

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN TORE HER CLOTHES

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Malone, N. Y., — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has certainly done me a lot of good. I first heard of it when I was a girl and I always said that if I ever had female trouble I would take it."

"I suffered from organic inflammation and would have spells when I would be in such pain that I would tear my clothes. One day my husband got the neighbors in to see what the matter was but they could not help me. My first thought was for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I sent my husband out for it and took it until I was entirely cured. I am a woman of perfect health and my health and happiness came from Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine. You may rest assured that I do all I can to recommend your wonderful medicine to my friends." — MRS. FRED STONE, Route No. 3, Malone, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

The Black Cat at Sea.

About twenty years ago, when I was living in north China, the British squadron, then in far eastern waters, was steaming out of the port of Chefoo when a little black cat fell overboard from H. M. S. Wanderer. At once the ship stopped, signalled to its consorts "Cat aboard," and the entire squadron came to a standstill. A boat put off from the Wanderer and rescued a puss, who was swimming for dear life after the ship. The officer who told me the story said the sailors would have been furious if the little cat had not been saved, for not only was she a great pet, but they firmly believed disaster would follow if a black cat was allowed to drown.—London Mail.

During the summer months mothers of young children should watch for any unusual looseness of the bowels. When given prompt attention at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. Buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency. For sale by all dealers.

Plants That Eat Insects.

That such plants as "Venus' flytrap" actually catch and squeeze to death flies and other insects alighting on their leaves has long been known, but the discovery is comparatively recent that the plants digest the softer parts of their prey by means of a peptic ferment secreted by the leaves. These, then, are real instances of plants feeding upon animals.

It Certainly Was Embarrassing to David Kerr, boss of Belmont, when his charming, motherless daughter Gloria unexpectedly returned from school and a European trip, which, combined, had kept her away from home for many years and deprived her of all knowledge of the occupation of her father, whom she supposed to be a real estate operator, high in society. But that was but the beginning of embarrassments. Kerr was a typical boss of the most brutal type, far removed from "society," determined to use his power to make a place for Gloria. Gloria's bitter awakening to the truth, her falling in love with a young editor who opposes her father, and many other incidents make up a drama of absorbing interest and power. You will enjoy every instalment of our next serial in which the above is told,

THE SMART NEGLIGEE.
An Enchanting Model of White Crepe.

Long, clinging lines are yielding to frivolous pullings, platings and frills in my lady's negligee, and this enchanting model of white crepe de chine with trimmings of plaited net and little moss roses is typical of the new styles.

What Not to Do on Vacation.
Don't let the feet immediately after a meal. At least two hours should elapse before you enter the water.
Don't bathe in strange waters, especially if you are a poor swimmer. Swift currents and a heavy swell cause many accidents, while rivers are often thick with weeds.
Don't start out on your holiday with a rush. Go easy the first few days or you will return feeling worse than before you went away.
Don't try to cover too much ground afoot or on the cycle. Rest during the hottest hours of the day and do only as much as you can with comfort.
Don't take friends out rowing unless you can manage a boat, and, above all, don't change places once you've started.
Don't let the children paddle late in the evening when it may be getting chilly, as they are likely to catch a cold which will not be shaken off for weeks.
Don't travel with a lot of jewelry. It is quite unnecessary, and thieves are not unknown in boarding houses and hotels, while you may drop a valued gift in some unknown place.
Don't read in the blazing sun. If you take a book with you to the parade or cliff seek out a shady corner where the sun will not fall on the page or get in your eyes. Also don't keep your reading too long. Give your eyes a rest now and again.
Don't go to a place merely because Smith or Jones went there last year. It may not suit you.

GOWN OF DUTCH BLUE.
ored net so that while actually not transparent the bodice has an effect of being decidedly so. The gown is a delightful affair for street wear during the warm weather.

A Practical Lemon Squeezer.

Lemon squeezers are needed in every season, not alone in summer. A practical squeezer for the kitchen is made of nickel and glass. The part over which the lemon fits is of glass, and the rim into which the juice runs and the holder to catch the seeds are of nickel. It is priced at $2.25, but one that is really as good as this may be had for 35 cents. It is made in the same way, with a seed rim and a mouth from which to pour the juice. These latter are in Japanese Sedji ware, the green pottery which is both durable and attractive.

Dysentery is always serious and often a dangerous disease, but it can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has cured it even when malignant and epidemic. For sale by all dealers.

RANDOLPH MERCANTILE COMPANY

THE DAUGHTER OF DAVID KERR

By HARRY KING TOOTLE.

The boss of a provincial town keeps his daughter away at school in ignorance of his doubtful civic status. She comes home unexpectedly when a packing company wants a dishonest franchise, and when an independent newspaper editor threatens the boss's supremacy. How the boss is beaten, and the independent editor wins the laughter form as graphic a story of modern politics and society as has ever been written.

We have secured this fascinating story for our next serial. If you do not read it you will miss one of the most forceful pieces of fiction written in many a day. Watch for the one with the first instalment to appear in The Gazette-News. 11-
