GAMES TODAY.

Durham at Asheville.
Charlotte at Raleigh.
Greensboro at Winston-Salem.

Asheville did not have much trouble in taking the last game of the series from Greensboro Saturday, but still it was close enough to be exciting, and in the ninth, the locals having a lead of four runs, Brittain hit a home run in the bleachers, scoring another and causing little shivers to run up the backs of the local fans, as there was no one out. But that ended the evening. Both Watson and Jordan were hit rather freely, but Watson had the better of it all the time, outside of the innings when Greensboro made home runs he was never in much danger. On the other hand, Jordan was in several holes and did not pull out of some of them. The holding of Noojin was a feature and the home runs of Holland and Brittain.

First Inning.

Richard hit safe; Doyle sacrificed; Deak grounded, Watson to Bumb; Watson grounded out to Bumb. One hit.

Second Inning.

Greensboro grounded; Corbett to Bumb; Brittain walked; Brittain grounded to Holland, forcing Bresslin at second; Cape popped to Bumb. Holland hit a home run over left field; Frye grounded, Doyle to Watson; Deak safe on Brittain's wild throw; Millman singled; Bumb grounded, Doyle to Watson; Watson flied to Bresslin. Two hits; one run.

Third Inning.

Jordan walked and was forced out by Richard's bunt; Watson to Corbett; Doyle flied to Corbett; Deak went safe on Holland's fumble, and Bulk Win Again. Special to The Gazette-News. The locals defeated the Hornets Saturday to the tune of 4 to 1, due to the pitching of Meadows and the batting of the Bulls. The locals cinched the game in the fourth inning when three runs were made, resulting from two triples, a single, a sacrifice and an error. Stegall relieved Cathey after the fifth and delivered the goods, but the visitors could not bat themselves to victory.

It Certainly Was Embarrassing

to David Kerr, boss of Belmont, when his charming, motherless daughter Gloria unexpectedly returned from school and a European trip, which, combined, had kept her away from home for many years and deprived her of all knowledge of the occupation of her father, whom she supposed to be a real estate operator, high in society. But that was but the beginning of embarrassments. Kerr was a typical boss of the most brutal type, far removed from "society," determined to use his power to make a place for Gloria. Gloria's bitterawakening to the truth, her falling in love with a young editor who opposes her father, and many other incidents make up a drama of absorbing interest and power. You will enjoy every instalment of our next serial in which the above is told.
