8000; steady to a shade higher than yesterday's close. Native 5.75 @ 6.60; western 5.90 @ 6.60; yearlings 6.35 @ 7.75; lambs, native, 6.75 @ 8.50; western 7.00 @ 8.50.

As to Mr. Watts.

"Did you discuss with the president the question of naming a collector of internal revenue for the western district of North Carolina?" "I don't know whether I know all the candidates," said Mr. Justice, "but so far as A. D. Watts is concerned he is on record in the last general assembly of opposing almost if not all progressive measures, and to him, more than any one else is due whatever credit or blame attaches to the defeat of the legalized primary. He made no concealment of the fact that he was violently opposed to the resolutions I offered inviting the president, Mr. Bryan and Senator LaFollette to the state to speak and as I understand it, he placed his opposition particularly upon the ground that they were invited to speak upon measures which he did not believe in and which in his judgment the legislature did not have time to hear discussed."

Mr. Justice said that even the known fact that Senator Simmons favored these progressive measures did not deter Senator Watts in his opposition. He said he had no personal feeling against Mr. Watts nor did he attempt to tell the president that there was anything that could be brought against Mr. Watts personally. His reactionary tactics were the only things spoken of, Mr. Justice said.

PRESIDENT HOPES TO COME HERE

Tells Congressman Gudger That Definite Decision Cannot Be Made Now.

MR. GUDGER DISCUSSES LEGISLATIVE PROSPECT

Believes Tariff Act Will Be Passed as a Whole—Some Patronage Matters.

"In my opinion Asheville has an excellent chance of getting President Wilson to spend his vacation here," said Congressman J. M. Gudger, Jr., who arrived from Washington this morning on the New York special. Mr. Gudger said that he based his opinion on a conversation which he had with the president in regard to the matter yesterday, and that the president said that he was favorably inclined toward this place.

Mr. Gudger delayed his departure from Washington in order to talk to Mr. Wilson about making Asheville the summer capital, and to ascertain his attitude concerning the matter. "The president said that he would be very glad to come to Asheville this summer," said Mr. Gudger, "but that on account of the special session of congress he would be forced to stay in Washington until its close, which time would be indefinite, as it might take up a considerable part of the summer; that the time was too far off to make a definite decision. He added, however, that he was very favorably inclined toward Asheville, and my personal opinion is that the city has a good chance of getting him."

With reference to appointments to office Mr. Gudger said: "There have been no developments except that pressure is strong for the repeal or modification of the Taft civil service order; and in my judgment a modification of the order will be made within 30 days to the effect that all applicants for postoffices will be required to stand civil service examinations, including the incumbents; and appointments will be made from a certified list of the eligibles. The exact method has not been determined, but the matter now has the consideration of the postoffice department. This does not apply, of course, to the presidential offices."

"In this district there are four presidential offices where the postmasters will be selected during the early part of April. Canton, Black Mountain, Tryon and Rutherfordton." Mr. Gudger continued: "The impression prevails in Washington that the tariff bill will be passed as an entire measure, and there is no question but that the party will be in harmony on the matter, both in the senate and house."

Mr. Gudger stated that the acting commissioner of Indian affairs had designated James E. Henderson as the superintendent of the Cherokee Indian school at Yellow Hill in Swain county.

Free selling of oats weakened that market. May, which opened at 33 1/2, to 34 unchanged to 1/4 off, declined to 33 1/2 @ 1/2. Provisions trade was confined to small local transactions.

Prices at the outset ranged from 2 1/2c lower to 10c higher with May deliveries as follows: Pork, 20.60 @ 67 1/2; lard, 11.10; ribs, 11.17 1/2.
