Personal Mention, Meetings of Societies

The wedding last evening of Miss Eleanor Carmichael, daughter of W. C. Carmichael, and William Roy Eleanor Of Virginia was one of the notable events of the season. Miss Car-michael was married at the home of her father on South Main street in the presence of the members of both fami-lies and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wyatt Brown, pastor of Trinity church, and took place in the living room of the residence, this room be-ing beautifully decorated and an altar banked with white roses and covered with smilax being improvised in a re-Rev. Mr. Brown met the bridal party in front of the altar, and the was given in marriage by her father. Miss Carmichael was gowned in ivory crepe meteor with lace and appeared to her greatest advantage in diaphanous bridal veil and clusters of orange blossoms. Miss Anna Car-michael, gowned in pale pink crepe meteor, attended her sister as maid of honor, and Miss Roberta Ellerson of Richmond, a sister of the groom, in blue crepe trimmed with embossed velvet and silver, acted as bridesmaid. Instead of a bridal bouquet Miss Carmichael carried a white velvet-covered Prayer Book. Sidney Ellerson of Richmond, a brother of the groom, attended him as hest man, and Louis Grant of Richmand was groomsman Following the ceremony, a large and brilliant reception was given at the bride's home, attended by several hundred guests. At this reception Mrs. Clarence Sawyer and Mrs. Courtney presided in the dining room, which was beautifully arranged in pink and white asters and smilax, and were assisted by Miss Alice Devenish, Miss Bettie Sites, Miss Lee and Miss Eleanor Morrion. Mrs. Herbert Cartwright and Miss Lulu Moore presided at the punch bowl. In the hall the guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman, Miss Rose Chapman and Woman's Guild Meets.

The Woman's guild of Trinity church met yesierday afternoon with Mrs. Carrie Carr Mitchell, at her home in Aston place, the gathering being well attended and one of the most interesting meetings of the year. The next occasion of this kind will be held with Mrs. Thomas W. Faiton and Miss Fannie Patton some time in November previous to their departure for Florids, where they apent part of each winter season. The chief feature of the meeting of yesterday afternoon was the decision on the part of the guild members to have a series of sales of the remaining articles which were left from the recent successful.

Lady Tells of Mother's Troubles, Which Almost Resulted in Death, And How They Were Overcome.

Cumberland Gap, Tenn .- "I don' believe my mother would be living to day," writes Mrs. Sarah I. Owens, of this place, "If it had not been for Cardul, the woman's tonic.

She suffered dreadfully for years with womanly troubles; smothering spells, chills, fluttering of the heart and weakness.

Finally, she was advised by a friend to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. She ought a bottle, and could notice its good effects from the first. She has now taken 6 bottles, and is enjoying very good health. It has done her more good than all the other mediines she ever took.

We think Cardui is worth its weigh n gold."

The very best endorsement any preparation can have, is that of people who have tried it. They know what it will do. Judging from the thousands of letters we receive each year similar to the above, it is easily possiple to believe in the good that Cardu has done for suffering women in its past half century of wonderful suc
