Asheville Winners. Asheville representatives came off at the recent horse show in Greenville with many honors in the way of blue ribbons and prizes. The last of the three performances of the horse show was witnessed by a crowd estimated conservatively at some 3000 people, the best day of the entire seventh annual exhibit. The closing performance of the show offered 11 classes, all of them most interesting. The championship classes were the features of the closing day. Class No. 30 of this series offering the coveted bankers' challenge cup, recognized as the grand prize of the entire contest, Henry F. Mills, well known in Asheville, took this cup, driving "Wellington," and has now gained it as his permanent possession, having won two years in succession. This seventh annual event is considered undoubtedly the best occurring so far, as more states were represented, the attendance was greater and an even higher grade of horses was shown. J. Rush Oates with his party motored home late Thursday evening, and others of the Asheville people who went down for this occasion are slowly coming in. The following are the Asheville trophies: Blue ribbon winner in Thursday event: Bohemian Boy, owned by J. C. O'Connell. First prize, $10. Class No. 38—Ladies' park horse: Yellow ribbon, won by Robin Adair, bay gelding, 15.5, owned by J. C. O'Connell, Asheville. Third prize, $10. Class No. 24—Combination harness and saddle horses: Yellow ribbon won by Prince Edward, owned by J. C. O'Connell. Third prize, $5. Class No. 33—Foals of 1911: Blue ribbon, won by Bohemian Boy, bay gelding, owned by J. C. O'Connell. First prize, $12.50. Cup winner in four championship classes: Nicholas, owned by J. C. O'Connell. Harness horse—post entry.

Auction Party. Mrs. M. H. Harris entertained last evening at her home the Knickerbocker with a charming auction party in honor of Miss Anne of Washington, who is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Hunt, at their home on Hillside street, and of Mrs. Truman, who is a guest of Mrs. Harris at the Knickerbocker. The decorations were green and white, these colors being used in a charming floral plan in which green baskets of daisies and other wild flowers adorned the rooms. The party was given in the front parlors of the Harris residence. Five tables of auction were played and the first prize was won by Mrs. Frederick L. Hunt. This prize was a pretty embroidered center piece. There was also a first prize for the gentlemen which was an attractively arranged bridge set. The guests of honor, Miss Askew and Mrs. Truman, were given each a pretty guest prize, these being two amethyst hearts. After the game a salad and an ice course were served. The guests were Mrs. Truman, Miss Askew, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Penland, Mrs. Guy Carlton, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Faucette, Mrs. M. No Need Being Old or Wrinkled Before 75

Lillian Russell says any woman who has wrinkles before she's 75 is herself responsible for them. Sunshine and fresh air she considers more valuable as complexion preservers than nothings and cosmetics. The chief objection to cosmetics is that at best they only temporarily cover up defects. There are certain true aids to Nature, which may be applied with directly opposite effect. Ordinary mercerized wax, for instance, actually removes a bad or oldish complexion, by gradually, almost imperceptibly, peeling off the worn-out scarf skin. Just one ounce, procurable at any drug store, will soon unveil an entirely new and natural complexion, with an exquisite girlish color. Of course cutaneous blemishes like pimples, freckles, fine lines, moth patches, liver spots, disappear with the discarded skin. To prevent or remove wrinkles, a face bath which also produces natural results, is made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint witch hazel. This is immediately effective and gives no untoward after-effect.

NOW WALKS MOST ANYWHERE

But for Fifteen Long Years, Mrs. Dickson Could Not Stand on Her Feet for Any Length of Time. Dallas, Tex.—"I cannot recommend Cardui, the woman's tonic, too highly," writes Mrs. R. J. Dickson, of 2907 Bryan street, this city. "It is the greatest boon to those suffering from womanly trouble, in existence. For 15 years, I was a sufferer from such severe pains, caused from womanly trouble, I could not walk, or even stand on my feet, long at a time. I also had backaches and headaches. I commenced taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and now I can walk anywhere I want to, do my own work, and feel better than I have for ten years. I am so thankful that I took your medicine, as I feel like a new woman entirely. My advice to all women is to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, when they feel they need a tonic, as it will certainly do for them, what it has done for me." Cardui goes to the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It is for the weak, tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as though everything were wrong, and who need something to quiet their restless nerves, and strengthen their worn-out systems. Thousands of women now enjoy good health as a result of taking Cardui. Why not you? Try it. At all druggists. N. B.—Write to: Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions on your case and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper.
