

LAW COUNSEL VERY ANXIOUS

of Judge Hutchinson Determine Whether Metteawan Fugitive Will Be Released.

DEPORTATION MIGHT THEN FOLLOW

Is Taken from Jail on Corpus, His Attor- neys Would Appeal. It Is Said.

By Associated Press.
Cooke, Que., Sept. 1.—Lawyers K. Thaw showed plainly the nervousness and anxiety which they look forward to tomorrow's proceedings in the Superior court of St. Francis county.
Decision of Superior Judge Matthew Hutchinson, on the right of John Boudreau, chief of police of Coaticook and the freedom of Thaw, Boudreau arrested two weeks ago from Mattawan, Quebec, remains whether there shall be deportation at once the machinery of Thaw's deportation and extradition from a border whether he shall be remanded to the Sherbrooke jail to remain until the session of the King's bench tober.
Superior Judge Matthew Hutchinson sustains the writ of habeas corpus which was obtained for Boudreau acting for the state of New Thaw may be immediately turned over to the immigration authorities for deportation. Against this consensus, his lawyers have laid plans for a bitter fight.

Superior Judge Hutchinson, in applying for the writ of habeas corpus, is charged with being illegally, and is added clause that Boudreau is conscious of the illegality of the prisoner, is apprehensive he is liable to damages.
The preparation for fighting the in its present status, Thaw's advocate has caused him to swear before a notary that he contemplates no large suits, in fact releases Boudreau from any responsibility in the matter. In this way they hope to prevent the proceedings and has no need to ask for Thaw's liberty. They have gone a step further in having swear that he is in no way deficient of being set free at this time that the proceedings are contrary to the basic principle of habeas corpus. Should those arguments fail and the writ be granted they hope to appeal to the higher courts and stay the proceedings.

Lawyers representing New York maintain today that even should an appeal lie, the prisoner will already be released, the immigration authorities will have seized him and completed the desire of the state.
When on Wednesday last Thaw's lawyers succeeded over the opposition of counsel for New York in withdrawing the writ on which Thaw was then held, Boudreau, presiding in the Superior court, declined to hear counsel representing the state on the ground that New York had no standing in the case. Tomorrow matters will be reversed. It will be the New York lawyers who are before the court with a writ. Those who have studied the case were wondering today whether Judge Hutchinson would follow the precedent set by his brother and refuse Thaw's counsel a hearing.

Jerome Confident.

William Travers Jerome, Thaw's old attorney, and now chief of the office seeking his deportation, was back in Sherbrooke today after spending the week-end in Quebec. He is preparing to stay until he has exhausted every effort to get Thaw back to Mattawan. Should tomorrow's writ fail there is reason to believe that some action may be taken through Dr. Raymond Kleb, superintendent of Mattawan and, as such, Thaw's legal custodian. It was pointed out that Dr. Kleb could demand that Thaw, as lunatic, be surrendered to him.
Jerome believes firmly that Thaw will go back to Mattawan soon. He believes that if further legal entanglements arise here, high Dominion authorities, branding Thaw's detention without trial a public scandal, will demand his release.

ASHEVILLE TAKES ONE BIG HOLIDAY

Only a Few Working—Base- ball at Oates Park— Amusement at Riverside.

The city of Asheville is today having one of the biggest celebrations of Labor day ever held here, although the street parade of floats, which for a number of years was a feature of the day's celebration, has been dispensed with. Practically everybody is enjoying a holiday, and enough amusements have been provided to give them all, with a variety of entertainment. Those not attracted by the amusements offered here have gone on picnics and camping parties, and everybody is happy—except, perhaps, the handful that remain at work.

The banks of the city are closed for the day, as are all the business houses that hold memberships in the Asheville Merchants' association, with the exception of drug store and liquor stores; the postoffice windows were open only from 8 to 10 o'clock, and the evening delivery of mail in the city will be dispensed with, the rural carriers having a full holiday; city and county employes are enjoying a full day of freedom; while newspaper employes and a few others remain at "hard" labor.

The Y. M. C. A.—Mars Hill baseball games for the championship of western North Carolina are the attraction at Oates park for both morning and afternoon, and scores are being posted there for the league games that are being played on the Carolina league circuit. A big program of varied attractions is also being carried out at Riverside park under the auspices of the Central Labor union.

Mrs. Lizzie Vance Passed Away—Interment at Copper Hill.

Friends in Asheville have just been advised of the death of Mrs. Lizzie Vance, widow of the Gen. Robert Vance, one of the leading men of his Vance occurred at Copper Hill, Tenn., last Wednesday and the interment was at that place. Mrs. Vance had been ill for a long time and her death was not unexpected, but it nevertheless comes as a shock to the many friends she had throughout the state. She was a woman of great force of character and of wonderful mental endowment.

Philadelphia, Sept. 1.—Philadelphia won the morning game from Washington 4 to 1 through passes by Boehling made only five hits off Boehling, but two of these were mixed with the bat-the first inning, but after that only one safety was made off him.

aculous escape from death by lighting of a teacher and about 30 school children at Hanging Dog, a short distance from Murphy, last week. One of the children, a little fellow named McDon-

Canton last night, were resting comfortably at their hotel here today.
It was stated by attendants that Mrs. Leroy, for whom grave anxiety had been expressed, had apparently suffered nothing more serious than a bad shaking-up. Her daughter, Mrs.
Trask, fared no worse, the attend-

STOP BUSINESS FOR LABOR DAY

REFUGEES TELL OF MEXICAN CRUELTY

One Stabbed with Bayonet, Consuls Residence Loot- ed by Bandits.

By Associated Press.
Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 1.—American refugees are in force here today, having landed yesterday at San Diego.
Sixty persons were brought north from Guaymas and vicinity by the United States cruiser Pittsburgh.
Among them was T. L. Findley, who still is suffering from the effects of a bayonet wound received at the hands of an intoxicated rebel while lying sick in bed at his home in Durango.
Findley gave a graphic description of the raid on the city of Durango by a band of 6000 rebels.
"There was a colony of about 150 Americans in Durango at that time," said Findley, "and they suffered like the rest, all their money, watches and jewelry being taken from them. The rebels did not even respect the United States consulate. They entered Consul Ham's residence and forcibly took possession of all his arms and ammunition, although they did not molest his personal belongings.
"Immediately following the raids a number of Americans left for Mazatlan by way of a mountain pass and have not been heard of. The supposition is that they fell into the hands of the bandits."
C. K. Sigells, another American refugee, corroborated the story.

FAKE NEWSPAPER WAS BOUGHT BY THOUSANDS

Had Story That Thaw Had Been Shot While Trying to Escape.

By Associated Press.
New York, Sept. 1.—Thousands of New Yorkers pouring from beach trains at Brooklyn bridge during the night were victims of a fake sensation when they went down in their pockets for a nickel to buy a "newspaper" across whose front page in black letters three inches high they read "Harry Thaw Shot 'Trying to Escape.'" The papers sold rapidly and those who bought received an even greater thrill for their money, when they read below the report that Thaw was "killed" and one or more men with him in his dash for liberty were also "killed or injured"—qualified, however, by the statement that the report was unconfirmed.

BARNARDSVILLE RALLY WAS WELL ATTENDED

About Five Hundred Children Took Part in the Educa- tional Parade.

The educational rally which was held at Barnardsville Saturday was reported by Superintendent Hipps as being very successful in point of the number of people who attended and the enthusiasm manifested by those present. About 500 children participated in the parade, which was headed by a brass band, and afterward the school house was packed by the children and parents to hear the address by Dr. W. S. Rankin in the morning and L. C. Brodgen, supervisor of rural schools, in the afternoon. A basket dinner was served at noon, and among the other speakers of the afternoon

Rankin and L. C. Brodgen will speak at Alexander, to the parents and school children of French Broad township.

GOVERNMENT WHEELS CEASE TO REVOLVE

Senate, However, Continues Tariff Debate and Depart- ment Heads Are on the Job.

By Associated Press.
Washington, Sept. 1.—In observance of Labor day in the District of Columbia virtually all the wheels of the federal government today ceased to revolve. The exceptions were to be found in the senate, where the debate on the tariff bill was resumed; and in the state, war and navy departments and the executive office, where the Mexican situation compelled watchfulness.
All the departments were closed, however, so far as thousands of clerks were concerned. President Wilson is expected to return from his vacation at Cornish, N. H., tomorrow or Wednesday. Heads of departments interested in watching the Mexican problem were prompt in appearing.

day to hurry to their home districts to take part in the celebration of labor
