AMUSEMENTS. ADVANCE NOTICE. The Louis and Lake Company Will Present "A Trip to Paris" at the Majestic.

Beginning Thursday at matinee the Majestic theater will offer for the rest of the week "A Trip to Paris" by the Louis and Lake company, of which the following is said:

"The play is a solid laugh from start to finish. This bill is something entirely new to Asheville theatergoers, and is one of the best productions in the repertoire of that popular producer and comedian, George Kehn. The story in this laughable farce centers around two eccentric millionaires, a Dutchman and an Irishman, who have made their money by coralling the mustard market, and are celebrating by taking a vacation in Paris. The entanglement which results by their stupid blunders with a jealous, extolable Frenchman and two other 'hautain' aristocrats, and an American 'sure-think' man are amusing, and are sure to tickle the most grouchy.

"The musical numbers are all of the recognized Lewis and Lake variety, which is synonymous with newness and tunefulness. The costumes are all new importations and beautiful in the extreme.

"The principals will all be heard in new selections best fitted to their various voices."
